SPRING THOUGHTS

The fast approaching time for warmer weather carries our minds gently to the thought of the various articles of dress, which we are are in the habit of providing. This time it is Shirts — something that half your life is lived in and ought to be your most congenial companion.

The $1.00 Faultless Shirt for this spring is made to fit just like our clothing and besides a matter of fit, they have other points of advantage over the average shirt that we'd be glad of the opportunity to show them to you.

N. B.—We will continue our Reduction Sale of Winter Goods a while longer If you want bargains, come get 'em.

RIPENED SHEAVES.

Joseph Venable Passes Away—Had Coffin Ready—John W. Startt—John P. Shelton—Miss Bessie Thompson.

Joseph Venable, one of the best known men in this section of Kent, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. James A. French, last Sunday night, aged 87 years, 10 months. Mr. Venable was a good farmer but his delight was in managing his saw mill. Many years ago he bargained with the late Isaac Duyer, of Worton, to saw a walnut tree, the lumber to be used for a coffin for each of them. It is a singular fact that before the lumber was sawed Mr. Duyer met with a fatal accident Mr. Venable sent his lumber to Rock Hall to Mr. James Blackiston but before the coffin was completed Mr. Blackiston died. The lumber was next brought to Mr. Geo. C. Atkinson who made the coffin and had stored it in his shop. After his death Mr. Venable removed the box to Mr. John N. Dodd's undertaking establishment. He remarked to the NEWS man that he was glad he was all ready for the end and as he talked of his preparation tears trickled down his cheeks.

The deceased was beloved by a large circle of friends and up to his death had been an active citizen. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, interment in Still Pond cemetery. The pall bearers were the four grand-sons of the deceased—Joseph and William Duyer, George and Wm. J. French. Undertaker John N Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements

Mr. John W. Startt died at his home on High street Tuesday morning after a long illness of consumption, aged 64. He has been engaged as solicitor for nursery stock for many years and had a wide and extensive trade. He aspired to be a candidate for sheriff at one time and polled a large vote. He was a lover of fast horses and was a skillful reinsman. He is survived by a widow, and one half-brother, Mr. Lewin Startt, of Wilmington. Funeral services were held Thursday, conducted by Rev. W. L. White; interment at old Unionceme tery, Worton. Undertaker John N Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements. The bearers were Wm. M. Slay, Geo. S. Biddie, Chas. L. Gill, Samuel Gears, Jas. P. DeCorse and C. L. Dodd.

Mr. John P. Shelton, a well known resident of Galt, died at his home in that village April 2, aged 65. The deceased is survived by a widow and several children.

Miss Bessie Thompson, daughter of Mr. R. Thompson, died at her home on High street, Thursday after a long illness of consumption, aged 24. The funeral will take place tomorrow, Sunday, interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. N. Dodd, undertaker.

Royal Arcanum

During its life of Twenty eight years has paid the sum of $100,-675,180.55 to the widows and orphans of its deceased members.

The Royal Arcanum paid to the beneficiaries the sum of $783,-290.24 during the month of March, 1906. For every day in the month the sum of $25,-267.42 was paid to its beneficiaries. $2,526.72 was disbursed for every hour during the month of March, or $42.11 for every minute during March.

Become a member of the Royal Arcanum and thereby protect your Home, your Wife, and your Children. But a few days remain before the institution of Chestertown Council.

This enormous sum of money has been collected and disbursed at the small cost of 2½ per cent, or an annual per capita tax of 80 cents from each member.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

THE happiest boy in town is Master William Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Smith. His father has sent him a little pony purchased at Ocean City. The little fellow for the present is being stalled in the hen house!

THE Pepsimint Company, of Kent county, have engaged Mr. Bernard L. Briers, of Baltimore, to travel throughout Pennsylvania with a wagon advertising and selling pepsimint. Mr. John Toulson is general manager of this company.

THAT whistle on the overall plant is a "Loud." Supt. Flaharty says he hopes to improve its weirdness in a few days.

THE Teachers' Association for Kent county will be held in Chestertown next Friday, April 20th.

