WM. THOMSON, Esq., S. E. corner of Baltimore and South streets, Baltimore, is authorised to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the "Democrat."

☞We will send the "Democrat" gratuitously to all who will become occasional contributors.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We are compelled to omit "A Parody," by a Bachelor, this week—also lines "to Miss ———, of Church Creek." They will be attended to in our next.

STATE REFORM CONVENTION.—This convention, which is to be composed of ALL FRIENDS of CONVENTIONAL REFORM, irrespective of party, will meet in Baltimore City, on WEDNESDAY the 25th day of JULY next.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Clipper, that, on Thursday afternoon of last week, Mr. GASTON C. LECOMPTE and a friend were returning to the city of Baltimore, on the Philadelphia road, in a buggy wagon, from Herring Run, when between Judge Kell's place and the first toll gate, by some means the vehicle was upset throwing both gentlemen out with much violence. Mr. Lecompte's head struck on some stones causing a severe fracture of the skull, and otherwise seriously injuring him. His companion escaped with trifling injury. Mr. L. was conveyed to the toll-gate dwelling and physicians immediately sent for, who did all that medical skill could devise, but without avail. He lingered from the time of the unfortunate accident—6 o'clock Thursday afternoon—until about the same time Friday afternoon, when he expired. Mr. Lecompte was a native of this place, and leaves many friends here to regret his untimely fate.

THE REFORM CONVENTION.—The Baltimore Republican has named WEDNESDAY the 25th of July next, as the most suitable day for the holding in that city, of the State Reform Convention—in accordance with the advice of friends who consulted the interests of the agricultural community. This convention will be composed of Reformers of both political parties—so that no man can raise any objection to Reform, on account of its being a party movement. The Republican recommends, in selecting representatives, to send from each county twice the number of delegates as are sent to Annapolis.

It is now high time that the friends of Reform in this county were at work—and using their utmost exertions to procure a large turnout of reformers at a convention of reformers, which will be held in this county between this and the 25th of July next, for the purpose of appointing delegates to meet the State Reform Convention.

DEATH OF MAJOR GENERAL GAINES.—We regret to learn that Major Gen. Edmund P. Gaines died at New Orleans on the 6th instant, and was preceded by an illness of but one hour and sixteen minutes. It is supposed to have been occasioned by an attack of cholera. This veteran officer was in his seventy-third year, having been born on the 20th of March, 1777, near the eastern base of the Blue Ridge, in the county of Culpepper, Va. Gen. Gaines was the oldest officer in the army, having received his first commission on the 10th of January, 1799, as an ensign in the 10th regiment of foot, just fifty years ago last January.

LIPPARD'S LETTER.—The letter of Geo. Lippard to Gen. Taylor will be found on the first page of this week's paper. We bespeak for it an attentive perusal from both whigs and democrats. Mr. Lippard was one of Gen. Taylor's earliest friends, though he is, and always has been a democrat throughout, and upon all political questions. This letter of Mr. Lippard fully exposes the fraud and deception which has been practised by Gen. Taylor upon his countrymen.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE.—We have received the June number of this valuable magazine. It contains its usual variety of interesting reading matter. We most cheerfully recommend this work to those of our readers who are disposed to subscribe to a useful monthly. Price $1. Address C. W. Holden, 109 Nassau-st., N. Y. City.

ABSCONDING SLAVES.—Quite a number of slaves have lately fled from Loudoun co. Va., and when some of them were arrested they produced well executed free papers, which proved to be forged. Eight male slaves got off also, from New Hampshire co., Va, and were not re-taken.

USING LIME.—The corporation of Annapolis has appropriated $250 to purchase lime to be distributed gratuitously throughout the city, in order to prevent the cholera.

We think it would not be amiss if our commissioners were to have about fifty or sixty dollars worth of lime purchased, for gratuitous distribution among those of our citizens who are not able to buy it.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The Whigs of this congressional district are to hold a convention at Barren Creek Springs, on the 2d of August, to nominate a candidate for Congress. L. L. Dorickson, Esq., of Worcester, is recommended as a candidate by a writer in the Somerset Herald.

EXCURSIONS TO CAMBRIDGE.—The steamer Columbus will make an excursion from Baltimore to this place, next Thursday the 14th instant, with a cotillion Party. She will also make an excursion from Baltimore to Cambridge on Monday next, the 18th inst., with the Patapsco Rifle Corps.

