Eminent Doctors Praise its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Lockjaw Cure.—Almost constantly at every little interval we are reading of some one dying of lockjaw from running a rusty nail in the foot. Wormwood would save such an one every time. If you have not wormwood in your garden, by all means get it and plant it. Put it in a boiler of water and let it boil. Soak the foot in it hot as bearable, and it will get well. It costs nothing, and you may repeat it many times, the oftener the better, and be sure of relief. We have seen it tried repeatedly. It is an old-time remedy, and has worked in extreme cases in our own experince. There is an antidote in the bitter herb to extract the poison from the wound.

The Oldest Horse.—On May 6th the sorrell horse owned by Joseph Guest, of Chestertown, was 37 years old, and it is doubtful if a fatter horse can be found in the State. He was foaled May 6th 1869 and owned by the late Thomas Vandyke, of near Cecilton, when he was 6 years old, Mr. Vandyke being an enthusiastic supporter of Samuel J. Tilden then a candidate for president of United States in the Democratic party, drove him to Middletown, Del., to obtain the news of the nomination of the Convention there in session and did receive the news that Tilden was nominated. Mr. Vandyke scratched the name of Dexter in his stock book and substituted the name of Sam'l J. Tilden for this horse; all Cecil coantians know him by Tilden. During the campaign of Cleveland and Blain, Hon. Stephenson Archer, chairmen of Democratic Central Committe of Maryland, knowing this horse and his pedigree asked for one of his old shoes of Mr. Guest off of Samuel J. Tilden. Mr. G. goldbronzed one shoe and forwarded it to Hon. Stevenson Archer, to Barnum hotel attached to tri-colored ribbons of national colors and it was hung up in Mr. Archer's private office. Later in the campaign of 1875, through Mr. Archer, came requests of three other Democratic State Chairman for a shoe from this horse. The old horse seems in perfect health and limbs straight and sound.

GIFTS TO JOCKEYS.

Queer Rewards and Reminders That Come to the Riders.

One of the greatest of living jockeys has a most remarkable collection of tributes from admirers, unknown and otherwise. It contains, among other strange things, pawn tickets, writs and summonses contributed by unsuccessful backers of his mounts, talismans of all kinds to bring him luck in his races, sermons and tracts for his spiritual welfare, recipes for all kinds of ailments, from coughs to a tendency to corpulence, forms for insuring against accidents, offers of marriage, accompanied by bundles of photographs of would be wives, welshers' tickets and a pair of wornout boots with the legend: "All that is left of them after walking from York to London. Backed all your mounts."

A few years ago, after his horse had lost an important race, a well known turfman went up to the jockey and made him a formal and public presentation of a silver snuffbox, saying that if he would look inside he would see the kind of horse he ought to ride in future. The jockey opened the box and found in it half a dozen fat snails. It was the same satirical owner who on another occasion presented his jockey with a sumptuous casket, which on being opened disclosed a wooden spoon, and to a third jockey who had failed to win an important race he handed a pair of crutches bought from a beggar on the course.

When John Singleton, a clever jockey of nearly two centuries ago, first won a race in Yorkshire the farmer whose horse he had ridden to victory was so delighted with his achievement that he made him a present of a ewe, whose offspring soon mustered a round dozen, and really started the ex-shepherd lad on his career as a jockey. Singleton was very proud of and grateful for his singular fee.

In this respect he furnished a great contrast to a well known jockey who when a check for $1,500 was handed to him by the owner of a horse on which he had won a race crumpled it up contemptuously, with the remark that he had "often received more for riding a two-year-old."—Chicago News.

Henry C. Stephens, Peter Stevens, Benjamin F. Stevens, Annie Magee, Richard Magee, her husband,
Mary E. Pearson, —— Pearson, her husband, John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens, Michael Stevens.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree of this Honorable Court for the sale of the real estate of John Stevens, deceased, and to divide the proceeds among the heirs-at-law.

The Bill states that a certain John Stevens, late of Queen Anne's county, deceased, was in his lifetime seized and possessed of certain valuable real estate in Kent county, Maryland, consisting of a farm situated in the First Election District of Kent county, and also a lot of land situated in the town of Millington, in said county; and being so seized and possessed departed this life some time in the year 1906 intestate, leaving a widow, Ida Stevens, and your orators, Henry C. Stevens, Peter Stevens, Benjamin F. Stevens, Annie Magee, and the defendants, Mary E. Pearson, of the State of Delaware, John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens and Michael Stevens, his only children and heirs at-law; and the said John W. Stevens, Frank W. Stevens, Elizabeth F. Stevens, George W. Stevens and Michael Stevens are infants, under the age of twenty one years, and all reside in Queen Anne's county, Maryland.

And the Bill states that the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated, and that in order to make a division of said interests, it will be necessary that the said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests.

It is, therefore, this 25th day of April, 1906, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, that the Plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of May next, giving notice to Mary E. Pearson and —— Pearson, her husband, of the State of Delaware, and non-residents of the State of Maryland, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning them to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of June next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
