WHITE MEN'S MEETING!

An Enthusiastic Meeting of Democrats in Stam's Hall Wednesday—Able Speeches By Talented Orators.

If every white man in Kent county could have heard the speeches in Stam's Hall Wednesday they would have been convinced of the right of the white man to rule this country and State. It was one of the most enthusiastic meetings held here for sometime. Dr. G. Irving Barwick presided at the afternoon meeting and Wm. M. Slay, Esq., at night.

The speakers were Ex-Congressman L. Irving Handy, of Delaware; Col. Woods, of Frederick, Congressman Geo. Byrnes, of West Virginia. The addresses were to the point so that everyone present could unde stand every issue. Mr. Handy as an orator has few equals and held his audience spell bound, while Col. Byrnes made a good impression upon everyone.

We are sorry that space will not permit of the publication of these speeches.