NEXT GOVERNOR.—A correspondent of the Annapolis Free Press names the Hon. JOHN THOMPSON MASON, of Washington county, as a suitable person to be supported by the democrats of this State, for the next Governor of Maryland.

CLEANING UP.—The citizens of this town are very busily engaged in cleansing their premises of all unhealthy odours.

☞The Governor has appointed JNO. DUTTON Inspector of Lime, in Baltimore, vice Elijah Hutton, resigned.

[Correspondence of the Cambridge Democrat.]

FREDERICK CITY, June 6th 1849.

MR. EDITOR:

It seems to me out of place to make any excuse when a person acts with a good intention and does no one harm. With this philosophy I have made up my mind to write you a letter, and I think I have a sort of right to do so without being ashamed, as I once lived among you in Cambridge, which though now for a time

"Lost to the sight, is to memory still dear."

The weather with us here is remarkably fine; and although it has some appearance of rain, nevertheless it is calm, pleasant, and beautiful. Our wheat crops are in a flourishing condition, and in fact our beautiful valley of Frederick blooms as did the garden Eden before the serpent enticed it. Dame nature throwing of the furred mantle of Winter, has assumed the vesture of gladsome young Summer, and appears in a delicate robe of pea green. Verily we snuff the dog days in the distance.

Oh! what a delightful time the young ladies and gentlemen of your pleasant little town will have in moonlight walks on the Pier. There will be some lovers among them too I warrant.

"Who on their cheek, and o'er their brow
So soft, so calm, so eloquent
The smiles that win, the tints that glow
But tell tell of days in goodnesss spent—
A mind at peace with all below—
A heart whose love is innocent."

There is no local news of much account; at least none that would be interesting to the folks of Dorset, and as there is nothing very striking or special, it will not do to indulge in "airy nothings." In the way of politics there is some talk about the next Democratic candidate for Governor,—several very excellent men are spoken of, among them are Anthony Kimmel, and last but far from being least prominent, is E Louis Lowe, and, there is no other Democratic man in Maryland, better qualified to adorn the station and represent ably and faithfully the people of this District. I may again before I return home take occasion to drop a line to the "Democrat"—so now adieu, and give compliments to all. Your's truly.

ARRIVAL OF THE EUROPA—VERY IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE—TOTAL DEFEAT OF THE RUSSIANS BY THE HUNGARIANS.

The Europa arrived here this morning, making the passage from Liverpool, including her stoppage at Halifax, in less than twelve days.

The house of Rothschild has received a letter from their correspondent at Frankfort, dated 17th of May, which says that the Hungarians have totally defeated the Russians, who were forced to fall back upon Cracow. It is further stated in this letter that the contest will thus be transferred to Poland. A proclamation from Kossuth says that the great battle took place in a defile at Rosenthrum, and that thirty-six thousand Russians surrendered. At the latest accounts the Austrians were fortifying Lermo.

EARLY MARYLAND WHEAT.—The editor of the Delaware Republican has been shown some stalks of of wheat, grown upon the farm of Mr. Edward Stabler, at Sandy Springs, Montgomery county, Md., that measured just five feet in height exclusive of any root. The Republican says:

These stocks were out in head the latter part of last month, and we are told that they were a fair average of the whole field, which was remarkably thick set, even and beautiful; not a single head of rye or any weed jutting above its surface to mar its beauty. The grass and other crops on this farm were equally luxuriant.

Mr. Stabler is the gentleman who received the first premium offered by the "American Farmer," for a "Prize Essay on the Renovation of worn-out Land." He is also the author of the "Prize Essay on Draining," awarded by the Maryland State Agricultural Society.

SHORT ROUTE TO CALIFORNIA.—The N. Y. Sun insists that, by proper arrangements, the trip from that city to San Francisco can be performed in seventeen days—thus—"taking the ordinary mail route from New York to St. Louis, we could arrive at Independence, Missouri, in seven days. From Independence, with good saddle horses, distributed at post stations along the route, we would carry a mail to Suter's Fort in nine days. From Suter's Fort, by steamboat, to San Francisco in one day. Total, seventeen days. Add stages to the horses, on the line from Independence to Suter's Fort, and passengers could be taken from New York to San Francisco in twenty-three days.

CAMBRIDGE DEMOCRAT.—This paper comes to us enlarged and greatly improved in appearance. Success to you neighbor. In our next volume we shall have to give ourselves more elbow room, if our advertising and subscription patronage continues to increase.—Denton Journal.

