Relative Popularity of the Presidential Candidates—the evidence.—In the course of Mr. Janney's remarks on the charges against Mr. Clay's person al character and after having proved them all false and malicious, he alluded to the unwavering sup port that has been extended by Kentucky to her adopted son, and contented that that alone furnished overwhelming evidence of their falsity. Tennessee has been wrested from the iron grasp of Gen. Jackson—Nashville itself has been lost to the Hero of the Hermitage. New York deserted her son in the hour of need, and cast her electoral vote for a stranger—even Kinderhook, the place of his residence, refused longer to obey the wand of the Magician, and turned a deaf ear to his call for help. But when on what occasion has the State of Kentucky faltered for an instant in her support of Clay? When, or on what occasion, has the town of Lexington, (HIS HOME) or the county of Fayette, ever deserted him? For more than FORTY YEARS Henry Clay has stood first and pre-eminent in the affections of the people of his own State, county and town. Every office in their gift has been freely conferred upon him—never once has his consituency, proud of his fame, and jealous of their own, declared that they had reason to repent placing unlimited confidence in his morality, his honor, or his honesty! THIS is a "certificate" of character that should induce honest men to frown indignantly upon the interested politicians who prate about "Mr. Clvy's bad character." If the slightest foundation in truth existed his own neighbors would be the first to know it, and knowing to condemn it. Yet it would seem that men living remote from his home, charge Mr. Clay with faults and habits that are unknown to his neighbors!

We hear nothing said by the Locofocos about Mr. Polk's standing at home—perhaps the reason is obvious. In 1841 Mr. Polk was ambitious—he wanted to be again made Governor of Tennessee—and was defeated by over 3,000 votes. In 1843 he tried the experiment again, and was again defeated, by over 4,000 votes. Perhaps the less said about Mr. Polk's popularity at home the better!—Harrisonburg Repub.

MR. POLK AND PROTECTION.—In reply to an invitation to attend a Locofoco Mass Convention at Macon, Ga., H. L. Pinckney, Esq., late Locofoco Mayor of Charleston, S. C., said—

"It is the policy of the Whigs, and some of our Democrats, too, to represent Colonel Polk as a protectionist, in consequence of his recent letter to Mr. Kane, of Philadelphia. But no charge was ever more unfounded. It is contradicted by the whole tenor of his political life. It is refuted by all his speeches and votes in relation to a tariff for a long series of years."

Mark A. Cooper, late Locofoco candidate for Governor of Georgia, also said, in reply to an invitation to the same convention, "The fact is now admitted that the party called 'the Whig party,' is the Tariff party."

See the Globe of the 5th inst.

What will "the Democrats" of this State who claim Mr. Polk as a better Tariff man than Mr. Clay, say to this?

POLK FOR THE SUB-TREASURY.

The following passage from a letter written by J. K. Polk, in reply to the inquiries of a committee in Tennessee, defines his position on this very point distinctly.—N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

"To your fourth interrogatory, in the following words, viz:

"Are you in favor of the Sub-Treasury system passed by Congress in 1840, and repealed in 1841?"

I answer that I am, and for my views given at some length on the subject, I refer you to my two published addresses, "to the people of Tennessee, the one bearing date on the 31 of April, 1839, and the other on the 25th of March, 1841."

JAMES K. POLK.

LIFE AND ITS ILLUSIONS.—We furnish a house that our friends may cry out on our extravagance and bad taste; we give dinners, that our guests may hereafter find fault with our cook or our cellar; we give parties that three parts of the company may rail at their stupidity; we dress, that our acquaintance may revenge themselves on our silks by finding fault with our appearance; we marry: if well, it was interest—if badly, it was insanity; we die, and even that is our own fault; if we had but done so and so, or gone to Dr. such a one the accident would not have happened. A man accepts a bill for his friend, who pays it—the obligation is held trifling. "What's in a name?" He fails—you have to pay it, and every one cries out against your folly. Oh, Life? what enables us to surmount your obstacles—to endure your disappointments—to believe your promises—but your illusions?

American Criticism.—The True Wesleyan, Boston paper, May 11th, reports the proceedings of the Methodist Episcopal Conference. Speaking of a sermon by the Rev. H. Slicer, the editor says: "It was Southern in every respect. Warm, clear, forcible, right ahead. Give me a Southern style if I am to hear, or a Southern heart if I am to preach. It's none of your abstract, critical, metaphysical, wire-drawn, go-to-sleep quick sort of operations. But, here's-at-them, right-and-left, storm-the-citadel, take it-by force process.—London paper.

TO BE CONTESTED.—The seats of Mr. Quynn, senator, and Mr. Biser, delegate, from Frederick county, are to be contested. It is stated that 36 votes in favor of Mr. Buckey, one of the whig candidates, were thrown out at Middletown, in consequence of the words "for the house of delegates" being omitted on the tickets, and that an error of 12 votes in his favor has subsequently been discovered, which would elect him over Mr. Biser, by 4 majority, Mr. Ross will contest the seat of Mr. Quynn on the ground of illegal voting, and on account of some or his votes not being counted, in consequence of his name not being printed correctly.—Clipper.

