NEWSY CHURCH NOTES.

The new Price's Station M. E. Church was dedicated on Sunday, Rev W. C. Poole is pastor. The church cost $1300 and about $800 of this was collected on Sunday. Dr. Crouch, of New York, preached the sermon and Chief justice Lore, of Delaware, made an address in the afternoon. Miss Anna G. Lambert, of Chestertown, presided at the organ, and Miss Bertie Burchinal, Messrs. M. Wilber Thomas and E. F. Hitch, of Chestertown, assisted in the singing. All the services were well attended.

Revival services at Fairlee have begun and Rev. W. E. Habbert is meeting with success.

Rev. Mr. Baynard is meeting with much success in his revival at Union in Queen Anne's, about 21 have confessed conversion thus far.

The re-opening at Wesley Chapel will be held on Sunday, Dec. 3. Among those who will take part in the services are Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, President of the Conference; Dr. H. T. Elderdice, Rev. C. K. McCaslin and Rev. J. M. Sheriden. The church has been in the hands of the building committee for several weeks and the result of their labors will be shown to the public Dec. 3rd. All are invited to attend the re-opening.

Tomorrow Sunday, Nov. 26th., will be observed throughout the world as "Temperance Day," and the churches of the town have arranged suitable programs for the day. Special sermons will be preached in the Methodist churches in the morning. A joint service has been arranged for the afternoon.

Union temperance services will be held in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday night and Rev. Mr. Jamison, of Worton Presbyterian Church, will make the address. Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville, will deliver an address in the afternoon at Christ Church and Mrs. W. J. Vannort will have charge of this service.

Union Thanksgiving services will be Thursday morning in the Chestertown M. E. Church and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield.

CLIFF WHARF SOLD.

It is rumored that the Cliff City wharf has been purchased by private parties from H. W. Vickers, Esq., and that arrangements have been made with the Chester river boats to make this one of their regular stops. This will be good news to all the residents of lower Quaker Neck and Broad Neck.

NEW CASHIER ELECTED.

Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman on Wednesday resigned as cashier of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland and the board elected Mr. Alan A. Harris to fill the vacancy. Mr. Chapman's resignation was a surprise to the community. He has been connected with this bank and the old one it replaced for about 25 years and no man in any institution has had its welfare more at heart than he has. He has been a faithful official.

His successor, Mr. Harris, is at present the popular purser on the Emma A. Ford and is known all over Kent and Queen Anne's counties as an affable, refined gentleman and fine business man.

The Board of Directors of the bank increased the salaries of the other officials considerably.

Mr. Harry Anthony, purser on steamer Corsica, will likely succeed Mr. Harris.

Rah! Rah! Washington College!

They Defeat The Strong Maryland Agricultural College in Foot Ball by Score of 17 to 0

The soldier-farmers from the Maryland Agricultural College came to Chestertown last Saturday afternoon, sixty strong, in full dress uniforms with flags flying and singing their conquering songs. Shortly after sundown on the same afternoon the soldier-farmers left Chestertown. But, oh, what a difference was their departure from their arrival. Napoleon's famous retreat from Russia was not more forlorn and sad than was the home going of the foot ball warriors of the Maryland Agricultural College. The conquerors of the strong St. John's and other Maryland College teams had met their Waterloo on the Eastern Shore field of old Washington College. The victory was a grand one and it was all the more glorious from the fact that it was due to superior merit and skill on the part of the Washington College team backed by the splendid training of Coach Halbert and his advisers. To say that the Western Shore team and rooters were surprised is putting it mildly; they were completely non-plussed and shocked beyond words. Before the game began they were betting 3 to 1 that Washington would not score and that they would win by at least 15 to 0. Needless to say they left some of their Xmas savings in the hands of the Kent and Queen Anne's rooters.

