THE CHRONICLE.

CAMBRIDGE—MD.

SATURDAY MORNING, September 9, 1843.

☞The Candidates will be in town on Monday the 18th instant.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of our townsman and friend Col. Henry Page. He died at Boston on Wednesday the 30th ult. of the bilious pleurisy. His remains reached this place on Monday last and were intered on the following day at 11 o'clock, amidst a large concourse of citizens, whose sorrowing countenances, and tearful eyes, told the deep anguish of their hearts. We shall attempt no eulogy on his virtues or his talents, all knew them and all mourn that one so highly endowed should be cut off in the midst of his usefulness.

☞We intended to say something of Miss Carroll's Female Seminary at "Warwick Manor," in this county, but want of room prevents us from doing more than calling the attention of our readers to an article on that subject signed "Amicus."

COMMUNICATED.

MR. EDITOR:—There never was a time in the history of our State when there existed a more stringent necessity for safe and economical legislation.—The present crisis in our affairs demands the serious attention and careful deliberation of our Statesmen.—The onerous burthens imposed upon the people in the shape of taxes have oppressed the poorer classes sorely, and will continue to oppress them, and however much they might be willing to bear in order to sustain the faith and integrity of the State free from reproach yet when they find that notwithstanding their oppressive burthens, the credit of the State is impaired and its honor sullied, they are constrained to look around and enquire for some one to investigate their condition and assist in ameliorating it.

In casting about for some one whom the people can rely upon to exert all his energies in effecting a modification of the peoples sufferings, my attention has been directed to one, who, though living within the sacred precincts of private life, and I believe entirely free from any desire for political distinction, is not indifferent to the sufferings of the people, and the causes which have brought them upon us, and who is familiar with the political history of our State from the period of the commencement of these wild schemes of internal improvement, which have involved the State in pecuniary embarrassment and disgrace. That individual is

E. RICHARDSON HOOPER Esq.

From his general intelligence and sincere devotion to the principles of Democracy, the people would have an earnest that their interests would be carefully guarded and no effort would be spared to promote their welfare. Upon questions of State policy and reform he is for applying Democratic principles in extremis, and would doubtless lend his aid in furtherance of the well known wishes of the Democratic party upon all the vital questions affecting the honor and interests of the State.

I would therefore suggest him to the consideration of the people as a Candidate for a seat in the next General Assembly of Maryland and respectfully solicit his compliance, with what I have no doubt will be the wishes of a large number of the people.—Firm in the maintainance of his principles, yet courteous to his opponents—eager to promote the views of the Democratic party, yet with a most considerate toleration of dissent; his election would not fail to be beneficial to the interests of our County, and creditable to the Democratic party.

Editors Correspondence.

DEAR SIR:—From certain connexions, which it is not necessary to mention, it is my fortune to know something of the Female Seminary, at Warwick Manor, in this county, under the direction of Miss Ann E. Carroll. From a desire which I am sure no one will deem otherwise than laudable, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the public to this institution.

It is not my purpose to reason on the importance of female education. That is admitted by all. But notwithstanding reflecting parents may consider no obligation more binding, no duty more imperative than the education of their children, how few consult the truest interests and best peace of their daughters by affording them proper mental instruction. They seem to forget that this instruction is important, nay absolutely necessary as it is annexed to all the relations of life, and is the means of securing much happiness and calling forth and perfecting many virtues—that this instruction qualifies them for the reception of more exalted enjoyments, more extended powers.—The mind cannot revolve on the poles of truth without knowledge. Knowledge is the food of the thoughts, and without it we cannot establish those general axioms which are the supporting pillars of that society to which woman must look for rational enjoyment and solid peace. A rich and well cultivated mind shining through the material frame alone diffuses a radiance over it, and when Heaven "fairest workmanship" is thus illuminated it is like the light of the Sun, not only beautiful in itself, but gives light and evidence to other things—I am departing however from my purpose.