DELAWARE ELECTION.—The primary election in Delaware, on Tuesday, resulted in favor of the Whigs, although it had been reported and published that the Democrats had succeeded by some 50 majority. The actual state of the polls is—

Kent County, Whig majority	147
New Castle Co., " "	93
	240
Sussex County, Dem. majority	210
Whig majority in the State	30

We learn from a gentleman who left Delaware yesterday that the vote of Sussex must not be considered as a test of the strength of the two parties. It had been agreed upon by Whigs and Democrats to let the election of Inspector go by defrult—but the Democrats turned out in full strength—hence the majority.—Philadelphia Chronicle.

Signs of Trouble.—We have stated that Governor Ford, of Illinois, had ordered 2500 troops to Nauvoo, the cause of which proceeding was not given in the papers. We since learn, that the Governor had good reason to apprehend that the war of extermination against the Mormons, so repeatedly threatened, was about to commence. The anti-Mormon party of Hancock, Illinois, issued handbills for the assembling of a military meeting at Warsaw, on the 17th ultimo. This handbill requested the presence of the people of Missouri on that day, armed, &c. Prompted by this movement, His Excellency, Govornor Ford, called out 2500 of the State militia. The militia, no doubt, will respond to the call, and, from the determination evinced by Governor Ford, there is every probability that the insurgents will be foiled in their traitorous designs.—Balt. Sun.

The loss by the Flood in the Mississippi and its tributaries this summer, is estimated, after careful inquiry by the Vidalia (Louisiana,) Intelligencer, at six millions six hundred and twenty seven thousand dollars—a total loss and annihilation of such property.

In this, Cotton to the extent of 139,105 bales, worth at thirty dollars per bale, $4,173,150, is included.

Meetings are called in the river counties to memorialize the Government for aid in constructing levees or dikes, to keep out the water. Instead of such meetings, let them go about proselytizing or Henry Clay, and with his success comes that of all reasonable and constitutional claims on the General Government, for aid to internal improvements.

IMPORTANT ELECTION DECISION.—Judge King, of the Court of Common Pleas, at Philadelphia, decided on Saturday morning that by the naturalization of a man all of his minor children residing in the United States are ipso facto, made citizens, and entitled to vote when of age. Judge King based this decision on the Act of Congress of the 14th April, 1802, and on a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, in Cranch's Reports, when it is expressly laid down that "the children of persons duly naturalized shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens of the United States.

This decision is in accordance with the opinion given by Reverdy Johnson, Esq. of Baltimore, and Judge Marshall, of Frederick.

Thrilling Oratory.—They have some very brave orators in hoosierdom; that fact there is no disputing, if we admit that the reporters translate them aright, and of course they "don't do anything else," as the following specimen of lofty and burning eloquence will testify:—

Americans! This is a great country—wide—vast—and in the southwest, unlimited. Our Republic is yet destined to re-annex all S. America—to occupy the Russian possessions, and again to recover possession of those British provinces which the prowess of the old thirteen colonies won from the French on the plains of Abraham! all rightfully ours to re occupy. Ours is a great and growing country. Faneuil Hall was its Cradle!—but what—what will be found timber enough for its coffin? Scoop all the water out of the Atlantic Ocean, and its bed would not afford a grave sufficient for its corpse. And yet America has scarcely grown out of the gristle of boyhood. Europe? What is Europe? She is no what: nothing; a circumstance; a cypher; a mere obsolete idea. We have faster steamboats, swifter locomotives, larger creeks, bigger plantations, better mill privileges, broader lakes, higher mountains, deeper cataracts, louder thunder, forkeder lightning, braver men, handsomer women and more money than England dar have! [Thundering applause.] Who is afraid?

Murder.—Mr. Devore, a minister of the Gospel, was murdered in the Choctaw nation on the 6th ult. He had been on a visit to Texas, and was returning to his home in Missouri. He had with him $250 in money, which was all stolen from him with the acception of $50, supposed to have been overlooked by the assassins

Caution.

THE subscriber is absolutely, though reluctantly constrained, to forewarn all persons from hunting or shooting on his Appleby Farm, near Cambridge, under the penalty of certain prosecution.

The injuries he sustains annually, in the leaving open of his gates, the breaking down of his fences, and the shooting at random by the careless—who make a large majority—in the midst of his horses, cattle, and hogs, &c., and lately, shooting and killing a fine young mule, though accidental;—besides the eternal pelting and chasing away the half fledged game, before it is fit for use or sport—these annoyances, multiplied by the proximity of his farm to the town, drive him to this measure, under the most irrevocable interdiction and unalterable determination to prevent it for the future.

COLLECTORS NOTICE.

THE undersigned takes this method of informing the public that he has his books now made out for the present year 1844, containing County charge, Direct tax and officer's fees. It is generally known that I have large demands to meet, and those demands will be expected of me punctually. It would be conferring a favor on me by coming forward and settling immediately. There is a number of accounts on my books for the year 1843, yet unsettled. I have heretofore urged upon the people the propriety and even the necessity of an early settlement. I regret very much that I have been disappointed in the effects of the different appeals I have made to the people upon this subject, and hope they will no longer delay; to have to press those accounts that are due me would be recognant to my wishes, and at the same time would increase the debt of the payer. I am in hopes that the above notice will be attended by all of those who pay taxes or have contracted debts with the Register, or Clerk of the county or any of the Lawyers.

I will give the very highest prices for all kinds of Slaves. It is therefore the interest of those having Negroes to dispose off, not to do so, until they call upon me. I can always be found in Cambridge and letters addressed to me will be punctually attended to.
