FAIRLEE ITEMS.

In the absence of Rev. W. E. Habbart, who left for conference to be held in Pocomoke City, Md., on last Monday afternoon, Mrs. Haslup, of Baltimore, will have charge of the service in Fairlee Salem Church tomorrow, Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock, also in the evening at 7.30. Sunday school at the regular hour. Mrs. Haslup is a very pleasant, earnest and an impressive speaker, an enthusiastic worker in the interest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Our community is very appreciative for the work of the Fairlee W. C. T. U. in our midst, for not infrequently very helpful services are held tending to advance the morals of all who attend and uphold principals of true manhood.

The village church social held at Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hudson's on Friday evening of last week was attended by more than two hundred. The supper was elegantly served and the menu was all that could be desired. The gross receipts amounted to about $55, the last table was served at 12 o'clock. The impersonation feature of the evening was nicely rendered. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson were highly complimented upon the success of their annual church social entertainment.

Our farmers are stirring around some, seeding oats, hauling manure, etc. Asparagus ground will be gotten in shape very soon.

We learn that Hon. George E. Noland visited Annapolis this week in the interest of our fishermen. Pending legislation relative to their vocation is giving them no little concern. The fishermen along the bay shore in our neighborhood are busy getting their nets in position.

A number of people took passage on the Tolchester steamer for Baltimore last Saturday, the wind blew heavily and the trip across was a rough one.

Mrs. Raymond Voshell and children, of Del., are spending a few days with Mrs. Voshell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lecompt.

Mr. Sparks the house mover, we are sorry to hear is in poor health, for few are better fixed for moving houses than he is.

GOLT ITEMS.

This being conference our young pastor Rev. L. W. Long from the W. C. A. bid farewell to all his friends last Sunday evening by preaching a very interesting sermon to all who were present. We were sorry to part with our young pastor but he is very busy with his duties at college where he expects to graduate this year.

The Box Social held at Mr. J. T. Matthews proved to be very successful although the evening was stormy.

Look and listen for an entertainment to be held in the church hall, benefit of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conner entertained last Wednesday her sister Miss Blanche Higgins and friend Mr. Charles Bain.

Miss Evelyn Brinsfield, who has been visiting Mrs. J. T. Matthews, returned home on Wednesday last.

We reorganized our Sunday School last Sunday with the following officers: Mr. Robert Foraker superintendent, Mr. J. M. Conner ass't superintendent, Miss Addie Ford secretary, Miss Hattie Higgins treasurer. Master Royden Wharton and Master John Conner were appointed librarians. The following are teachers: Miss Mary McKay, Mr. John M. Conner, Miss Julia Brinsfield, Miss Hattie Higgins, Mrs. J. T. Matthews.

Mrs. J. T. Matthews has made a great improvement by having a telephone put in her home, which is lots of amusement to all who use it.

Mr. John Naylor, from near Massey, spent Tuesday evening with friends here.

Mr. Roscoe Wharton spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. W. E. Matthews has a large force of men working in his woods at Dewey Park, where he will soon move his sawmill.

He who hesitates loses First choice in the Great Semi-annual Half Price Sale at Oehm's Acme Hall. The Rush to secure these fine Suits and Overcoats for Men and Boys is truly wonderful. Who wouldn't buy an elegant $30 Suit or Overcoat for $15, or a good sturdy $10 one for an even $5. If you dont wear them until October they will have doubled in value. Boys' Suits and Overcoats also in Oehm's Clearing Sale, 16 West Lexington, near Charles, Baltimore.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Capt. Harry Hogans has been made an offer for his vessel and will likely accept it.

Our farmers who were making rapid preparations in plowing, &c, for planting potatoes, had a complete knock-out by Tuesday's snow.

Notwithstanding the terrific North West blow of Saturday last the ice cream parlor at the store of Mr. S. J. Wickes, was open in full blast, Miss Clara Biggs was in charge.

Apropos of the Winder escape from Towson jail, two men, supposed to be detectives, were observed examining an unoccupied house in South Rock Hall on Friday night last.

The young people of South Rock Hall tendered a pleasant donation social on Thursday evening of last week to Capt. and Mrs. Wm. T. George the venerable "shut in" couple of Allen's Lane.

Quite a number of our oystermen are running their own catch to Baltimore, and are getting 65 to 70 cents a bushel. All that the buyers here can pay is 30 and 35 cents. Quite a difference.

Many of our people are pleased at the announcement that Capt. Wm. Taylor will command the steamer Emma A. Ford when she goes into commission soon. He is a worthy skipper and as jolly as he is worthy.

The baseball fever is rampant here. So much so that the old sports, Harrison, Biggs and Ryan, talk of taking a hand. If they do you bet the "fur will fly," and the young stars will hardly know what struck them.

Capt. C. R. Kerr weighed anchor on Wednesday morning and proceeded with his yacht to the city. Capt. Frank Satterfield will follow suit in his yacht in a few days. Both vessels have been harboring at Grev's Inn wharf during the winter.

Mr. George Colyer has just completed the work of setting fyke nets in Fairlee pond, on the bayshore. He reports lots of fish of various kind in the pond. He catches white cats 16 inches long or more, with heads on them as large as his double fist.

The boatmen here say they wish all the tongers would run their own oysters to market or quit catching them. They feel impelled to buy to the tongers' catch, even though there is little or nothing in it for themselves. It is hard to understand why our buyers cannot pay more than they do. But they are doing their best, if we may judge by their long stay in the city before they can dispose of their cargoes.

Rev. Mr. Burr's Sunday morning subject was "Christian Character and Steadfastness in the Duty of Which the Christian is Called," from the text, I cor. 11: 18. The sermon was brief, but exceedingly inspiring and well received by a large congregation. In the afternoon Mr. Burr was called to conduct funeral service over the remains of a young child of Mr. and Mrs. John Walmsley, who died on Friday of whooping cough and pneumonia. At the evening service Mr. Burr delivered another splendid sermon before a large audience. On Monday the pastor made pastoral visits, thus was rounded out the third year of Mr. Burr's stay on this charge. On Tuesday he left for the seat of Conference, Rev. J. M. Downey will have charge of the services to-morrow.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance whom Jesus called to rest two years ago today, March 16, 1904, our loving son, Henry Victor Smith, son of Henry and Irene Smith, aged 6 years and 6 months.

Day by day we saw you fade
And slowly fade away,
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That you might longer stay.
Dear son how could we give you up,
You whom we loved so well.
How could we drink this bitter cup
And say the word farewell.

By Mama and Papa.

Past his suffering past his pain,
Cease to weep for all is vain.
Calm his trouble on his breast
For he who suffered is at rest.

Sisters And Brothers.

J. Weldon Rambo died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rambo, in Baltimore, February 26, 1906, aged 12 years and 28 days.

How sudden was the summons
When word came that he was dead;
Time was too short to say farewell
To those he loved so well.
He's gone, but was so young and fair;
He slumbers sweet, but knows no care;
His heart was true, his life so young,
Yet not our will, but God's, be done.
Oh, how hard we tried to save him,
But our cares were all in vain;
An angel came and took him from us—
He is with the Saviour, free from pain.
When the angel brought the message
That our darling Weldon should go,
None but parents who have lost one
Could our grief and sorrow know.
