MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY

Right Clothing at Right Prices

This season finds us better prepared to serve the trade correctly and places us in a position to claim the title of headquarters for beyond doubt. This is evidenced by our increased trade, demonstrating that fair, square dealing, void of subway subterfuges pays in the finish, at any rate the public seem to realize this fact by trading here.

MEN'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S

CLOTHING

OUR CLOTHING FITS IS MADE CORRECTLY

Our Children's and Boys' fit the same as men's, and the cost very much less than city houses will ask you. Why so? We buy from same manufacturers at spot cash prices, and the small expense in handling is why. Think of this and see who is in the best shape to give you the most for your money

HATS, HATS, HATS,

We sell them.
We don't keep them.

SEPARATE TROUSERS

We set the pace.

GLOVES and GLOVES

We have lots on hands of good many people and have a pair left for you and the boy.

OVERCOATS

For Men, Boys and Little Fellows. New ones and duplicates are arriving daily.

Neckwear, Underwear

and all the little things ready and going. Come to headquarters directly opposite court house.

Local Notes.

Hog Cholera.—Hog cholera is playing havoc in Queen Anne's county and scores of farmers near Chestertown are killing hogs early. A farmer near Sudlersville has lost eighty hogs during the past month. Feed plenty of charcoal as a preventative.

Bank Meeting.—The annual meeting of the stock-holders of the Chestertown Bank was held Wednesday and resulted in the selection of the following directors: Alday Clements, President, R. D. Hynson, vice-president, Marion deK Smith, attorney, Charles T. Westcott, Edwin S. Valliant, F. H. Harper, James S. Harris, Samuel Vannort, Curtis E. Crane, J. W. Chapman, Tilghman Shafer, Elmer Leary, Dr. W. Frank Hines, W. W. Beck. The election of officers was postponed for two weeks.

Sale of Lot.—Mrs. John D. Urie has purchased from Judge J. A. Wickes the desirable building lot on Washington avenue, adjoining Normal Hall grounds. The lot has a frontage of about 265 feet and contains two acres. Mr. and Mrs. Urie will erect a handsome home on the lot next spring. The price paid for the lot was $1000.

Mr. Mack Patrick has purchased of J. D. Urie, Esq., a building lot adjoining the home of Mr. Edw. Newton, near Cemetery hill.

A Merited Promotion.—Mr. Frank V. Simpers has been promoted from the position of assistant superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Company at Chestertown to superintendent of this district, with headquarters at Dover, Del. This is a very responsible position, including all the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Delaware, and carries with it a liberal salary, Mr. Lewis Hayes will have charge of the Chestertown office at present. Mr. Simpers left for Dover yesterday. Mr. Jacob Ewell, of Crumpton, has entered the Chestertown office of the Prudential as one of the agents.
