Why Buy McClure's?

McClure's Magazine is bought and read in homes not because it is a magazine, but because it is the magazine. Why?

FIRST—THE PRICE. It costs but one dollar a year, or less than ten cents a number, for over thirteen hundred two column pages of reading matter. This amounts in actual bulk to twenty or twenty-five books costing anywhere from a dollar to two dollars a volume.

SECOND—QUALITY. The reading matter is written by America's leading writers—the best short story writers on timely articles, the best writers of important serials, such as Schurz's Reminiscences or Baker's Railroad articles.

THIRD—TIMELINESS. The reading matter in McClure's is not only good; it is not only entertaining, amusing, instructive and inspiring—it is also about the subjects in which you and all Americans are most interested at the time. No subjects in the next 12 months are going to be so important as the question of railroad rates and rebates and the question of life insurance. Both of these questions will be discussed by authorities in an impartial, careful, interesting way.

FOURTH—ITS CHARACTER. McClure's Magazine is not edited for children, but at the same time, there is never a line in it that any young girl might not read. Its advertising pages are as clean as its editorial pages.

McClure's Magazine

in your home is intended to work only for good. Send $1.00 to-day for one year's subscription, or leave an order at your book-store.

S. S. McCLURE COMPANY, 47 East 23d Street NEW YORK

You can earn a good income by taking up the business of securing subscribers for McClure's. It is clean and self-respecting—a publication any man or woman would like to represent. The pay is 25 cents for each $1 00 subscription, in addition to big cash prizes for the best work. Write to-day for full particulars.

HYMENEAL.

DAVIS—PIERCE.

The wedding of Miss Mamie Pierce daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pierce to Mr. Cornelius Davis, took place at the residence of the bride's parents near Cecilton Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Cole, in the presence of a large number of invited relatives and friends.

The house was artistically decorated with laurel, holly and evergreen and presented a beautiful appearance.

The bride's costume was of white Paris muslin, elaborately trimmed with valencienne lace and carried brides rosee.

The bridesmaid, Miss Esther Davis, a sister of the groom, was becomingly attired in white Paris muslin trimmed with lace, and carried white caranations.

At a late hour refreshments were served by Caterer Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside near Cecilton, Md., where the groom will engage in farming.

ROWAN—SPEAR

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Earleville, Md., Wednesday evening, January 31st, the contracting parties being Miss Helen Spear, Eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Spear, and Mr. William P. Rowan, Jr.

Miss Elsie Spear, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Howard Benson acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. William Dempsey and Roy Carpenter. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of silver gray messaline with tulle veil caught with a spray of lilies of the valley and carried bride's roses, and the bridesmaid was attired in blue silk mull and carried white carantions. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and laurel and the bridal party stood under a floral bell suspended from an arch of evergreen and a lovely white lily. Lohengrin's wedding march was skillfully rendered by Mr. J. Cavender Rowan, brother of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Dawson, after which the relatives of the bride and groom returned to the home of the former, where a reception was held.

The house was trimmed with laurel and holly. The bridal party stood under an arch where they received congratulations. The bride's presents were numerous and beautiful.

MERRITT—BISHOP

The Methodist Protestant Church, Warwick, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, January 31st, at 3 30 o'clock, when Mr. Richard B. Merrit, Jr., one of the most enterprising merchants led to the altar Miss Bessie Belle Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bishop, of near town. Promptly at the appointed hour the bridal party entered the church which was beautifully decorated for the occasion to the strain of the march, which was rendered by Miss Bessie Wilson Gunkle. The ushers, Professor Guy Johnson and Amos R. Merritt, a brother of the groom, followed by the remainder of the bridal party, were met at the chancel under a beautiful arch by the Rev. Frank S. Cain, and there pronounced them man and wife. Refreshments were served by Caterer C. S. Montgomery, of Middletown, Del., to about 275 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents. The bride was gowned in a light grey cloth traveling dress, with hat and gloves to match. They left amid showers of rice on the 6.03 north bound train for a short trip. After their return Mr. and Mrs. Merritt will reside in Warwick, where the groom has built and furnished a most beautiful home.

How Editors Get Rich.

A well-known knight of the razor and shears, who has a keen sence of humor as well as keen edged cutting implements about his place of business, cut the following item from a paper published in Spring Valley, N. Y.

"It has been figured out after a good deal of study why so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of success truthfully told: A child is born in the neighborhood, the attending physician gets $10, the editor gives the loud-laughed youngster and the happy parents a send off and gets $0. It is christened; the minister gets a fee and the editor $00. It grows up and marries; the editor publishes a long winded flowery article and tells a dozen lies about the "beautiful and accomplished bride and the promising groom." The minister gets $10 and a piece of cake, and the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies; the doctor gets from $25 to $100, the undertaker gets from $50 to $100, the editor publishes a note of the death and an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a card of thanks, is asked to donate three dozen copies of the paper be sent to distant relatives and friends of the 'dear departed' and again gets $0,000 Is it any wonder then that so many country editors get rich?
