Monday 25th Nov. 1811

Hard Frost last night Jack at Sunday Jobs Pompey Mauling Rails, Charles went for Brick & in the Evening helped Owen with the Letting Logs Straight, Mr Junkin Jobing, Owen about till about 11 O'Clock afterwards fitting up Logs a fine clear day & Cold throughout

Tuesday 26th Nov.

Hard Frost last night Jack went to Mr Caughi for his Daughter, Charles bro.t the Ann.s of a Thousand of Brick Fenced in the evening, Pompey fencing Mr. Junkin helping Owen to fill up Logs clear & Cold all day

Wedy. 27th

Frost harder than usual last night; Jack returned with his daughter Bet, Pompey Charles, Mr. Junkin & I employed Mauling Hauling fire wood & fencing, Owen making window Frames, fine weather all day

Thursday 28th

Very little frost last night all hands killing a Cow making fences, & Jobing, Owen making window Frames, Mild & dry all day

Friday 29th Nov.r 1811

A little rain last night. All hands employed fencing & Jobing in the evening Jack went to the Forks of the Road with a Ride, Charles to the Mill with Corn, Owen fitting in Window Frames, Constant rain from one O'Clock

Saturday 30th

Last night Mild, Jack employed jobing Charles Pompey & Mr Junkin employed in fencing & putting up a Straw Rack Owen fitting in window Frames

2½ d.

Sunday 1st Dec.r

Betty Ritchey took her departure about half past 8 O'Clock P.M. it being a fine Moon light night, I went in quest of her but could not find her

Monday 2

Hard frost last night, Pompey employed fencing, Charles Hauling Lumber, Jack & Mr Junkin employed at Sunday Jobs, I went to the Forks in quest of a Mason, & nearly to the Sulphur Springs of Jenny, I heard of her being there but saw her not, I advertised a reward of three Dollars for her apprehension a fine day, Owen at the Windows fram