Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid Assessors shall, on or before the first Monday in Aug. next, complete their assessment of their several assessment districts, and shall at the same time make return and deliver the Levy Court, or the Commissioners of the several counties and Howard district; and to the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore city, a certificate in writing, designating in alphabetical order the name & residence of the persons whose office, profession, or occupation they have assessed, with the amount of salary, emolument, professional income or professional profit held or received by, or secured to them, as also the assessment district in which such assessment was made.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the right of appeal as guaranteed to any person or persons, under the twenty fourth and twenty fifth sections of an act entitled an act for the general valuation and assessment of property in this State, and to provide a tax to pay the debts of the State, passed at March session eighteen hundred and forty one, chapter twenty three, be and the same is hereby guaranteed to any individual or individuals, either in their private, associated or corporate character, who may consider himself or themselves aggrieved by such valuation of his or their salaries, emoluments, incomes or profits as returned by the aforesaid assessors; and for the purpose of hearing such appeals, the Levy Court and Commissioners of the several counties, and of Howard district, and the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore city, shall assemble at their usual places of meeting on the second Monday in September next, and continue in session not more than six nor less than three consecutive days, having first given at least one week's notice by public advertisement; and in determining such cases of appeal as may be there brought before them, they shall govern themselves by the aforesaid sections of the act referred to in this section; and it shall further be the duty of the said Levy Courts, Commissioners and Appeal Tax Courts, at the said meetings in September, or as soon thereafter as practicable to furnish the Treasurer of the Western Shore with a correct statement made out from the Assessors returns, as corrected, which said statement shall exhibit, in alphabetical order, the names and residence of the persons whose salaries, emoluments, incomes and profits have been assessed; the amount of their salaries, incomes, emoluments and profits, and the amount of tax assessed on each, which said statement shall be signed by the Levy Court, Commissioners or Appeal Tax Court as the case may be.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Levy Courts or Commissioners as the case may be, of the several counties and of Howard district, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, each at their meeting in September next, to appoint a collector or collectors of the aforesaid tax, who, before he or they act as such, shall give bond to the State of Maryland with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the Levy Court or Commissioners, or by the Mayor and the Presidents of the two branches of the City Council of Baltimore, as the case may be, by whom such collector or collectors shall have been appointed, for the due and faithful performance of his or their duties, as required of him or them by law and who shall, before he or they proceed to execute his or their duties imposed upon him or them by this act, to take the following oath or affirmation, to wit:

"I —— ——, collector or deputy collector of ——, do swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will well and truly execute the duties imposed on me by the act to raise additional revenue to aid in paying the debts of the State by laying a tax on salaries, incomes emoluments and profits; that I will justly and impartially value all salaries, emoluments, incomes and profits, which I shall be authorized to value, agreeably to the directions of that act."

