SATURDAY, - - - - MAY 12, 1906

THE inauguration of Sunday trains to Chestertown will not in any way help the moral tone of our community.

THE President in his back-down on the railroad rate bill has surrendered to the trusts and greatly dissappointed his friends.

THE Republicans derided Bryan and his platform but in nearly all of Roosevelt's recommendations lately he has followed this noted statesman's example. Striking cartoons are being published showing Roosevelt stealing from Bryan's store of ideas and principals.

THERE will be no coal strike. The coal miners have decided to give up their demand for additional concessions from the operators of the mines and to enter into an agreement that the award of the Roosevelt commission of 1903 should remain in force for another three years. It is said that prices will be reduced but little to the consumer.

You can help to keep our town clean and tidy by not throwing scraps or large pieces of paper on the pavements or streets to be driven here and there by every puff of wind, besides serious accidents occur by paper being blown into the face of horses. Banana and orange skins and peanut hulls are not ornamental nor conducive to good walking, as they frequently cause severe sprains. The Commissioners can help by placing receptacles at corners for waste paper, and other things.

FISHERMEN IN HARD LUCK.

THE shad fishermen of Tolchester and Betterton state that this has been a dull season. The total catch at Betterton Tuesday night would not supply this town. A special from Havre de Grace states that the shad and herring season so far at that point has been almost a total failure. There has been practically no catch of shad, and it is now past the height of the season. Compared with former years, those interested have been thoroughly disappointed with the prospect for anything like a successful season. At the best the season will be very short, and the only redeeming features are the good prices that have prevailed.

The season on the Potomac has not been much better. In the last few days hauls have been made but few shad have been caught. Fishermen on this river are hopeful for the coming week, as, in their minds, the heavy down winds have held back the fish. In one haul last Satnaday on the Potomac but one shad was caught with two scow loads of herring.

The herring industry of Havre de Grace, which most of the larger fishermen depend upon, has been very poor and irregular, and, with the exception of one or two places there, few herring are being caught. The pack, as compared with last year, is not more than one-half. With an average season there are packed at this point between 30,000 and 40,000 barrels of salted fish, and it is safe to say that, up to this time, 10,000 barrels will cover the entire pack at the head of the Chesapeake Bay.

With these conditions existing packers are loath to offer their fish and are expecting high prices.

The fish Commission in their operations at the Battery Fish-hatching Station, on the Susquehanna, have accomplished nothing toward the hatching of shad fry on account of the continued cold weather. The temperature of the water is yet too low for the shad to come on the spawning grounds. Superintendent J. J. Glennon, of the station, however, reports some successful work in the propagation of yellow and white perch, which fish spawn much earlier than shad. The season for this character of work has about ceased, and so far there has been developed and distributed 93,000,000 yellow perch and 50,000,000 white perch.

THE simultaneous raids in New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Del., and Gloucester, N. J., on the headquarters of the Honduras lottery, the continuation of the Louisiana lottery, Tuesday, implicates many prominent business men and has struck a hard blow at the lottery concern, which may eventually be put out of business. Hundreds of arrests are to follow the raids. A warrant has been issued, among others, for the arrest of John M. Rogers, president of the John M. Rogers Press Company, of Wilmington, where two tons of lottery tickets were found.

THE NEW OYSTER LAW.

County Commissioners of Kent Will Name an Assistant at $5 per Day to Help Survey Beds.

Dr. Caswell Grave, who is the scientist on the oyster commission says, "Two important questions face the Commission now." The first will be the selection of the hydrographic engineer to direct the survey of the bay. Another question, and one that will be very hard to answer, is 'What constitutes a natural bed?' Hardly two men in a thousand would give the same definition.

"The first step after the Commission organizes will be the survey. This, I should judge, would require two years' work. The bay is to be mapped out and the beds which are to be open to oystermen and those which are to be devoted to oyster culture shall be marked by buoys. But the Commission need not wait until the survey is completed to begin the leasing of bottoms. Parts of the survey should be in shape this summer.

"To secure the passage of an oyster law it was necessary to conciliate this interest here and this interest there. So this is really just a beginning. The future, which is rich in promise, will depend naturally upon the start we make. The immediate problem, therefore, is to start right."

Each Oyster County To Name A Man.

The bay will be surveyed county by county. The oyster bill provides that a special Commissioner to assist the Shell Fish Commission shall be appointed by the County Commissioners of each of the tidewater counties. These special Commissioners are to receive $5 a day from the State, but they are to be paid only while actually employed.

The survey will be directly under the hydrographic engineer to be appointed by the Shell Fish Commission. This office has a salary of $2500, and it is not necessary that the incumbent shall be a resident of Maryland. The Commission has a free hand to select the best available man for the place.

The United States Coast Survey is to work in connection with the Commission, and it is supposed that the Government will furnish the boat. When a part of the bay is to be surveyed the special Commissioner appointed by the adjoining county is to work hand-in-hand with the surveyors.

Maps of the survey are to be made for each county, and these are to be kept at the headquarters of the Shell Fish Commission, which will be at Annapolis. The Commission is authorized to employ a chief clerk or secretary, and three additional clerks, if necessary.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

What is "Doing" Among Your Friends and Acquaintances in Kent and Elsewhere.

Miss Anna Minner will spend a few days with her parents near town. She is accompanied by her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Shahan and little daughter, Doris, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Minner.

Dr. Page Strong, of Baltimore, is at home for a vacation.

Mr. Wm. S McDonnell entertained his sister, Miss Maggie McDonnell, of Wilmington, several days last week at the Hotel Imperial.

Mr. J. Charles Wheatley, of Annapolis, spent several days in town this week.

Rev. J. L. Elderdice, a former pastor of Wesley Chapel, and wife are visiting relatives near Rock Hall.

Miss Anna Sappington, of Washington, has been visiting her parents here

Miss Laura Thomas is able to be out again to the delight of her many friends.

Mr. Wm. Ford, superintendent of the county home, is extremely ill.

Mr. Harry B. Rote, jeweler, has removed from up-town to the store adjoining W. A. Carroll, second door above postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. John Masten, of Harrington, spent Sunday with the bride's mother, Mrs. