ded with diamonds the two large pearls, and the golden sword sheath, weighing two pounds and a half.

It is due to Captain Bright to say that he afforded the officers every possible assistance; and although he was absent when the trunk was left, and therefore, unable to give a description of the individual who placed the trunk on board, this desirable information was had of the steward of the vessel. To much credit cannot be awarded the officers who have been so successful in recovering these valuables; and we cherish the hope that they may be equally successful in detecting the thief. Mr. Snyder informed us that he would place the found jewels in one the banks for safe keeping. We are glad to learn that the sword sheath is not much injured, and that the other articles were not damaged in the least.—Balt. Amer

Notice.

THE land of mine advertised by Mr. Page as trustee, is subject to a widow's dower, and contains less land than the deeds call for, and there is a great error in the deeds. Also the purchaser will be under the disagreeable necessity of building a house on said land. He tells the purchasers that they will have immediate possession—but there will be a great mistake in that point.

VALUABLE MILLS AND FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber would sell at private sale that valuable mill property and farm on which he at present resides, situated at the head of Transquakin river and known as the Transquakin Mills, containing about 500 acres of land. There is on this property a good Grist Mill built of brick, with two run of stone in good order; also an excellent Saw Mill, nearly new, not surpassed by any in the county. The Grist mill has a constant run of custom work, and the toll from which, as also the corn raised on the farm, can always be sold at the door for from 10 to 15 cts. in the bushel more than it will clear in the Baltimore markets; and there can always be had any quantity of the best yellow pine, for the use of the Saw mill, the lumber from which meets with ready sale at the Mill. The farm is divided into three fields of about 80 thousand corn hills each, and is well adapted to the growth of corn and wheat, and can be greatly improved by lime, for which purpose any quantity of shells can be had delivered at the door at fair prices; the balance of the land (the mill-pond excepted) is covered with an excellent growth of white oak timber. To an industrious man who would give his personal attention to the business it has inducements rarely to be met with. The only reason the subscriber has for disposing of this property is, that from a severe injury which he sustained some two years ago, he is not able to give the business that personal attention which it requires. It is deemed unnecessary to give a further description, as those inclined to purchase will view the premises for themselves.—Terms made known by application to the subscriber, near Hicksburg post office.

$500 Reward,

Will be paid for the delivery in Cambridge jail, of negroes Alexander and Saul: the former left the county in September last, and is about twenty one years of age, and about five feet ten inches high.—He is a stupid, dull fellow, and has three of his fingers much contracted on one of his hands, (believed to be his right,) occasioned by a burn when a child, by which he may be readily identified.

Saul is a brother, and is about twenty-four years of age, about five feet eight or nine inches high, a palavering, artful fellow, homely, with a few retreating forehead and thick hair. He professes to be very religious and is a great exhorter—turns his toes out well. He left the county about the middle of the Christmass holy-days, and had his right hand (I believe) bound up when he went off, in consequence of a recent burn, which if now well, may leave a mark. The above reward will be given for the two if delivered as above, or one half for either, if taken out of the county, and a reasonable sum if taken in the county.