From start to finish Washington College showed her superiority in the science of foot ball. It was a victory long to be remembered. Every player did good work. "Senator" Moore's long 60 yard run gave the farmers their first shock and throughout the whole game Moore was a terror and played the game of his life. Capt. McGinniss and Hitch's line plunging and quarterback Wilson's running were fine. Washington's ends, Rasin and Long, outclassed their opponents completely and they would do honor to even one of the "big four" teams. White, Maddox, McMaster, Voss and Gibson in the line were like a stone wall.

After the first half the M. A. C. boys wanted to give the game up and go home, but consented to go on again for the second 15-minute half. They took a wonderful brace and looked as though they would score, but with superb defense work Washington College drove them back. The attendance was the best of the season. Score 17 to 0. The line-up was as follows:

Washington.	Position.	M. A. C.
Rasin	Right end	Byrd, Wilson
White	Right tackle	Russnar
Maddox	Right guard	Hatten
McMaster	Center	Church
Wilson	Quarterback	Galt
McGinniss	Right half	McNutt
Moore	Fullback	Firar

Referee—Mr. Neilson. Umpire—Mr. Massey. Linesmen—Messrs. Parker (M. A. C.) and Porter (Washington College).

The foot-ball team will be given a big reception tonight in the gymnasium in honor of their victory. An enjoyable and memorable occasion is anticipated.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

St. Paul's M. E. Church South, Ingleside, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season, which took place at high noon Wednesday, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth B. Palmatory, youngest daughter of the late B. F. Palmatory, of Roe, and Mr. Stuart M. Walraven, third son of Mr. William Walraven, of Ingleside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Hammond, pastor of the church.

At the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church, and as they proceeded up the aisle "Oh, Promise Me" was impressively rendered and sung by Miss Katherine T. Merrick.

The ushers were Messrs. J. N. Palmatary and W. E. Palmatary, brothers of the bride, Ervin Walraven brother of the groom, and Denver Weedman, of Sudlersville, all wearing black cutaway coats, light trowsers and white vests, and wearing white rosebud boutonniers.

The bridesmaids were Misses Jessie Sassscer, of Baltimore, and Nina Brown, of Kent county, cousins of the bride. The matron of honor was Mrs. R. V. Mitchell, of Norfolk, Va., also cousin of the bride. The bridesmaids wore gowns of white French batiste, beautifully trimmed in val lace, one over lavender the other over green, with girdles to match, and carried bunches of asparagus ferns They will reside at Ingleside.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

NEARLY one million and a-half dollars are deposited in Chestertown banks.

A CELLULOID comb exploded in the hands of Miss Nellie Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Westcott, one night last week. Miss Westcott was engaged in dressing her mother's hair, and in passing her hand over a lighted lamp, the comb which she held, suddenly exploded.

LEWIN W. WICKES, Esq., gave the board of Commissioners a farewell dinner on Tuesday afternoon at his home on Water street. The dinner was a most enjoyable one. Mr. Wickes is attorney to the board and dispensed the hospitality of his home in a charming manner. Those present were Messrs. A. C. Loud, C. B. Dudley, Harry Davis, L. C. Ayres, Perry B. Rasin and Chas. L. Dodd. The departing members of the board, Messrs. Ayres and Rasin, as well as their former companions feel a tinge of sadness at the severance of their official relations as their duties have been performed in a manner pleasant to all.

Off for Panama.—Mr. Kent Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Lambert, of Chestertown, will leave in a few days for Panama. Kent was formerly in Uncle Sam's army and has been to many foreign lands. His position at Panama carries with it a lucrative salary.

Primrose Case Decided.—The case of Primrose vs. Wm. T. Wright, of Chestertown, was decided last week in the Maryland Court of Appeals and a verdict rendered in favor of Wm. T. Wright. The decision of the court below was sustained which gives Mr. Wright a clear title to the Primrose property on the Chester river, opposite Chestertown.

92 Bushels per Acre.—The champion corn producer in Kent this year is very likely Mr. Isaac Gibbs, of Massey. He had a 22-acre field of white corn which yielded big. He measured accurately three acres of this field and got 92 bushels per acre. Who can beat it? He used about 500 lbs of fertilizer per acre and also manured it good, but got results that paid him.