THE contract for a new home on Chester river at foot of Water street will be given out in a few weeks by Cashier Allan A. Harris

THE "Leland Mills" comes well loaded each trip with merchandise and other freights.

LEWIN W. WICKES, Esq., has sold to Mr. J. W. Russell the desirable property on Cannon street formerly owned by Examiner Jos. Peterson It was advertised in the NEWS. Nuf sed.

THE steam yacht "Ardea," owned by Mr. Clarkson Cowl, of New York, arrived in Baltimore Sunday from a winter cruise South. Mr. Cowl is accompanied by Mrs. Cowl and Miss Baldwin, his niece; after a tour of the city they left in the afternoon for Tolchester Beach on a visit. Mrs. James L. Beck, Mrs. J. D. Welch, Mrs. Etta Fountain, Miss Bertie Beck and Jos. Brice were entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner aboard the yacht. Mr. Cowl left Tolchester Monday at 1 o'clock for the North, accompanied by Misses Sophie and Bertie Beck. The "Ardea" is a steel vessel 91 feet long and was built by T. S. Marvel & Co., Newburg, N. Y., 1897.

Announcements.—The marriage of Miss Mary Clare Jones and Mr. Frank V. Simpers will take place Wednesday evening, April twenty-fifth, at 2463 N. 19th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Hypnotic Power.—Chestertown has a rival to "Dr." White. This rival is a woman who has done some wonderful things with her mesmeric power. Her latest applicant was a young lady who wanted to use hypnotic power on a rival. The Chestertown "professor" has made some wonderful cures and foretells events by the planets.

Orations.—An interesting event took place at Washington College Saturday evening—the oratorical contest to select the speaker for intercollegiate meeting. The speakers were L. C. Meginniss, Jr., J. T. Kendall, C. V. Goslee, Wethered Barroll, A Parks Rasin. The committee decided in favor of Mr. A. Parks Rasin, subject "Graft," and Mr. J. T. Kendall, subject "Political Corruption." The contest will take place in Stam's Hall on Friday evening, April 27th.

Fine Lecture.—Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, was crowded Tuesday evening with an appreciative audience to enjoy an illustrated lecture by Mr. Geo. H. Tebbitts under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Solos were well rendered by Mr. C. D. O'Neal with Miss Anna Lambert, organist, while the 150 views were thrown on canvas by Mr. Cameron Beck. "The Battle of the Strong" was the subject of this excellent address. The College Y. M. C. A. had charge of the affair.

Base Ball.—The Baltimore City College Base Ball team came to Chestertown last Saturday and was defeated by Washington College, score 7 to 5.

The "Little Potatoes" licked the Washington Avenues last Friday by score of 6 to 3. Doggie Duyer and Edward Blackway; Jarman and Hicks, were the batteries.

It is proposed to have a festival after Easter for the purpose of raising funds to secure an athletic field for the boys. Friends of the boys assure the success of the scheme and have already arranged for Mr. John Gale Usilton's lot at foot of Kent street.

Rich Neck Club.—The following persons attended the meeting of the Rich Neck Farmers Club at Mr. John McRochester's last week; Misses May Porter, Mary Coppage, Emma Rolph, Helen Jefferson, Fannie Wallace, Estelle Anthony, Fannie Anthony, Edith Bitting, Hettie Jefferson, Mable Jefferson, Elva Smith, Blanche Walls, Lillian Rochester, Jane Rochester; Messieurs, Johnny Newnam, W. Irving Walker, Albert Story, Frank Baxter, John H. Godwin, Charles H. Jefferson, S. R. Hurlock; Messrs. John Newman, J. Frank Baxter, James E. Meredith, Saulsberry Seney, Elley Porter, Clifton Jarrell, William Baxter, John F. Godwin, James E. Merrit, Dixie Evans, Carson Harris, James H. Harris, W. Irving Walker, John T. Anthony, Charles H. Jefferson, S. Dawberry, S. R. Hurlock, H. H. Klinefelter, F. T. English, Elmer Jarman, Albert Story, Josiah Massey, John McRochester, E. R. Anthony, Thos Skipper, H. P. Skipper, Prof. Milton Whitney chief of Bureau of Soils Wash., D C., Charles A. Drake also of Soil Bureau.

