ing in our city, consented our usually devoted to relig y of a Temperance Addr those crimes have banished nmured them between the s lts of the Ohio Penitentiar embers of the Legislature a ear the ad ress and witness the number of some 450 w ropriate opening exercises, is address. He had not proc very eye was riveted on him the hardened men were tou d for years. Every word s ctions of the past and awa ought not to conceal. They ays, and as the speaker eloqu l progress of the occasional encing his career and sowin on, shame and misery in the ad going on step by step in the dungeon, the scaffold ene, the fountains of feeli roken up, and scalding tears retched convicts. They rec their own experience and f at the poisoned contents of ke serpents and sting like a at lifted the veil and showed use of misery and crime, po nd bade hope once more live ey looked forward to the fut ed on their visions and stern hun the abyss of wo, when, aintul probation, they should The scene affected deeply th e tears of the legislator mi onvict, until there were few emblage. The Warden unu ould not suppress his emo vithout attempt at concealme yes. When the speaker call icts who could trace the co rought them there, to the un raise the right hand, more b relearn, immediately stretched ing at the same time to sup onvulsed their frames.

We have not been as minut ur details; for, not being pres hat we have heard, in the h as present will yet give the i ome minutely. The scene in peaks eloquently to the hearts ued to those who yet touch, t y draught, as well as to those id in suppressing the sale of eginning to learn the force a ove. More potent than eve hains and dungeons will be t quent pleadings of Carey, to ho are every month going lo y into the society from which y years banished. "Go, and e deeper into the hearts, that ecret of their fall. And, may arning voice of the scene in ill be the means of alarming ho stand emphatically in em take heed how they stan

TERM

PUBLISHED EVERY SAT

At two Dollars and Fifty Cent early in advance. No subscripti horter period than six months, a until all arrears are paid.
ADVERTISEMENTS inserted here the number of insertions is ontinued until direction to om harged accordingly,

POET

Written for the Philadelphi

LOVE CANN

Of all the passions of the
Which God in wisdom did Love claims a proud supre And rules with greatest po

Nurtured in Heaven, it bl Its fragrance scents celest Inspires the bright, angeli Attunes their notes to swe

This holy passion, so divi
Of God was given to man Harmoniously to bind them That circle this tempuous

'Tis LOVE prevades His Stretching afar, from pole Encircling systems, worlds
And mantling all creation's

And Love for Him— man Our thoughts and lives sho Translate us to ethereal cl Beyond the things of sense

"God is love" the Scriptur Love, which time can ne'e Which 'roun' creation's b Which man's rebellion cou

Oh! happy thought—Oh!
From Earth to Heaven we
And when the sun of life g Rise to wear an immorta

Then with unsullied light And clothed with purity di We'll ever be from sin Throughout a long eternity

Tappahannock, Va., 1844.

BALTIMORE PRIC

FLOUR—Howard Street,
City Mills,
WHEAT—Prime White,
Prime Red,
CORN—White,
Yellow,
OATS,
RYE
BEESWAX,