RIGHT IN IT!

GET IN THE RING.

We are now ready for the Spring and Summer with the best line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children that we've ever had, and to the few who do not know about the superiority of our Clothing we say, GET IN THE RING! A suit from us will cost you perhaps a trifle less than if bought elsewhere; it will fit you better, and retain that same style and shape that you pay double the price for at the tailor shop. Grays are the leading shades this season—a very serviceable color, too—and we have plenty of them to show you. Our line of Spring Trowsers for Men and Boys is up to its old-time standard—the best and largest in town.

Hats and Caps—we have hats for particular men—men who are hard to suit—because we have them in all shapes and styles. Derbys, Slouches, Crushes and Straws, in all the latest shades and patterns.

If you want the best half hose on earth, we sell the interwoven heel and toe that wear just twice as long as any ordinary hose. We have the sole right to sell this hose in Chestertown.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

An Innovation in the Quiet of the Sabbath Day in Chestertown Proposed.

A change in the train schedule of the P. B. & W. and Delaware Railroad will take place on Sunday May 27th. Supt. Hollyday was in Chestertown Tuesday and made this statement.

Passenger trains will be run on the Delaware road on Sundays on and after that date and will also extend to the branch roads. The time of the latter will be announced later.

Mr. Hollyday promises to give the people of Kent county a daily freight train so that the passenger travel will thereby be better accommodated. It is gratifying to the NEWS to have our efforts in this direction rewarded.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER.

John B. Lane, of Kent County, Arraigned for Murder of Jos. R. Price on Kent Island.

John Blanchard Lane was arraigned at Centreville Wednesday before Judges Martin and Crothers for the murder of Joseph R Price, of Kent Island, on December 6, 1905. Lane's parents live near Hanesville, this county. He is about 5 feet 10 inches tall, with broad shoulders and clear cut features, he is 24 years old and is a fine specimen of physical manhood.

The homicide was the result of a quarrel. Lane rented some land from Mr. Price and had gone to the field on Mr. Price's farm to look his corn. Mr. Price was also in the field loading corn fodder. Just as Mr. Lane was leaving the field a quarrel began, which resulted in Mr. Lane striking Mr. Price on the head with a sassafras stick about two and one-half feet long which felled him to the earth and, it is charged, caused his death. Mr. Lane drove to his home with the corn, unloaded it and told his family what had occurred. He then went to magistrate John O. Phillips and gave himself up. A search was made for Mr. Price and he was found where the trouble occurred. The case is attracting intense interest on the Eastern Shore. There were about 50 witnesses. The jury yesterday acquitted him.

SET HOUSE ON FIRE.

Ex-Senator Hepbron's Servant Sets Fire to Bed and His Wife Makes Narrow Escape —Placed in Jail at Chestertown.

Bertha Green, a 12-year-old colored girl, was brought to Chestertown jail this week charged with setting fire to the home of ex-Senator W. T. Hepbron, near Kennedyville. Fire Marshal Lloyd T. MacGill and Detective James Dick were notified of the occurrence and on Sunday arrived at the home of Mr. Hepbron. The Senator told them the story. He and his family had been much alarmed when a fire originated in a wardrobe on the upper floor of the house. The flames were extinguished and were attributed to mice, it being thought that they chewed some matches.

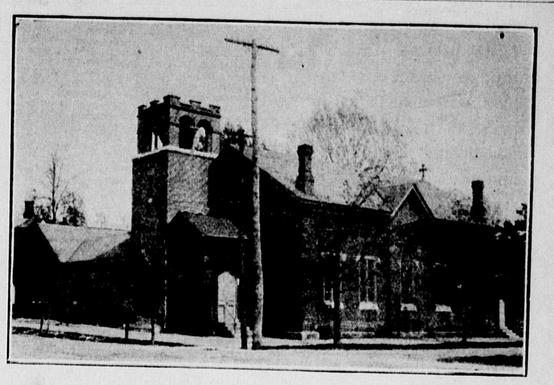

About 9 o'clock at night Mr. Hepbron was awakened by a choking sensation and discovered that his room was filled with smoke. He got out of bed and discovered that the sheets on his wife's bed were afire. The other inmates of the house—the daughter and son-in-law of the Senator—were aroused and the flames were extinguished.

The excitement was just subsiding when it was found that the porch of the house was afire. A bucket brigade was formed, and this blaze was extinguished. Finally the family retired. On the following morning Bertha, who slept in the house, was suspected and was discharged.

Mr. MacGill and Detective Dick started out to look for Bertha, and the detective passed himself off as a census taker. In that manner he got into the home of Bertha's mother and finally got the child alone. He took her back to Senator Hepbron's house and after a severe cross-questioning she is said to have admitted setting fire to the bed.

According to Detective Dick, the girl said she took the chimney from a coal-oil lamp and entered the room while the Senator and his invalid wife were sleeping and set fire to the bed clothing. She admitted, the detective said, that she had helped kindle the fire under the porch. She implicated a young negro in that case, but the man established a strong alibi.

