FIRES BURN OUTBUILDINGS!

Andrew Vansant, Near Chesterville, Loses Corn and Implements—Fire on Ireland Farm.

The barn, stable, fodder ricks, 1500 bushels of corn and most of the implements on Mrs R. E. Feddeman's farm, near Chesterville, tenanted by Mr. Andrew Vansant, were destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon. Mr. Vansant was hauling in corn when he detected the fodder rick on fire! He at once gave his attention to his stock which was all saved. Neighbors quickly came to his relief and the dwelling was saved. The loss on corn and implements will amount to about $1500, partially insured in Mr. James G. Beck's agency. Mr. Feddeman's loss is insured for about $700.

The sheds and fodder ricks on the Ireland farm, near Galena, tenanted by Mr. Andrew Taylor and owned by Capt. Woodall, were burned last week. The origin is not known.

Ring Out Merrily Throughout Kent and Adjoining Counties — Engagements and Announcements—A Happy Time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, of Still Pond, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mattie Matilda to Mr. Andrew Eliason, of Wilmington, Del.

Doctor and Mrs. Thomas B Willson, of Edesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jewell Rena, to Mr. Harry Skirven, son of the late Thos W. Skirven, of Kent county. The marriage will take place January 2, no cards in the county. Miss Willson is well known and popular among the younger set of Kent county, among whom she has a host of friends. Her father is one of the best known members of the medical fraternity on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Col. John C. Legg has issued invitations to the wedding of his daughter, Miss Minnie Isabel Legg, to Mr. James Deale Weeden, Wednesday, November 29. The ceremony will be solemnized at the home of Colonel Legg, 204 Ridgewood road, Roland Park, at 6.30 p. m. The relatives of the prospective bride and groom and a few friends of the families have been invited to witness the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Draper, of near Centreville, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elva, to Thompson G. Turner, Wednesday evening, November 22, 1905, at six o'clock, Centreville M. E. Church.

Mrs. E. S. Beall, of Baltimore, have issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Louise Ogle Beall, and Lieut. Arthur Barnes Keating, United States Navy, on Saturday, Nov. 25, at 4 o'clock, at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church. Lieut. Keating is a brother of State's Attorney Thomas J. Keating, of Centreville.

Mrs. Rose L. Palmatory has issued cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Belknap, to Mr. Stuart M. Walraven, Wednesday, Nov. 22, 1905, at high noon, at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Ingleside, Md.

EVANS—FOARD.

W. Stirling Evans, a prominent young man of Elkton, and Miss Adelaide Jefferson Foard, daughter of former Clerk of the Peace and Mrs. Jefferson B. Foard, of Middletown, were married in St. Anne's Episcopal Church in Middletown last Thursday night. Rev. Geo. C. Hall, archdeacon of Wilmington, officiated at the nuptial ceremony. Relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. It was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside in Elkton.

CANNAN—THORNLEY.

Miss Katharine Cannan, of Galena, and James C. Thornley were quietly married on Monday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tucker, on Commerce street, Smyrna, Rev. Dr Watt officiating. A reception was tendered the young couple by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Tucker.

EX-GOVERNOR REYNOLDS WEDS.

Former Governor Robert J. Reynolds, of Delaware, was married on Thursday evening to Mrs Hester Cobbage, at the residence of the bride's brother, Eugene Thomas, near Marydel, by Rev. Edward H. Collins, resident pastor of Marydel charge.

CHRYSANTHEMUM WEDDING.

A wedding of extraordinary interest occured on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8th, in Locust Grove M. E. Church, Kent county, when Miss Hettie A. Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hill and Mr. Murray H. Boyer, of Queen Anne's were united in holy matrimony. The church was beautifully decorated in greens, chrysanthemums and potted plants by the many friends of the bride. The ushers, Messrs. Walter Hill, of Kent, and Charles Harrington, of Queen Anne, brother and cousin of the bride; Coburn Clark, of Philadelphia, and Lewin Clark, of Kenton, were dressed in conventional black with gray gloves. Miss Ethel Clements, of Crumpton, presided at the organ and to the sweet strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the wedding party composed of four ushers, the little ribbon girls, Susan and Florence Hill, sisters of the bride, the bride's maids, Misses Emma Harrington, of Queen Anne's, and Anna S. Matthews, of Kent, the maid of honor, Miss Nellie Barwick, of Kent, the little flower girl, Helen Baxter, cousin of the bride and the bride and groom proceeded to the altar where they were met by Reverends A. P. Prettyman and T. C. Smoot, both of Galena, Md. Here under an arch of green, standing on a mat of greens and chrysanthemums the couple were pronounced man and wife, the ring service being used and retired to the strains of Mendelssohn. The groom wore the usual black with the grey gloves. The bride was tastily attired in white peau de cyne with princess lace and messline trimmings and carried white chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon; the maid of honor wore white chiffon over pink, carrying pink and white chrysanthemums; the bride's maids wore white chiffon over green, carrying pink chrysanthemums; the ribbon girls were tastily dressed in white swiss trimmed in white ribbons and the little flower girl in her dainty dress of white null carried a massive bouquet of assorted chrysanthemums, on leaving the church she made a path of her chrysanthemums for the bridal party. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, the immediate relatives and a few personal friends being present. The parlors were banked in evergreens, the dining room in autumn leaves. Salads and ices were served. The presents were many and varied

