Friday 8th Nov. 1811

Jack Pompey Charles at Sunday Jobs the day being partly wet, Owen levelling joices H. A. Haynes came at 1/2 past 8 worked till half past 11 was then idle till 1/2 past 1 he worked from thence till evening, and from N. Smith go Barrel Cu

Saturday 9

All hands employed in carrying the Logs to the Squares, also A Haynes

Monday 11th

Jack at Sunday Jobs Pompey Charles & J. Justice digging Potatoes, A. Haynes came at 12 O'Clock he Owen employed in getting Rafters &c

Tuesday 12th

Jack Grubbing in the Meadow & going to Foulest for the Woollen Cloth, the rest at the Potatoes H. A. Haynes & Owen getting & putting up the Rafters

Wednesday 13 Nov. 1811

Jack at Sunday Jobs, J. Justice, Pompey, Charles Johnson finished digging Potatoes Charles & I went to Falmouth Afternoon, the rest picking Potatoes, brought away the Horse from Mr. Cox, I get home farther than Mazenbeg's Night coming on —

Thursday 14th

All hands employed in Sunday Jobs, Jack picking Potatoes, Grubbing, Fencing &c. &c. Charles & I brought home Horse from Mr. Cox in the morning, Owen boarding the Gable end of the new House —

Friday 15th

Killed a Hog in the morning Wt. 168.. Charles took a Log for Laths to the Mill & afterwards Grubbed, Pompey Making Fence & Mauling Rails, Jack Grubbing & doing Sunday Jobs, Jno. Justice wheeling Earth into the Yard &c. Owen & I boarding the Gable end & Chinking the Windows &c —