You are aware sir that this institution has been in existence something less than a year, though Miss Carroll's experience in her profession elsewhere has been sufficient to secure her the hightest character.—in it are taught all the various branches of female education according to the most approved system of the day. Its departments are administered by ladies of the most extensive accomplishments—in a word it is equal in all respects, if not superior, to any institution embracing the same course of instruction and having the same objects in view in this Country.—Here the mind receives its proper training and the manners their proper polish—hare indeed the Lady is made. To patronize such an institution, purely provincial as it is, growing up amonng ourselves and presenting such advantages, I would suppose it scarcely necessary to say is the duty of every Eastern Shoreman having a daughter to educate. The fact that "Warwick Manor" Female Seminary is among us, and under the exclusive control of persons reared and educated among us, is to my mind of no secondary importance. Too frequently are we in the habit of sending our daughters to certain sections of our Country where they cannot fail to imbibe principles not less menacing to their future domestic peace, than they are to our local usages and institutions. The New England States are regarded as the great hot bed of American erudition, and in the enjoyment of so distinguished a character they are sought by the Northern people, for the benefit of the rising generation, whilst they are holding and promulgating doctrines utterly hostile to Southern tranquility. The sweet sympathies of females render them an easy prey to the fallacious dogmas of bigots and enthusiasts, and hence the danger to be apprehended from educating Southerners in Northern schools. In Miss Carroll's Seminary we are free from all dread of this kind. Her learning is Eastern Shore—her principles Eastern Shore—her habits Eastern Shore, and being exclusively Eastern Shore I cannot but think her eminently qualified for imparting instruction to the future matrons of this peninsula.

These remarks are not written by one unacquainted with the institution and the progress its pupils have made. He has seen, he has heard, therefore he knows. Now that the literary temple is raised at your door, the instructive volume opened in your verh presence, do not suffer your daughters to be charged with ignorance and inutility. Let not our character in this respect be darkened by another shade. It is time for fairer days to begin their course—it is high time to awake out of sleep. Surely the regular offices of goodness and amiableness of virtue, which alone make the woman, are worth preserving. "Get understanding" was the wise man's direction, and as it is addressed to us all we cannot too anxiously seek after it.

AMICUS.

OBITUARY.

"Death is in our midst." All pause alike to contemplate its melancholly work. No face wears its accustomed mien. Henry Page is dead. Not she the partner of his bosom rendered widowed indeed, not she whose affection breathed upon an only son from tender infancy to noble manhood mourn alone this night their peculiar loss; not he who never sought him as a friend, without a rich return, is made to feel that to him too his like will ne'er be known again, but the whole community are mourners. Eulogy forbears an effort to add lustre to his noble character, or to delineate virtues that are too deeply engraven on the memories of all.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar and Officers of Dorchester County Court on Monday the 4th of September 1843 in Cambridge, The Hon. Josiah Bayley, Atty. Gen'l. was called to the chair, & Jos. E. Muse Esq. was appointed Secretary. James A. Stewart Esq. submitted the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the members of the Bar & officers of Dorchester County Court, have learned, with emotions of the most profound regret, of the sudden and unexpected death from home, of their distinguished associate Henry Page Esq., and that we deeply deplore the loss, which the Bench, Bar, the Profession, and the State, have thereby sustained.

Resolved, That we entertain the highest respect for the exalted talents & numerous virtues of the deceased, for his high professional learning, cultivated taste & for the amiable and exemplary qualities, which adorned his character, in his domestic relations.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathise with the members of his family in their sad bereavement, and that we offer them our kindest feelings of sympathy and condolence on this mournful occasion, and that the Chairman of this meeting, present a copy of these Resolutions to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That as an additional mark of our respect for the deceased, we will wear the usual badges of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That at the next session of the Court, the Attorney Gen'l. do move the Court, that these resolutions be entered amongst the minutes of their proceedings.

"He hath dispersed abroad and given to the poor, and his righteousness remaineth forever"—Psalms 112 cap. 9th ver.

Full many a heart is aching now, and many a tear is shed,
The Widow's and the Orphan's friend is numbered with the dead.
And well may tears be falling fast, and well may hearts be sore,
For Henry Page, the kind and good, Alas! is now no more.

He left his lov'd and pleasant home, where friends were ever nigh,
To travel to a Northern clime and there 'mid strangers die.
Yes! He so valued here by all, there drew his parting breath
With only one of all he lov'd, to sooth the bed of death.

Alas! for her that only one, who then was doom'd to know
The sorest trial, deepest grief, her heart could undergo.
Alas for her! who distant far from home and kindred dear
Was call'd in agony to weep upon a Husband's bier.

Lord! thy decrees are dark to man, "thy ways pas finding out"
Yet let us not, tho chasten'd sore, thy wisdom dare to doubt!
But still the griev'd and stricken heart will in its anguish cry,
"Ah why should Widow's only sons be ever first to die."

This Widow's son like hers of Nain, tho miracles be past,
Will by a Saviour be restor'd unto her arms at last,
And tho' to bless her here on Earth he cannot now be given,
Oh let her still devoutly trust to meet her son in heaven.

Notice.

