MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY

INTERNATIONAL TAILORING STANDS HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE EVERY OTHER KIND

The wearer of MOODY & LUSBY CLOTHES always stands out from his fellow men, his style is faultless his fit perfect, his appearance smart and swagger. Yet his dress costs him no more than if he wore the ill fitting, poorly made kind.

Our Spring Suits

are all ready for you.

The new styles are very handsome—more attractive than usual, we think—and you know from long trading here that this store always gives its patrons the best at fair and satisfactory prices.

The Shapes Are Such That Most Any Man Can Be Perfectly Fitted Here

as the Lord made some men slimmer than they really ought to be, or taller, or shorter, or stouter, or both slimmer and taller, slimmer and shorter, stouter and taller, or shorter and stouter. Nevertheless the man who's built in an unusal sort of way doesn't feel like accepting his proportions as an excuse for ill-fitting garments.

Come In And Let Us Show You How We Can Fit You and the cost will be an agreeable surprise for our large output enables us to submit prices materially under smaller dealers. EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN OUR ESTABLISHMENT IS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES, which makes trading here very satisfactory and an assurance of no partiality. Come look the line over while the assortment is complete.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

THE 17-year locusts are due this year.

THE 5-year-old son of Mr. John Palmatory, of College avenue, Chestertown, fell from a shed Tuesday and broke his arm.

THE sale of some fine Kent farms are anticipated in June.

A WHITE ROBIN was seen in Mr. Alfred Wilson's orchards in Piney Neck this week.

GEORGE BECK, of Broad Neck, shipped 40 bunches of asparagus to Baltimore Monday.

A. S. CRAWFORD has 29 lambs from 15 ewes!

THE Emma A. Ford arrived at Chestertown Saturday after having undergone extensive repairs and changes. Capt. Wm. Taylor was at the wheel.

WORK was begun Wednesday on Prof. Edw. J. Clarke's new house on Washington avenue.

C. W. COPPER, the up-town butcher, installed a large cold-storage refrigerator in his shop the capacity of which is 4 beeves besides calves, lambs, etc., it will hold 1800 pounds of ice.

THE high wind of Monday and Tuesday did considerable damage to the nets on Chesapeake Bay. Capt. Tarbutton says it was about as rough at the head of the bay as he ever saw it!

W. S. CARROLL is erecting a new building for Mr. Joseph E. Weer, the hustling merchant and postmaster of Kennedyville. The upper story will be fitted up as a hall and this town provided with a place for holding entertainments, festivals, etc. The lower room will be used as a store and postoffice.

THE temperance cause has won signal victories in the town elections at Delmar and Laurel both towns having gone "dry" at town elections. The situation at Delmar was peculiar. The town is equally located in Delaware and Maryland, prohibition ruling in the latter section. J. R. Veasey, a prominent hotel owner, beleiving the election would go "wet" and fitted up his place handsomely in anticipation thereof. The election resulted otherwise, however, although two preachers lined up with the "drinkers." The Laurel election resulted: "dry," 236; "wet," 184. The six saloons in that place will close for the year beginning May 1.

THE steamer Queen Anne which formerly ran on the Love Point route has been sold to Washington parties for $55,000.

MESSRS. GRIFFITH & TURNER, the reliable seed and farm supply house of Baltimore, have presented the Chestertown Ladies Improvement Association with a quantity of their spraying mixture for the park trees.

THE assessors of personal property in Kent will begin work on Monday in all sections of the county.

A CARRIER PIGEON flew into the kitchen of Mr. Mose Meekins, near Hanesville, this week. The ring on its leg was marked "L. 9726."

THE "New Howard Hotel," in Baltimore was formally opened this week. Mr. Harry Busick, a Kent county boy, is manager and will be glad to see his county friends.

RECEPTION AT "STERLINGFORD."

The beautiful country home "Sterlingford," of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hooper Klinefelter, near Chester bridge, has been the scene of a week of pleasant companies in celebration of the former's 14th wedding anniversary. As announced in the NEWS last week a house party was held from Thursday until Monday, the following guests being present: Charles H. Parish and wife, Cecil E. Rice and wife, William R. Kennedy and wife, Mrs. Albert C. Ford, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. Joel R. Clements, Mrs. H. B. Simmons and Mrs. W. Irving Walker, of Chestertown.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Lambert's Riverside Hotel.—Mr. H. L. Skipper, who recently purchased the Wright property in Queen Anne's at foot of Chester bridge has leased same to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lambert for "Lambert's Riverside Hotel." Contracts have been let to Duyer Bros., extensive improvements such as a Mansard roof on house, new kitchen, porches, bath houses, etc., same to be completed by June 1st. The reputation of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lambert is a guarantee that this new project will be a success and that it will be properly managed. Mr. George E. Lambert, Jr., will continue in charge of the Voshell House.

Will Filed.—The will of the late Mrs. S. Louise Beeks was filed in the orphans' Court for Kent County Tuesday. John D. Urie, Esq., is named as executor. The farm "Coldbrook Vale," Still Pond, was devised to her neice, Mrs. Gertrude Ewell, during her life time and afterward to her children; personality of about $2,000 was left to her sisters, Annie E. Townsend and Laura Ruth, other bequests were made to Lillie I. Pearson, Lou Beeks Goff and others.

FAIRLEE ITEMS.

Honor to whom honor is due, and it is due Mr. George Faulkner, for the fine manner in which he has fixed our roads through the village which shows that he is an expert at road shaping and mending.

The trim little driver belonging to Rev. J. K. Easley trotted away last Sunday, leaving his owner on terra firma, when it was his intention to have been in the carriage enroute to Worton to fill his appointment at Union at 3 o'clock. The horse was caught at Battle Shell Hill without any damage having been done.

The heavy wind and cold wave of last Monday and Tuesday is almost unprecedented. The Tolchester steamer was not able to make her wharf at Tolchester either day. The fishermen suffered loss to their nets. For several days they were unable to fish their nets.

Mr. A. P. Emerson was in Fairlee on Tuesday, and brought down from Betterton, three passengers that were landed there by the Tolchester steamer, which was not able to land at the Beach which was their destination.

Our people are ready to have their personal property assessed. When will the assessors be around?

A little asparagus is being sent to market, it is bringing fancy prices. Quite a number around are setting out new patches.

The farmers are very much pleased with the way their lambs are growing. Sheep shearing is now in order, Mr. H. N. Greenwood is well versed in the business receiving daily engagements from many quarters.