☞The Cambridge Democrat, we observe, has been enlarged, and appears in a new dress. We wish the editor a success corresponding with his exertions.—Annapolis Free Press.

Dr. Herrick on Cholera.

As everything relating to the treatment of cholera is interesting at the present moment, we copy from the Chicago Journal the subjoined letter, written by a physician of high standing at Chicago, who appears to believe that a specific for the cholera has been discovered in the use of sulphur. We give it to our readers, with the assurance that Drs. Bird, Blaney and Herrick, are all physicians of the highest respectability, and would not lend their names to an unworthy cause. The specific, if it proves successful, is a most accessible one—simple sulphur—and whether it be successful or not, we give the communication for our readers to draw their own conclusions:

Editor of the Journal—Dear Sir: In compliance with the request of my friend, Dr. J. A. Bird, I have made the following brief synopsis of a letter from him, sent to me, for publication in the Northwestern Medical and Surgical Journal, which, together with the few additional remarks which I have made, you will please publish, in order that the members of the medical profession and our citizens generally may have the means of testing, and the benefits to be derived from what is supposed to be a new discovered remedy for the cholera.

The facts stated in the letter referred to above, are briefly as follows:

About six months since, Dr. Bird and myself were led into a conversation upon the effects of atmospheric influence in producing epidemics, from a German chemist, in our periodicals, in which it was contended, that influenza depended upon the presence of ozone, and that the severity and number of attacks, as shown by chemical analysis, was always in proportion to the amount of this substance in the atmosphere. Taking this statement in connection with the fact that cholera is generally preseded by influenzas, as shown by its history, we were led to the conclusion that both diseases might be dependent upon the same influence, modified in degree according to the greater or less quantity of this deleterious agent present in the atmosphere at the time.

The next step in the investigation, was to determine what agent would counteract the influence and destroy the deleterious properties of ozone. The accurate chemical knowledge of Dr. Bird, enabled him to suggest at once the well known substance sulphur as possessing the properties of acting upon it in such a manner as to neutralize its influence. In searching for facts to support this conclusion, it was found that the cholera never had prevailed in the vicinity of sulphur springs, or in situations where this substance abounds; hence the conclusion, that sulphur might be, and probably was the antidote for cholera.

In one of our Medical Journals, an article appeared describing the method of detecting ozone in the atmosphere, thus supplying the means of determining whether or not it was present at the very time when cholera was beginning to make its appearance amongst us. Dr. Bird's experiments, as well as those made subsequently by himself, and by Drs. Bird, Blaney and myself from day to day, since that time, show that ozone is present in our atmosphere, and that the amount is in proportion to the severity of the disease from time to time.

About a week since Dr. Bird determined to try the effect of sulphur upon himself and others troubled as nearly all have been more or less of late, with uneasy sensations, slight pains, &c., in the digestive organs. The result was entirely satisfactory, so much so that Dr. Bird came immediately to my office, and requested me as a friend, to test its efficacy in my practice, but to say nothing to others with regard to the ingredients used until facts should justify its public announcement as a discovery. The beneficial effects resulting from its use in my practice was such as to convince me at once of its utility in the class of cases described above.—During the last few days, Drs. Bird, Blaney and myself have continued to use this apparent simple remedy, to the exclusion of nearly all others in cases of choleric symptoms. The result has been wonderful. All premonitory symptoms, such as pain, a sense of fullness, unnatural movements, slight diarrhœa, &c., have uniformly yielded at once to a dose of three or four grains of sulphur.

In cases where either cramps, diarrhœa, or vomiting have been present, and in fact where all these symptoms have existed in conjunction, the use of sulphur, in the above named doses, every three or four hours, has had the effect to ameliorate the patient's condition at once, and when used, in a few hours, to dissipate cholera symptoms. So far as its efficacy has been tested in the worst stages of collapse, most satisfactory results have been obtained. In two or three cases of the kind the effect of the remedy has been to bring back pulse to the wrist, restore warmth to the surface, and stop the profuse diarrhœa and vomiting. In truth, the results obtained so far, have been such as to convince all of us, who have administered it, and witnessed its effects, that if any remedy deserves the appellation, this is a specific for cholera.