Which oath or affirmation shall be administered by any one competent by law to do so, and filed with the Levy Court, Commissioners or Register of the City of Baltimore.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the salary, income, emolument and profit of each assessor shall be valued by the Levy Court or Commissioners of the proper county or district, or by an Appeal Tax Court, at the time of hearing and determining appeals as aforesaid in same manner, and subject to the like restrictions and regulations as other persons whose salary, emolument, income or profit required to be valued by the assessors.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That in the event of any salary, emolument income or profit not having come to the knowledge of the assessors before the time of making return as hereinbefore provided for, then the aforesaid collector, or his deputy, shall on his own knowledge, or the best information he can obtain, value the said salary, emolument, income or professional profit at such sum as he in his judgment shall deem the same to be worth, and shall make a return of the same to the Levy Court, or Commissioners, as the case may be, and as it is directed to be done by the assessors in the fourth and six sections of this act; and for the city of Baltimore, the Appeal Tax Court shall perform the said duties.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That to insure the more speedy and effectual collection of the tax directed to be levied by the provisions of this act, the Treasurer of the Western Shore is hereby authorized, required and directed to retain in the Treasury the amount of tax proposed to be collected by the provisions of this act, upon the salaries, and emoluments of all offices paid out of the Treasury of the State, giving to the person or persons, whose tax he is hereby authorized required and directed to retain, a receipt for the same, which receipt shall be taken by the said Collector or Collectors, as good evidence of the payment of the said tax; and that every Corporation, Institution, or Company, incorporated by this State, and every person, private Association, Firm, Company, or Foreign Corporation, doing business in this State, having in their service or employment any person or persons whose salary, emolument or income is made taxable by the provisions of this act, are hereby authorized, required and directed to retain and pay over to the Collector of the assessment district, in which such person or persons reside, the amount of a tax provided by the provisions of this act to be assessed on such salary, emolument or income and that upon such Corporation, Institution or Company incorporated by this act, and any person, private association, firm, company, or foreign corporation, doing business in this State, neglecting or refusing so to do, such corporation, institution or company incorporated by this State, and any such parson, private association, firm, company, or foreign corporation, doing business in this State, so neglecting or refusing, shall forfeit and pay twice the amount of tax so authorized and directed, and required to be retained and paid over, which shall be and is hereby made recoverable by law, as county taxes now are; and for the recovery of all taxes, provided by the provisions of this act, the Collectors shall have all the powers with which they are invested by law, for the collection of other taxes.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several Collectors to proceed to the collection of the tax to be levied by this act, with all convenient despatch, so that one fourth at least, may be collected by the first day of December next and the residue thereof by the first day of March, 1843, subject to the penalties imposed on Collectors by the act referred to in the eighth section of this act.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Levy Courts, or the Commissioners of the Tax of the several counties and Howard district, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, at the time of meeting for the purpose of levying taxes for the use of their respective counties, district or city, in the year 1843, and annually thereafter, to impose an assessment or tax, for the use of this State, upon all salaries, emoluments, incomes and profits, except the salaries of the Judges, within their respective jurisdictions, according the second section of this act; and the same is to be collected and paid into the State Treasury, according to the fifty second, fifty third, fifty fourth and fifty fifth sections of the act referred to in the eighth section of this act; or any supplement thereto.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the Levy Court, Commissioners of the several counties and Howard district, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby authorized and required to allow to the Assessors, appointed by the authority of this act, a reasonable compensation, to be paid out of the proceeds of the tax thus directed to be levied and paid by this act, for their services, and they are hereby authorised and required to give the collection of the tax intended to be levied by this act, to the Collectors of tax levied by the act referred to in the eight section of this act, under such directions, restrictions, commissions and penalties as are therein provided for.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted. That all the powers vested in the Collector of Taxes for the City of Baltimore, by the acts of Assembly and ordinances of said City, are hereby vested in the Collector of Taxes of said City in relation to State Taxes, and that the said Collector in his discretion, may coerce the payment of taxes by distriant, or otherwise, whenever in his opinion it may be necessary.

Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That fines and forfeitures imposed by this act, the recovery of which is not hereinbefore provided for, shall be recoverable by indictment in the County Court of the proper county, or of Howard District in which the person, so offending, may reside, or in Baltimore City Court, if the person resides in the city of Baltimore; and one half thereof shall be paid to the informer, and the other half to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, for the use of the State.

CHANCERY SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in the town of Cambridge, on next, at the hour of 11, A. M. the following very valuable Real Estate of which a certain Sovern Dawson late of Caroline county, died seized and possessed, to wit:—The Plantation in Caroline county, whereon the said Sovern Dawson in his lifetime resided, composed of the following tracts or parts of tracts, viz: 'Addition to Timber tree Neck,' 'Addition to Miles Swamp' and 'The Discovery,' supposed to contain in the whole about 250 acres, more or less. This Farm is in the vicinity of Federalsburg, and is a healthy and productive location, with suitable Improvements, in tolerable repair. Also another Farm embracing the following tracts or parts of tracts to wit: 'Black level Enlarged,' and 'Addition to Rawley,' estimated to contain in the whole, some 125 acres, more or less. This property also lies in Caroline county and is near Federalsburg. Also all the right and title of which the said Sovern Dawson was invested, to the Farm upon which a certain Matthias Davis resided last year, known as a tract or parcel of land, called "Addition to Miles Swamp," and contains 113 acres, more or less.—This plantation is in the vicinity of Federalsburg, in Caroline County. A more detailed description of the above property is deemed unnecessary, as persons desirous of purchasing will examine for themselves, and such persons are invited to do so. Mr. Alcaid Dawson who lives in the neighborhood of these lands, will point them out if requested.—The terms of sale are one third of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, the residue on a credit of six and twelve months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with security approved by the trustee.

Monday the 21st day of March

JAMES A. STEWART, Trustee.
February 19, 1842. tds

☞The about sale is postponed to the 23d of April next, and the property will be sold on that day at Federalsburg, between the hours of 12 and 2, P. M. J. A. S., Trustee.
March 26, 1842.—tds.

FOR SALE.

THE undersigned intending to leave the State, will sell, at Private Sale, the Farm on which he now lives, situated about a half mile distant from Church Creek, on the Cambridge road. Said farm is divided into two fields, of about forty thousand corn hills each, and also two very fine and productive grass lots. Upon said farm are also a two-story frame dwelling, a large barn, and other necessary farm houses, all of which are new and built of the very best materials; and also a well of most excellent water. In many points of view this is a desirable residence and especially so for a gentleman of professional standing; and as there will shortly be a vacancy for a physician, any gentleman wishing to fill such vacancy would do well to call and examine for himself.

WILLIAM T. RICHARDSON.
