STILL POND, MARYLAND

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Sunday's services at the M. E. Church was largely attended. In lieu of a sermon, Rev. Mr. Burr read the 1st, 2nd and 16th verses of 1 John, 3rd chapter, and making extended and forceful remarks thereon, after which communion service was held and quite largely participated in. Parson Burr, his wife and granddaughter, is off on a very well-earned vacation in the "Sunny South." Splendid arrangements for pulpit supply during his absence have been made. Tomorrow morning and evening Rev. G. S. Conway will occupy the Rock Hall pulpit, while Rev. J. M. Downey will officate for Mr. Conway at Piney Neck. The church improvements having been finally completed was the admiration on Sunday of all who beheld them. New pulpit, altar and choir loft furniture was noticed, also a lesson and hymn announcement cabinet at the left of the pulpit was noticed. This new feature ought to be conducive to forming a fervent worshipful trend of the sermon.

The business men of this place are having the Blackiston building fitted up for the Mendels Bros., who will conduct a wrapper factory. Carpenters began work on Monday and will finish in time for the placement of machinery this week, and the operations will begin on next Monday with about 50 machines. They hope to be able to run 100 machines or more in a few weeks. This is "a good thing" for our town, and it is hoped the ladies will be pleased to become operators, thus aiding their own cash account, as well as benefiting the town. Our business men are to be commended for their liberal and prompt co-operation.

The Odd Fellows have engaged Prof. Ramsey to present a vaudeville show in the hall of their lodge on next Wednesday evening.

Our purse net fishermen desire to know why the pound net fishermen are given ten or more days grace in order to move their traps from forbidden waters, while the purse netters are not given five minutes grace in when their nets are caught beyond the line by reason of tide or wind, and by what authority does the Game Warden change the wording of the fish law.

There seems to be considerable dynamiting fishing ground of late, even on Sunday last, it is said parties from other parts were using dynamite in the bay for fish. Wonder if the Wardens are cognizant of it?

Little Miss Katherine Irene Virginia, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs Joseph Stein was admitted into the church millitant on Sunday afternoon through baptismal ceremony, Rev. Mr. Burr officiating and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Apsley acting as God parents.

Mr. C. H. Harrison, is wearing a broad smile these days by reason of the storks visit to his home and leaving a fine baby girl to further bless his already happy home.

Capt. J. E. Apsley suffered a painful internal injury last week by a fall in his boat while at work. He seems unfortunate the present season, a few weeks ago as he was in the act of starting the gasoline engine in his boat some of the packing flew out and struck one of his eyes injuring it quite severely.

Mrs. B. H. Coburn who is being treated by a specialist in the city is somewhat improved and hopes are entertained that a complete recovery will soon result.

Mr. Reybold Wilson visited Baltimore Thursday of last week, George said he went for the purpose of addressing the large audience at the Lyric in reply to Senator Rayner. Evidently his address was not well taken. Reybold's efforts in Rock Hall were bully.

The election here passed off quietly but disgracefully from the fact that money played its part. Prices per head started in the morning at $5 and dropped all the way to 75 cents, about night reports had it down to two for a quarter. Some of our life long residents are so disgusted that they want to leave here for a more respectable section.

For about three weeks the weather has been extremely blustry. The oystermen are scarcelly keeping their table going. The buyers are in a doubt case attitude, they haven't made a dollar this season and some of them are from $50 to $100 worse off than they were Sept., 1st.

The dredgers are having it all their way now, no calms, plenty of oysters and short run to market.

Liquor seems to have been prolific of fracuses at the festival in Piney Neck on Saturday night. Howard Kendall was severely knifed in the hip, breast and throat, Mr. John Lewis had his eyes blacked, nose skinned and eyeglasses smashed and a small boy was beaten. All three seem to have been innocent victims.

Mrs. T. J. Rich and Mrs. M. Jordan and children are spending a few days at their former homes on the Deep Landing road. Mrs. Rich reports her husband very much improved in health. They will return to their present places of residence near Philadelphia in a day or two.

Mrs. Elsie Plummer is a guest at the home of her father, Mr. B. H. Coburn.

Miss Daisy M. Ryan is taking a respite from household cares for the week among relatives in Quaker Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Kendall and daughter, Rebecca, spent Sunday among relatives and friends here. They took a view of the church improvements and think them most beautiful.

WORTON ITEMS.

Election day passed very quietly in our village.

The oyster dinner and supper served by the ladies of Union M. E. Church was a decided success.

We are sorry to lose one of our best citizens, Mr. Joseph Duyer and family who leaves today (Thursday) for their future home in Jersey.

Miss Alice Parsons and Miss Myrtle Durding, of Rock Hall, visited Miss Mary and Bessie Copper last Sunday.

Miss Alice Wood, of Still Pond, has returned home after a pleasant visit to Miss Mabrey Rash.

Miss Florence Smith, of Temple College, Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyland Smith.

Mr. Samuel Mann, Jr., is visiting friends in Wilmington.

Prof. J. Weldon Sutton is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sutton,

THE well earned reputation of Moody & Lusby, viz.; headquarters for clothing is more pronounced than ever this season, judging from the volume of purchasers coming and going to and from their establishments and their methods of trading justly entitles them to same. Go see them early to insure good selection.

GOLT ITEMS.

Our festival Friday and Saturday nights was quite a success over $64.00 being realized.

We are sorry to report our Pastor Rev T. J. Smith has been compelled to resign on account of ill health.

Miss Emma Carrow, of Wilmington, spent last week with Miss Addie L. Ford.

Master Roland Reynolds spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Townsend.

Mrs. J. L. Matthews entertained to tea on Sunday evening, Presiding Elder W. E. Koons, Miss Blanche Hewitt and Mr. Daniel Steel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Matthews and three little daughters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peacock and family.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. C. W. Spry is quite sick at his home near here, we all hope he will soon recover.

Mr. W. E. Matthews is making quite extensive improvements to his house.

Our new public school has been very much improved by the erection of a splendid new bell.

Mr. Ralph Hewitt, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. John McIntyre, of Galena, visited friends here Sunday.

Some of our prominent citizens look very downhearted on account of the result of the election.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. Dr. J. W. Cain will give a childrens reception in gymnasium today. A jolly time is anticipated by the little folks.

The game of foot ball last Saturday at Newark between Delaware College and Washington College resulted in a victory for the Delawareans by a score of 11 to 0. Washington College put up a plucky game except one fumble that she made played a good game. The features of the game was the ground gaining of W. C.'s right half back and the playing of Rasin, Voss, Hitch, White and Gill.

The game of foot ball today will be at 2.45 between the Second Team and a Baltimore team.

New Stock —Harry Jefferson's new store is proving a success. Miss Katie Whatley is visiting Philadelphia and New York to replenish their stock of millinery, and will be ready to furnish the public with new stock in a few days. There is no need for anyone to go to the cities for goods while Chestertown has such well-stocked stores.

Beginning Monday evening, Nov. 13th, Mr Wright Lorimer and his company will begin the sixth week at the Academy of Music in Baltimore, in "The Shepherd King," the largest dramatic production ever made, and which tells the story of David, the shepherd-poet-king of Israel, in his younger days, and shows the gradual rise of the boy from a low estate to the monarchy of Israel.