THE public are notified that the undersigned hath presented to the Board of Commissioners for Dorchester County a list of lands, whereon no personal property can be found liable for the payment of the County charges due me thereon, and where as by an Act of the last Legislature of Maryland Chapter 133, the laws in regard to the sales of such lands by Collectors have been materially altered & amended, and whereas many of those lands have changed owners since those charges have become due, In consequence of which it is desirable that land holders generally would examine carefully the advertisement; as some of their lands may be exposed to sale for charges due under former owners; and tax payers generally are interested in making the lands sell, as all deficiences will have to come against the County as insolvent and will if large swell the county levy beyond the usual amount.

WRIGHTS INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.
OF THE
NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH

If the channels of our mighty rivers become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be overwhelmed with the flood. In like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys and Bowels, (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors,) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities, which are in all cases the cause of sickness we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will, sooner or later, be overwhelmed with disease. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstrutions in order that there may be no hindrance to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease we must open, and keep open, all the Natural Drains of the body.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS
OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH, will be found one of the best if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD

for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely CLEANSE THE STOMACH AND BOWELS FROM ALL BILIOUS HUMORS and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the Natural Drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the Body.

The following letters, which have been received from gentlemen of the highest respectability, will show conclusively that Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most

VALUABLE MEDICINE,

and their fame is rapidly extending to every part of the Union.

Extract of a letter from Lawrenceville, Monroe Co., Arkansas:

LAWRENCEVILLE, Monroe Co, Arkansas, Dec. 10, 1842.

DOCT. WM. WRIGHT—Dear Sir: Having become acquainted with your most excellent PILLS (viz. INDIAN VEGETABLE), by experience, I take the liberty to write you on the present occasion by way of suggesting the propriety of being constituted Agent for his State to dispose of them.

In 1841, I was prostrated with the congestive fever in East Florida, and often having been ill with the first attack and a severe relapse, I was necessitated to repair to New York for the recovery of my health being much debilitated, I tried different Physicians, and as many medicines, but all to no purpose; I found my liver much effected, and Dyspepsia setting in with its worst form. I began to think my case was hopeless I concluded to resort to travelling, accordingly I left the city of Albany, New York, for Cincinnatti, Ohio. On my way through New York State, I chanced to come across one of your Agents at Newark, on the Erie Canal; I read one of your advertisements, purchased a box of Pills, and TO MY UTTER ASTONISHMENT FOUND MYSELF partially RECOVERED; on my arrival at Buffalo, I purchased some more of your Agent there; at Cleaveland, Ohio, visited your Agent, the dry goods merchant, talked with him, and took several boxes.—I soon found myself a well man, and concluded to return to my Profession viz: A Travelling Methodist Preacher.

I accordingly came on to St. Louis, and from thence to Helena, Arkansas, where, I joined the Arkansas, Conference, and was assigned to Lawrenceville Mission on St. Francis and White Rivers, near the mouths of the same. Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. H. HOUCK.

TANNER'S BROOK, N. J., Sept. 3d, 1841.

DOCT. WM. WRIGHT—Dear Sir: Your travelling Agent was here, a short time since, and left with me two dozen boxes of your INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, which I have already sold, although they had never been introduced in our neighborhood before. I at first prevailed on a friend of mine, who had been afflicted with the Dyspepsia, and Rheumatism in the head, for the last two years, to make trial of them.—He had previously tried various medicines, but never obtained any relief until he made use of your Indian Vegetable Pills. After using one box, he said he felt like a new man, and now, having used two more boxes, he considers himself a SOUND MAN.

Yours, respectfully, &c.,
June. 3, 1843.——tf J. INGERSOLL.

FRANKFORT, Ross Co., Ohio, Aug. 13, 1842.

Dear Sir—The Pills, that I purchased of you last April, have sold far better than I anticipated. I think by the time I visit your city again, which will be in a few months, I will have sold out entirely. They have not only effected cures in diseases that seemed to baffle the best medical skill in the country, but numerous individuals here bless the day that the undersigned introduced Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills into the neighborhood. I can get, if you think it necessary, several very valuable certificates of cures. One old Lady in particular, who has been afflicted several years with consumption, commenced taking the Pills a short time since, and is now nearly restored to health. Several cases of Dyspepsia have also been entirely cured by your TRULY EXCELLENT INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

In order to give them a more general circulation and thereby extend their usefulness, I have made arrangements with a gentleman in a neighboring town, who has promised to use his best efforts to promote their sale. You will, therefore, please send another supply, shipped to my address, Chillicoth, care of Mr. Dixon Fullerton. Faithfully yours, W. J. F. DAILY.