House Party.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis had a jolly house party at his home "Elmwood," beginning last Saturday which closed with a sumptuous dinner Wednesday evening. Those present were Misses Maude and Louise Newman, Baltimore; Mary and Katharine Trnax, Wilmington; Margaret Clayton, Annapolis; Helen Harper, Brooklyn; Emma and Mattie Davis.

Cliff City Items.—It is said that Mrs. Bedford Titter is about to purchase the John D. Carter farm for $2500. She expects to open a summer boarding house. —Our fisherman have done well, but the oystermen very bad.—Mrs. Clarke Stoops has a fine lot of young chickens. —The Chester river boats are expected to begin stopping here about May 10th.

Site Selected.—The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College visited the institution Thursday and selected the site for the elegant new building which will be erected at once by Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp. The site is on the baseball field to the West of the other buildings. This administration edifice will cost $30,000 and is expected to be a magnificent structure.

County W. C. T. U.—A meeting of the County Executive Committee of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. S. M. Usilton on Wednesday, April 11th. More literature was recommended for distribution in Sunday school work. The failure of the legislature to pass laws for the greater protection of the young makes it imperative to teach them in all possible ways to shun dangerous paths. More work along purity lines was agitated. The circulation of demoralizing souvenir postal cards in the county was deplored and it was hoped the action of the post office department for suppressing them would become widely known and heeded. It was decided to continue the prize next year for temperance essays to the students of Washington College. Arrangements were made for prizes for same in Rock Hall and Chestertown. Mrs. Alfred L. Davidson was appointed assistant superintendent of press work

EASTER WEDDING.

"Elmwood," the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, was the scene of a most beautiful wedding at high noon Thursday. The contracting parties being Miss Mattie Davis, one of Mr. and Mrs. Davis' attractive and accomplished daughters, and Mr. Andrew Eliason, book-keeper in the Pells Hardware Co., of Wilmington. The home transformed into a scene of tropical grandeur by artistic hands, on all sides could be seen palms, ferns and blooming plants.

The bride was handsomely attired in white peau-de-cygne, with lace trimmings and carried a large bouquet of bride's rose. Her maid of honor, Miss Emma Davis wore pink brocaded silk, with tulle trimmings and carried sweet peas and smilax. The ribbon girls were dainty little Misses Dorothy Medders and Florence Harper who wore white swiss dresses and looked as cute as fairies. Miss Maude Newnam, of Baltimore, played the wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn. A pleasing innovation was introduced in the beautiful singing of the wedding march by Miss Helen Harper, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ushers were Messrs. Walter Davis and Morris Eliason, while Mr. Henry Davis, the bride's brother, was best man. These wore frock coats and gray trousers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. S. Holt, of Still Pond. The bride's going-away dress was of champagne colored voile, with silk lace trimmings, with a most becoming hat.

After the wedding a most elegant breakfast was served by Caterer Stevenson, of Smyrna, after which the bridal couple left on the train for their home in Wilmington.

Among the large number present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Eliason, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Eliason, Miss Blanche and Lydia Eliason, Mr. and Mrs. J. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Eliason, Mrs. Mary Eliason, James Eliason, Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gray, Dudley Gray, Mrs. A. S. Truax, Wm. D. Clark, Misses Katharine and Mary Truax, Helen Cochran, Louise McDarrell, Mary Rothell, Mrs. Mary Sanborn, Mrs. John Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, Dr. Walter Grier, Miss Helen Richards, all of Delaware; Senator and Mrs. Foxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Parrott, Rev. R. S. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. William Medders Mr. and Mrs. John M. Toulson, Mrs. C. H. Price, Mrs. Lavina Harper, Mrs. A. Hendrickson, Mrs. Clara Perkins, Messrs. W. Ambrose Carroll, Harry Hendrickson, Howard Turner, Charles Watts and others. The presents were numerous and beautiful.
