Rabbit Gives Him Eyes.

Most men see the world through their own eyes. Hereafter William Heinard, a resident of Northeast Washington, will see the world through the eyes of a rabbit.

One night in April, 1904, Mr. Heinard, a prosperous dealer in the Eastern Market, was attacked by a negro, who dashed in his face a strong solution of lye. Mr. Heinard was badly burned and surgeons declared his sight entirely gone. Finally, a specialist suggested that the cornea from the eyes of a Belgian hare be grafted upon the balls of Mr. Heinard's eyes.

The rabbit and the man were placed side by side on the operating table, in the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, each under the influence of anæsthetics, and section by section the gossamer-like cornea from each eye of the hare was lifted and "planted" over the sightless balls of the man. Long hours thereafter he lay in a darkened room, especially designed, bandages holding the "grafts" in place, until it was determined that the healing process had set in and that the first stage of the operation was a success. Mr. Heinard was allowed to go to his home, the only instructions being that he should rest until it was assured that the "new eyes" were as his own.

He had to go to the hospital again to undergo the knife, but this time the operation will consist of merely scraping the serrated edges and delicately manipulating the artificial membrance as may be necessary to secure the required convex or oval. Adjustment of powerful glasses to meet the altered conditions will follow, and then Mr. Heinard is believed to be practically assured of vision.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of Mary the beloved daughter of Nathaniel and Annie C. Ashley who died one year ago today, February 3, 1905, aged 6 years.

One year, oh, Mary can it be?
The weary months we've mourned for thee,
And yet we feel so fresh the pain
We count them o'er and o'er again.

We sit alone tonight and gaze
Upon the empty chair
And memory takes us back to days
When our dear little Mary sat there.

And now one dreary year has passed
Since we have seen her face;
We think of her just as when last
She sat in her old place.

She passed away like a summer breeze
With scarcely a parting sigh,
She passed from this dark world to dwell
With Christ on high.

Had he asked us well we know,
We should say, "Oh spare the blow,"
Yet, with streaming tears would pray:
"Lord we love her—let her stay."

BY MAMMA AND PAPA.

Another little girl was needed
To join the angels' band
And oh, the dear, kind Sheperd came
And took my dear sister by the hand.

SISTER REBA.

Oh the misery of that dreary morning
When we stood around her bed,
Till death stole upon her softly
And we knew Bessie had fled.

Ah, since then my life has saddened,
Since then my hopes are slain,
But her voice seems sweetly saying:
"Courage auntie—we will meet again."

AUNT BECKIE.

My Lord has need of these flowerets gay,
The Reaper said and smiled
Dear tokens of the earth are they
When he was once a child.

But the mother gave in tears and pain
The flowers she most did love,
She knew she would find them all again
In the fields of light above.

O, not in cruelty, not in wrath
The Reaper came that day
Twas an angel visited the green earth
And took the flower away.

TEACHER MISS LULA THOMAS.

She's gone, but was so young and fair,
She slumbers sweet, but knows no care,
Her heart was true her life was young
Yet not our will but Gods be done.

TEACHER MISS COLBURN.

Just one year ago today
We watched beside her dying bed
And tried to cheer her heart,
We did not know how dear she was until we had to part.

Robert M. Catts, Trustee, versus
Martha J. McWhorter, Emma C. Wright, George E. Wright, Edmund M. Wright, Ethel J. McWhorter, Thos. H. McWhorter, Ola J. Catts.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity No. 1579.

THE object of this suit is for Robert M. Catts to be relieved and discharged as trustee from the further execution of the trust mentioned in these proceedings.

The bill states that under and by virtue of the deed of trust from Martha J. McWhorter to Robert M. Catts, trustee, dated the 25th day of February, 1902, and recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 6, Folio 216, &c., one of the land record books for Kent county, Maryland, your petitioner was appointed sole trustee of the said Martha J. McWhorter of the real estate mentioned in the said deed, to collect the rents, issues and profits thereof, and apply the same in the first place to the payment of all taxes thereon and the expenses incident to the management of said property in the manner in which, in the judgment of said trustee, its productiveness will be best maintained, and afterwards to pay the net rental or income therefrom to the said Martha J. McWhorter during her natural life, and after her death in trust to continue to hold said property upon like trust for the benefit of said Emma C. Wright during her natural life, and immediately after the death of the said Emma C. Wright then to and for the use and benefit of the children then living of the said Emma C. Wright, and if the said Emma C. Wright does not leave any children, then to the brothers and sisters of the said Emma C. Wright. And that the said Robt. M. Catts duly accepted said trust and entered upon the duties of the same on the 25th day of February, 1902.

And that the real estate consists of a farm of 107 acres, on the north side of the road leading from Millington to Smyrna, in the First District of Kent county; and also a farm containing 232 acres, 2 roods and 21 perches, near Millington; and also a farm containing 45 acres of land, more or less, near Millington; reserving and excepting from the 232 acre farm 60 acres tenanted by Daniel Burgett.