Commissions Received.—The commissions for the newly elected sheriff, county commissioners and surveyor for Kent county have been received by Clerk Dixon. Commissioners Morris and Wagner will be sworn in next Tuesday and take their seats, after which the new board will organize. It is likely that the same officers will be elected as at present.

Gunners Arrested.—Constable Chas. L. Gill, arrested Wm. Gordon and Edw. Lesage, of Philadelphia, on the Betterton boat last Friday night, charging them with gunning in Kent without a license. They had been guests of Mr. Joseph Reed, near Fairlee, for several days. A hearing was held before Justice Calder and H. W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., appeared for the accused. The cases were dismissed as it was not proven that they had been gunning.

Fire at Galena.—The Presbyterian parsonage at Galena made a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. John Ford occupy the house, but at the time no one was home except Mrs. Ford and her young child and Mrs. Ford has been quite sick. The alarm of fire brought willing neighbors to her rescue rescue and the fire was soon extinguished, but not until considerable damage was done.

Real Estate Sales.—Mr. Henry S. DeFord has purchased from Mr. Chas. T. Westcott the carriage and blacksmith shops, which the former now occupies, on the corner of Cross and Cannon sts. The price paid is said to be $2000.

Mr. Sam'l C. Walters, of near Locust Grove, has purchased of Mr. Robert G. Nicholson a house and 5 acres of land near Flatland school house.

Mrs. Mary E Blackburn has sold her house and lot in Piney Neck to Mr. David Middleton, for $125. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn will move to Queen Anne's and engage in farming.

Announcements.—The wedding of Miss Ella Gertrude Stevens, daughter of Mrs. Laura S. Stevens, of Baltimore, and Mr. Howard D. Rees, of Kent, is announced to take place on Wednesday, Nov. 29, at noon, at Mt. Royal Ave. M. P. Church, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. George have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Lavinia, to Dr. Foster Sudler. The ceremony will be performed at Calvary M. E. Church, Sudlersville, at 1 o'clock Wednesday, November 29th, 1905. A reception will held at the residence of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony.

$30,000 Suit.—James E. Brown, of Queenstown, has entered suit in the Baltimore city court against the M. D. & V. Ry. Co. for $30,000 for injuries sustained last summer in the smash up with a runaway engine near Kent Island Narrows. Mr. Brown who was engineer on the train had a very close call from instant death. He finally recovered and went back to work, but had to resign about ten days ago. Attorney Colton, of Baltimore, has charge of the case.

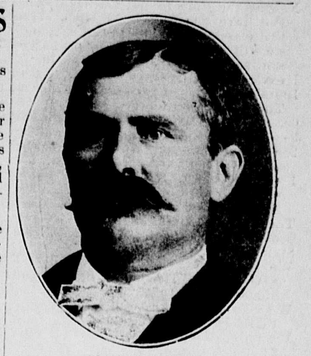

Public School Notes.—Miss Gertie Kramer has been appointed assistant teacher at Rock Hall.

Miss Grace Brooks, teacher of drawing in the Chestertown High School, has been quite sick.

The Chestertown High School building will be wired and electric lights furnished for the halls and assembly room.

The Kent Teachers' Association will be held in Chestertown next Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Dr. J. W. Cain will make an address upon "The Teaching of History," and Dr. R. H. Gault upon "The Unity of Geographical Material."

The Kent schools will be given holiday on Thursday and Friday of next week for Thanksgiving.

JOHN E. MORRIS,
Newly Elected Democratic County Commissioner for Kent County, Maryland.

Armstrong Hotel Sold.—Mr. Willard Dill, of Kennelsville, is negotiating for the purchase of the Armstrong Hotel, Chestertown, while the sale has not been consummated it is very likely that the deal will be closed. Mr. Dill expects to carry on this well-known hotel and fix it up in first-class condition.