The detective said it was a simple case of degeneracy upon the part of the child, as she could not give any reason for her actions. She now stands committed for court.

A BIG SUCCESS.

Flag Festival and Bazar Held in Stam's Hall Baby Show a Drawing Card—The Flag Drill.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season has been the flag festival and bazar held in Stam's Hall under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The construction and decoration of the various booths are works of art and evidence the fact that Chestertown ladies cannot be surpassed in taste and beauty. Not only were the booths appropiately arranged and decorated but the ladies in charge looked specially attractive and bewitching in their native garbs. Each booth represented a nation and had on sale some special article or delicacy as follows:

Italy—Fruits, flowers, etc., Mrs. Clara Perkins, Misses Hallie Toulson, Mable Toulson and Burtie Burchinal.

Japan—Tea room, Misses Anna Lambert, Anna Brown, Mrs. T. W. Eliason, Mrs. Dr. S. E. Ford, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Miriam Leaverton, Mrs. W. L. White.

Holland—Cake, Mrs. A. P. Matthews, Mrs. W. E. Moody, Mrs. E. Ringgold, Miss Nannie Bordley, Mrs. George Rouse.

United States—Fancy work, Mrs. H. Klinefelter, Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley, Miss Bessie Stuart.

Mexico—Ice cream, Mrs. W. C. Peregoy, Mrs. Hummer, Mrs. A. L. Davidson, Miss Ethel Coleman, Miss Emma Davis.

Alaska—Klondike, Mrs. Fred H. Russell, Misses Maud Kemp, Ella Wilkins, Mrs. Frank Jarrell, Mrs. Fred S. Russell, Mrs. Carmine.

Switzerland—Doll exhibit, Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Mrs. J. R. Clements, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Miss Fannie Stewart, Miss Nettie Gooding.

France—Candy, Mrs. R. I. Walker, Misses Idel Baker, Irma Eliason, Anne B. Smith, Rebecca Eliason, Mary Fleming.

A splendid supper was given last night, under the skilful management of Mrs. M. A. Toulson and Mrs. Thos. S. Bordley. The tables were presided over by Mrs. J. D. Kemp, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. R. F. Parks, Mrs. J. T. Anthony, Mrs. H. W. Vickers, Mrs. J. R. Clements, Mrs. W. E. Jarrell, Miss Wilkins.

A flag drill by 53 children and Japanese quintet from the public school was given to the delight of a large audience, Misses Anna Lambert and Mable Toulson being in charge of same.

The Baby Show.

Among the interesting exhibits was the doll show the "lecturers" being experts in explaining the special attractions and history of the celebrities. Among the veteran babies were the following: Mary Slaughter, aged 52, exhibited by Mrs. J. G. Beck; Sylvia Hyland's "Fannie" aged 47; Wilhelmina T. Nicholson's doll aged 60, contributed by Mrs. J. D. Kemp; Mrs. Thos. D. France's "May Louisa," aged 43; Susan Denning, aged 70, belonging to Mrs. W. J. Vannort; Mrs. Mary Aldridge's doll aged 38; Margaret Brinsfield's aged 42; Mrs. Welch's aged 35; Estelina Derringer's clothes pin babies were a novelty; Miss Blackiston contributed a doll said to be 90 years old; "Betsy Ross," of Phila., owned by Francis Miller; Ida and Mary Smith, Mary Baker Covey, Florence Roland, Edith Dunbracco, Elsie Whiteley, Laura Smith, Church Hill, Mrs. Hiram Brown, New York, and others contributed beautiful dolls; Emily Ford had a doll 28 years old, which has had two faces; Ellen Beck contributed her family of dolls with nurses, etc. Mrs. A. N. Ebaugh's dolls with wardrobe proved specially interesting to her former pupils here; a well-known young lady sent her dolls but seemed to be ashamed to have her name mentioned so that they were very properly labeled "abandoned for other pleasures;" Miss Scoone sent a doll 45 years old and a host of others were also exhibited by the fond owners.

The contestants in the real baby show were as follows: Ralph Coleman, Bessie Duyer, Mabel Levine, Roger Ivins, John Evans Townshend, Julia Newnam, Cora Reed McWhorter, Richard Floyd Connelly, Dorothy Woodall, Harding Taylor, Virginia Nicholson.

The winners were Virginia Nicholson, smallest; Mabel Levine, happiest; Roger Ivens, of Worton, largest, 1 year old, Ralph Coleman and Bessie Duyer, 2 years old. All were given dolls as mementoes of the occasion by Mr. L. B. Russell on behalf of the committee.

Master Richard Merritt Twilley made an ideal Uncle Sam and Miss Emily Ford represented Miss Columbia in unique style. These two at either side of the U. S. table. Little Miss Helen Rouse was the living doll at the Switzerland booth and was "just too cute for anything."

The receipts will likely be over $250.

A CITIZEN said in this office this week "that he was truly thankful for bread and meat and other things to eat, but he felt like repeating the Litany several times daily, as his folks were now done housecleaning, and he hoped by the close of the week to be thoroughly satisfied that he knew where he was at."
