HIRAM M. BROWN,
KENT INSURANCE BUILDING,
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

FOR AN OLD-TIME VICTORY IN 1907

Ex-Governor Brown at Work for the Democratic Nomination—Looks Ahead, Not Backwards.

Ex-Governor Frank Brown, in an interview reiterates his determination to make a fight for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination, and made the prediction that the Democratic party would regain its power through the next Gubernatorial campaign.

The ex-Governor is making active preparations for his campaign and has had prepared campaign books, which will enable him to get in touch with every registered Democratic voter in the State. He purposes, it is understood, to begin his fight at once, and is, in fact, already quietly at work.

When asked what he thought of the result of the late election he said:

"The election is over. We should never look backward; 'onward and upward' should be the watchword.

"Life is too short to lose time thinking of the past; 'pick your flint for the next charge', should be the unwritten command.

"Baltimore and Maryland are both strongly Democratic when the voice of the people is in tune with the music.

"When the people speak through the ballot box party leaders should follow and not question.

"If we gave half the time probing the public pulse in advance that we do trying to get the people in line afterward, there would be much less friction and more certain victory.

"Personally, I have always advocated appealing to the people in advance, and have never failed to get public sentiment with the proper effort.

"The Democratic party will regain its power through the next Gubernatorial canvas.

"A popular candidate, selected by the people at large (rank and file), after a canvass in every county, city and precinct, on every highway and in every hamlet throughout the State, reaching out for public opinion through each single voter, day by day and hour by hour, will bring a result in conclusion that will be so positive and pronounced that every man in the State will know that the people have spoken, leaving the leaders to fall in behind public sentiment, as expressed, not only as to the individual candidate who may head the ticket, but the platform as well.

"I make the prediction that a canvass made on these lines as to the man and platform, followed by good nominations throughout the State, will result in a grand victory in 1907, with such majorities as we have not had for years, together with a united Democracy and the people as leaders."

"Governor," he was asked, "have you determined positively to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination in 1907?"

"Yes," he replied, "I shall certainly be a candidate if the people so desire. My record is my platform, and on it I shall stand or fall. My campaign books, as you see, are here on my desk, and I am ready to begin just as soon as the smoke of the recent election clears away."

Ex-Governor Brown is a firm believer in a party getting in touch with public sentiment before the election and not afterward, and says that he will find out long before the time comes to nominate candidates whether the people want him or not. If they want him, he says he purposes to make the fight and is confident he can make a winning one.

A Few Good Pointers

Ladies should stop kissing each other every time they meet. It is a foolish and unhealthy habit. Let the men do the kissing.

Clean up your premises, by doing so increase the value of your property.

Stop talking politics and get down to business. The election is over and business should be given your first attention.

Encourage the people who are conducting manufacturing establishments in our town. They are the money-bringers.

Be careful when you go gunning not to shoot yourself or the other fellow. Carelessness is inexcusable.

If you want your business to grow advertise in the KENT NEWS.

Don't talk about your neighbors unless you can say something nice about them, then fail not to talk.

Put down pavements in front of your property. It is a good investment.

OBITUARY.

In remembrance of our darling baby, HARRY CONYERS KAY, beloved son of Lottie and Harry Kay, who departed this life one month ago to day. Age 10 months, 18 days.

This lovely bud so young and fair
Called hence by earthly doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In paradise could bloom.
Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade
Death came with friendly care,
The opening but to heaven conveyed
And made it blossom there.

BY HIS MAMMA.

We had a little treasure once,
He was our joy and pride
We loved him, ah! perhaps too well
For soon he slept and died
All is dark within our dwelling
Lonely are our hearts to-day.
For the one I loved so dearly
Has forever passed away.

BY HIS PAPA.

Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with him who gave,
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.
God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent with loving smiles
And clasped our darling's hand.

BY HIS GRANDPARENTS.

The "Winter Excursion Book"

Just issued by the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is one of the finest resort books ever gotten out by any railroad company. It is a comprehensive manual of the leading Winter resorts of the entire United States, containing one hundred and sixty-eight pages of interesting reading matter, and profusely illustrated with half tone engravings. One may obtain full information in reference to wintering places, routes and rates thereto. The book is bound in an artistic cover, chaste in design and harmonious in color. This valuable work may be obtained free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or will be sent, postpaid, upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Just try "Pepsimint," the new granular, effervescent remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Mental Exhaustion Stomach Disorders; Guaranteeed harmless. Pleasant to take, 10 and 25c.

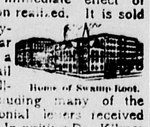

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.