Hill Top Sold.—Mrs. Mary E. Godwin, through J. Waters Russell, Real Estate Broker, has sold Hill Top farm to Mr. C. B. Jester, of Baltimore, who will conduct a summer boarding house as heretofore carried on by the present owner. Price is said to be $4860.

R. F. PARKS & SON will pay 32 cents for eggs on November 18 and 21.

SHOT AND INSTANTLY KIKLED!

Master Dewey Kirby accidentally shot himself on Wednesday at the home of Mr. Jack Jester, in Queen Anne's, near Chestertown. The young boy was about seven years of age and had been left in a room by himself for a short time. Hearing the report of a gun the older persons hastened in the room, and to their horror saw young Kirby lying on the floor dead! The load had entered his head just between the eyes and had killed him instantly. The gun had been left loaded in the room sitting in a corner, and how the little fellow shot himself is not known. He was a relative of Mr. Jack Jester and formerly lived in Wilmington.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS

The Coming and Going of People You Know About.

Mr. Charles H. Jefferson, of near Chestertown, was injured in an accident at his home last Friday. He was harnessing a colt to his carriage when the animal took fright, ran off, and caught Mr. Jefferson in an awkward position, injuring his back. Dr. Simpers treated the injury and he is now able to be about. Mrs. Jefferson was in the carriage and says she don't know how she got out so quickly.

Dr. W. F. Hines is reported to be slowly improving but will not be able to do any work for some weeks. He is at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Conductor John D. Welch and Postal Clerk F. M. Hummer of the Pennsylvania R. R., are enjoying a well-deserved two weeks vacation.

Messrs. Edward Lambert and Earle Duyer, of Easton, visited their mothers here on Sunday. The Easton Ledger says: "We regret to state that Mr. Earle D. Duyer, who for the past two months has been connected with The Ledger, will, for business reasons, return to his home in Chestertown, where his father is a prominent contractor of that town. Mr. Duyer is a capable newspaper man and has won many friends during his brief stay here."

Mrs. A. Blum was visited this week by her sister from Russia. She reports conditions in that country as simply terrible and thinks she has made a lucky escape.

Dr. George W. Simmons, of Chestertown, but recently located at Sudlersville, has removed to Denton where he will practice medicine

Mr. R. Bergen was in town Sunday looking fat and hearty.

Mr. Frank V. Simpers was in town Wednesday adjusting the $2500 insurance policy held by the late Edward Lusby in the Prudential Insurance Co.

Mr. Wm. S. Pennell has removed his family from College avenue to Cannon street in one of Mr. J. D. Bacchus' new houses. Mr. Pennell has lived in his old home for more than twenty years.

Mr. Owen C. Smith and two children, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his brother in town.

Mrs. Webster Hill and daughter, Miss Miriam Cathalene, of near Crumpton, have spent the past week in Middletown as guests of her mother Mrs. Rachel Conner.

Mrs. J. L. Smyth, who has been quite sick for sometime, is at the City Hospital Baltimore, for special treatment under Prof. Wm. S Gardner, of the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Misses Anna and Helen Welch entertained the young Ladies' Card Club Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Fleming entertained the Esther Missionary Circle at her home on Water street last night.

Col. Josiah Massey was reported improved yesterday.

Senator C. W. Perkins, of Baltimore, was in Chestertown, this week on business.

Miss Bertie Hines, of Baltimore, is the guest at the home of M. deK. Smith, Esq., on Washington Avenue.

Miss Mary Parris, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week with Miss Lottie Norris, on Cannon street.

Mrs. T. D. France, who returned from the hospital Thursday, is progressing finely, as is also Mrs. Walter T. Pippin.

Mr. Bryan Bouchelle, of Chesapeake City, spent several days this week with Mr. J. E. Ferguson. They killed nine rabbits Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Cain entertained a large company of little folks Saturday evening at the College.

Miss Maud Carter, of New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, Chestertown.

Miss Mary Rogers, who was severely hurt in a runaway accident near Fairlee in Sept., is improving very rapidly.

Mrs. W. R. Graham, of Easton, and Mrs. Thos. J. Smith, of Newport News, Va., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dodd, Chestertown.

Mr. Polk Bramble, of Chestertown, witnessed the big Harvard-Penn foot ball game in Phila. last Saturday and says it was a great game, but both teams did lots of fumbling.