Assaulted With a Dirk-Knife.—A colored farm hand named Willis Hackett assaulted Mr. Wm. Hendricks on his farm near Lynchs the past week and threatened him with a large dirk-knife. Mr. Hendricks called the man up in the morning to go to work, and he immediately commenced to act ugly and drew the big knife on him. Mr. Hendricks hastened to get something to defend himself with, but before he got back the colored man had fled to "big woods."

More Fires in Kent.—The outbuildings, consisting of a combination barn and stable and carriage house, together with a hundred bushels of wheat, 1,000 bushels of corn, 10 tons of hay, implements and cornfodder, on the Rasin farm, near Lankford, owned by Thos. W. Eliason and tenanted by Edward P. Jester, were destroyed by fire late Friday afternoon. Mr. Jester and his teams were hauling long fodder from the field and stacking it against the barn, when the fire broke out in the fodder. It is very evident from this that a match had been dropped in the dry fodder and ignited by tramping on it. The outbuildings were insured in the Kent Mutual for $1125, but the loss will be about $1500. Mr. Jester's loss will be about $800, with $450 insurance in J. N. Wheatley & Co's agency.

William T. Nicholson's woods, near Chestertown, was set on fire by gunners and considerable wood was destroyed. The fire caught a stubblefield and was sweeping toward the house when Mr. Nicholson ignited some straw and checked the flames. The straw was in the path of the fire, but by firing it first there was nothing for the flames to feed upon when it reached the stack yard.

The store of Mr. James D. Kelley, in Skinner's Neck, near Rock Hall, was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The building was insured for $200 and the contests for $300 by Mr. James G. Beck The cause of the fire is unknown.

Another Curiosity.—A shovel was left at the News office this week by Mr. C. M. Ryan, of Rock Hall. Upon it were about sixty young oysters some of them two inches long. The shovel was dropped overboard on Sept. 25 and the oysters have caught on it since that time. Mr. Maxwell Ryan caught the shovel. It is said that this shows conclusively that what the beds want is not the Haman bill but rest.

HOG CHOLERA is epidemic in parts of Queen Anne's county.

THE personalty sale of Mrs H. K. Shaw will take place next Monday near Chestertown.

THE Casey farm near Rock Hall, was not sold on Saturday, but can be purchased at private sale from the trustee, M. deK. Smith, Esq.

THE Kent County morning train on and after next Monday will leave Chestertown at 7 o'clock sharp, arriving here at 11 26. No change in afternoon.

READ on page nine Clifton L. Jarrell's big sacrifice sale to begin this morning at 9 o'clock.

THE $15,000 sacrifice sale of Clifton L Jarrell will begin this morning and continue ten days. See the details of the sale on page 6 of the NEWS.

THE following marriage licenses were issued by Clerk Dixon this week: Amos C. Fisher and Elva M. Dyer; John A. Jacquette and Anna E. Simms. The latter two were married Thursday evening by Rev. E. B. Taylor at Bond parsonage.

EDWARD N. TWILLEY met a horrible death Saturday while engaged in shredding fodder on the Slaughter farm near Smyrna, Del. His arm got caught in the machine and before he could be released his body had been drawn into the machinery, mangling him so terribly that he died ten minutes later.

She's a Good Shot.—Mrs. Wm. J. Arrants, of Elk Neck, was erstwhile the proud owner of a fine flock of geese, which had the range of Mr. Arrants' farm on Elk River. A few mornings ago the flock returned home sadly depleted, ten fine fowls being among the missing. Their owner was much chagrined and not a little mystified, until a few days later a visitor from across the river called and acknowledged that she had been the cause of the disappearance of the geese, and paid for the damage. It seems that she and a friend from the city had been out on the river gunning when their guide told them he knew where they could find a fine bunch of geese, and sculled them up to the flock. The lady being a good shot, bagged ten of the fowls before she discovered that they were not wild geese. The two ladies are uncertain whether the joke was on them or on the geese, but Mrs. Arrants would like to get hold of that practical joker of a guide for about five minutes.