It having been determined to make this public statement, it is expected in return that no hasty conclusions will be made, either for or against what appears to be a proposition to accomplish much by very simple means. Although the result so far as obtained, in a short time, and by a few individuals, seem to justify our conclusions, it is hoped that physicians will continue to depend on what they consider the most efficient practice, in bad cases of cholera, until they shall have tested the matter themselves, and formed their own conclusions; and also, that whatever may be the confidence of individuals in this or any other remedy, they will not depend upon their own judgment in any case, even of slight symptoms, whenever it is possible to consult their physician.

It is suggested by Dr. Bird, that a combination of powdered charcoal, one part to four of sulphur, has seemed to make the remedy more efficient.

W. B. HERRICK,
Ed. N. W. Med. and Sur. Jour.

We learn from the Chicago Journal from which paper the above article is copied, that the discovery has produced a great sensation, and says, that "the excitement caused by the discovery has been heightened by the success it has met with, in cases where almost every citizen has witnessed or experienced its effects, in the premonitory symptoms of cholera."

WEEKLY NEWS ITEMS.

☞The Whig prints are endeavoring to blacken the character of George Lippard, thinking thereby to lessen the force of the last letter of his. It is all in vain; they made traduce him to their heart's content, but they cannot efface the able exposure of the no-party President.—The arguments are so plain and the facts stand out so boldly, that all the sophistry and abuse the Taylor Press choose to make use of, is worse than nothing. Any person wishing this able letter, can get it by applying at our counting-room.—Balt. Republican.

FATHER MATHEW.—His life was insured several years since for several thousand pounds, as security for the expenses of his temperance movement. He received notice from the company, that in going to America he would have to pay a fine of $1,450 for the increased risk. Mr. W. Rathbone, of Liverpool, sent the good friat the sum of $2,400, saying that the friends of temperance should be responsible for the debts which its apostle had contracted.

A FINE BULL AND COW CALF, from the Dead Sea, are thus spoken of by the Washington Whig:

"They have not attained their growth; when they do, they will probably measure fifteen feet in length and seven feet in heighth. They are the property of Mr. Castleman, of London county, Va.

SUMMER FASHION.—The daintiest and most aristocratic novelty of the season, says the New York Metropolis, is the white parasol, or summer sun shade, lined with a pink or rose color, and supported, like a delicate flower, upon a spotless stem of ivory. These are yet but rare.

FIFTH DISTRICT.—Samuel M. Magraw, Esq., of Bel-Air, has been spoken of as the democratic candidate for Congress, in this district. Thos. R. Stewart, Esq., of Denton Caroline county, has also been spoken of. Mr. Evans will probably be the whig nominee, though a number of other prominent gentlemen are named.

RESIGNATION OF JUDGE WORTHINGTON.—The Republican learns that Judge Worthington of Baltimore City Court, transmitted his resignation as one of the Associate Judges of said court, to Governor Thomas on Saturday.

CHANCERY SALE.

BY virtue of authority derived from the Hon. Chancellor of Maryland, I will offer at public sale to the highest and best bidder, on next, between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock, at the Court House door in the town of Cambridge, all the Real Estate of which Aaron G. Cook, late of Dorchester county, died, seized, consisting of a moiety of the following tracts, to wit:—"White Ridge," containing 400 acres, "Pilgrimage," 25 acres, and "Ennalls' Indian Purchase," 10 acres; being the same land which was devised to the said A. G. Cook by his father Aaron Cook. A large portion of this land is covered heavily with white and red oak, and from what I am told, an enormous quantity can be cut and sold without detriment to the agricultural interests of the farm. The estate is situated from Choptank river about two or three miles, from the town of Cambridge about six miles, in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools ann churches, thereby offering to persons wishing to engage in lumber business, a fine chance for speculation, and to those desirous of farming, an opportunity for investment. The soil is thin, but easily improved, and if the profits of the superabundance of fine timber be used in manuring said land, the whole estate can be put in fine order, and made exceedingly rich and productive.

Persons desirous of purchasing can examine the premises for themselves, and will doubtless be aided therein by Mr. Edward H. Cook, who resides on the adjoining portion of said lands, if called on for that purpose.

In accordance with the decree, and order of the Chancellor, I hereby notify all creditors of the said Aaron G. Cook to file their claims against him, duly authenticated, and proven according to law, in the Chancery office at Annapolis, within six months from the aforesaid day of sale.

The terms of sale will be as follows: one third of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance in equal instalments, in one and two years from the day of sale, secured by bond and surety approved by the Trustee, and bearing interest from date.

JAMES WALLACE,