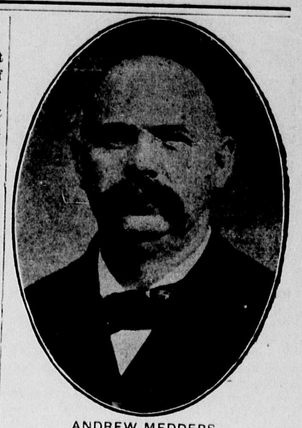

Sales to Take Place.—Marion deK. Smith, Esq., as trustee, will sell to day at Rock Hall the John R. Casey house and lot, between Rock Hall and Edesville.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., as attorney for Mrs. Shaw, will sell on Tuesday, Dec. 5, in front of the court house, Chestertown, the John T. Lewis property, in Fairlee.

On Tuesday, November 28, the H. T. Jewell farm, near Worton, is to be sold by Sheriff Keyser.

W. W. Beck, Esq., attorney for Mrs. H. K. Shaw, will sell on Monday, Nov. 27th, a valuable lot of personalty.

CORN was quoted at 48 cents in local market yesterday.

ANDREW MEDDERS,
Kent County's new Democratic Sheriff.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The newly elected Sheriff for Kent County, Andrew Medders, will remove to Chestertown and take his oath of office about December 1st. He has decided to reappoint Mr. Samuel Startt as deputy sheriff because of his special fitness for the position.

Sheriff L. J. Keyser will retire from office with the consciousness of duty well performed. He has been ably supported by his efficient deputy who will continue in office. It is regretted that his excellent family will remove from our midst. They will reside on their farm recently purchased at Worton Station.

The Queenstown News has the following item: The Independents had a little tilt in their camp, Thursday but finally patched up this slate: for deputy clerk, C. J. B. Mitchell; for clerk to the board of county commissioners, G. Trenchard Faithful; for deputy sheriff, T. Frank Seward.

The newly elected county commissioners, Messrs. John E. Morris and Wm. Wagner, will take their seats early next month.

Treasurer-elect Wm. E. Keyser will not take hold of his office before June 1.

The corrected returns will be found on another page of this issue. Mr. Andrew Medders leads his ticket.

NEWSY CHURCH NOTES.

Mass will be held at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The new parish building of Emmanuel Church will be opened with a service of benediction on Friday evening next, (Nov. 24,) at 7.30 P. M. The rector on behalf of the vestry and congregation of Chester Parish, extends a most cordial invitation to the citizens of Chestertown, one and all, to attend this service. We earnestly hope that as many of our friends as can possibly do so, will be present on that occasion to share with us the pleasure and joy, at having secured such a fine and much needed building. Rev. Dr. Greenfield and the Rev. Mr White, have kindly consented to be present and bid us God-speed.

Mrs. Wm. Robinson had charge of the excellent song service in Christ church Sunday evening. Miss Nettie Russell made an address on "Joy in Service." Musical features included solos by Miss Minnie Stevens, of near Millington, and Miss Edith Fallowfield, Chestertown, recitation by Miss Bessie Wheatley, and other selections.

Divine revival at Presbyterian church, Kennedyville, Nov. 19, 10.30 A. M. Subject: The arrest of Jesus. Worton, 7.30 P. M. Albert C. Jamison, Pastor.

Rev. Edwin Gardner was the recipient of a generous donation from his congregation at Massey. Mr. Gardner has been conducting a successful revival at Massey for several weeks and was surprised at the generosity of his congregation after service one evening last week when he was presented with an abundance of groceries.

Rev. W. R. Mowbray, who has been the pastor of Bridgeville M. E. Church for the past five years, has been unanimously asked by his official board to return next conference year.

Rev. James G. Comiskey has been transferred to Talbot county Catholic missions and Rev. Charles P. McGoldrick has been transferred from there to the Queen Anne's county Catholic missions.

A big revival is in progress at Kenton and 22 have united with the church. Rev. Albert Chandler is in charge.

Ground was broken Wednesday for a new Sunday school room at Mt. Royal ave., by the Methodist Protestants of that section. There are more Kent countains congregated there than in any other part of the city.

The Rev. Andrew McLeod, preaching on Queen Esther, said to his women hearers: "Fine apparel and a banquet caused the king to offer Esther half his realm. Dress the best you can, cover all defects with paint or power, if necessary, and with good cooking added, you can reach the average male heart."

The regular services will be held at Christ M. P. Church. The sermon theme of the pastor in the morning will be, "The Chaff and the Wheat"; in the evening the theme will be "The first of the Saviour's Dying Words.' The Young People's Service at 6.45 P. M., will be led by Miss Gurtha Vansant.

First Snow.—The first snow of the winter came Monday night and the mercury went down to 24°. It is also noted as a coincidence that on November 13 of last year the first snow fell, but at that time the storm was quite heavy.

By all means see J. Walters Russell before buying real estate.
