Aaron Cook,
vs.
Richard Cook and others. } IN CHANCERY, 27th December, 1842.

The object of this bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of Samuel Cook late of Dorchester county deceased.

The Bill states that the said Samuel Cook departed this life some time in the year 1842, intestate, and left sundry persons his heirs at law, to wit: Aaron Cook, the complainant, Peter Cook, who are uncles of the intestate, the children of Walker Cook, who was an uncle of the intestate, to wit: Rachel, Enis, Margaret, Jester and Matilda Cook, John Merrick, son of Milcha Cook, an aunt of the intestate, and Debby and Peggy, who are sisters of the said John Merrick; Margaret Cook, another aunt who had the following children to wit: John, William, Linsey, George, Samuel, Rebecca and Mary. The Bill states that the aforesaid heirs have conveyed by deed their interest in the said real estate to the complainant in this Bill.

That Moses Cook, another uncle has departed this life and left the following persons his children and heirs at law, to wit: Rebecca Cook, Celia Cook, who married James Delbridge, & it is not known whether or not she is dead, and if dead, it is not known whether or not she left any children. The children of Moses have not conveyed their interest in the said estate to this complainant. The Bill further states that the heirs of Moses Cook reside without the limits of the State of Maryland.

It is therefore ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 30th day of January next, give notice to the said non resident defendants of the substance and object of this bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 30th day of May next, to shew cause if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.