And the bill further states that the said Martha J. McWhorter resides in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., and the said Emma C. Wright, intermarried with George E. Wright, and they have one child, a minor, Edmond Wright, all residents of Philadelphia, Pa., and that the said Emma C. Wright has one brother, Thomas H. McWhorter, and two sisters, Ethel J. McWhorter and Ola J. Catts, wife of the said Robert M. Catts, all adults, and residents of Philadelphia, Pa.

The bill states that your petitioner desires to retire from said trust and has filed a full and particular account of his receipts and disbursements as such trustee.

To the end that this Honorable Court assume jurisdiction in the premises, it is therefore, this 2nd day of February, 1906, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 5th day of March, 1906, giving notice to the said non-resident defendants, Martha J. McWhorter, Emma C. Wright, George E. Wright, Edmund Wright, Ethel J. McWhorter, Thomas H. McWhorter, and Ola J. Catts, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 3rd day of March, next, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Dr. O'Hanlon's Crisp Answers to Students and Seekers after Information.

One of the most interesting places at Ocean Grove is the Sunday School Class of 5,000 taught by Dr. O'Hanlon, president of Pennington Seminary. The NEWS takes pride in giving to its readers some of the questions asked the learned doctor and his answers.

If there is but one religion, why are there so many denominations?

As well ask why there are so many parts or divisions of a great army. All that is vital in the religion of Christ is held alike by the Roman Catholic Church, and by the Protestant Church in all its branches.

If a man has been converted and has sinned, is it necessary for him to be converted again?

The man who has willfully departed from his God—has turned his back upon his Divine Lord, and forsaken his cause—is in a worse state than he was at first, II. Peter 2:20, 21, 22, and must, in his restoration to Christ, be again converted like St. Peter, after he had deceived his Lord. Matt. 26:75; Luke 22:31, 32.

Is it possible for a christian to become so downhearted that he feels that death would be a blessing?

Yes in the time of overwhelming sorrow and fierce temptation, as in the case of Job. Read 3d Chapter of Job. But, like this man of God, one in such a crisis must be brave, and turn to his God. "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him." Job 13:15. See John 16:33.

The Bible says: "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth." Is it right, therefore, for us to plan for home, or better things, such as work, better wages, etc., after we have accepted Christ?

Yes, only do all these things in harmony with the will of God. John Wesley taught on this subject as follows: "It is our duty to make all we can honestly, to save all we can, and give all we can." "We are to be diligent in business, serving the Lord." Romans 12:11; I. Timothy 5:8.

Why did God permit evil to come into the world.

To make man on high scale, capable of great intelligence, and a free moral agent, i. e, with the power of free will to choose good or evil, necessarily exposed him to evil and its consequences; but at the same time gave him magnificent opportunities to become a moral hero, and at last to stand triumphant and crowned forevermore in the rapturous presence of Almighty God and his holy angels.

Is there any sanction in Scripture for the present system of land-holding by private individuals? Does not the land, and all other natural utilities, such as air, water, etc., belong to the people as a whole?

Yes, land-holding by private individuals is allowed by the Scripture, and has always been encouraged, as in the time of the antediluvians, the patriarchs, Moses and the prophets, and the kings of Israel. Private ownership of land is necessary in order to its improvement (it is not so in regard to the enjoyment of water, air and sunshine). What would Manhattan Island be to-day without the stimulus of private ownership?

How does the Holy Spirit enter a man's life? I mean by what channel, the mind or the affections, or what?

The intellect, the conscience, the affections. Who can look out upon nature without thoughts of God? Read Psalms 8 and 19. Where is the man whose conscience does not at times feel out in the darkness after God? Where is the heart born again of the Holy Spirit that does not love God dearer than even life itself? "Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee." Psalm 73:25; Acts 17:27, 28.

What is the exact meaning of the words, "forbidden fruit"?

Whatever this forbidden fruit was, in itself, is not important for us to know; but we do know that it was to be to Adam and Eve the test of their loyalty to God. As free moral agents created in the image of God, submission to his will was to be the supreme rule of their lives (as it is on earth, and in heaven, now and always). It was a command to obedience.

How can a man be a Christian when everything in this world is against him?

By the help of God. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." Zech. 4:6. If a man does his part in this great undertaking, God will see to it that he succeeds.

I find in Deuteronomy (last Chapter), that "Moses died in the land of Moab," and that he was "buried in the land of Moab." We are also told that "no man knoweth where the sepulchre of Moses is unto this day." Here is a contradiction. But this is not all. It is said that Moses himself wrote the book. Can you explain?

1. No contradiction at all. "And he (the Lord), buried him (Moses), in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre (the exact spot) unto this day," Deut. 34:6. 2. Moses did write the book, excepting the last twelve verses giving the account of his death and burial; these were written by Joshua, the successor of Moses as the leader of God's people.

Can you explain why John the Baptist, being the forerunner of Christ, being his first cousin, and believing Christ to be the Messiah, Christ did not visit him in prison?

He may have visited John the Baptist in prison. Much that he did is not recorded. John 21: 25.

Christ has forgiven my sins. Would you advise me to write and ask permission to see my little one, or leave it in God's hands to bring about the meeting?

Use all lawful means to see your child. God never does for a man what he can do for himself. "For men are laborers together with God." 1 Cor. 3: 9

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.
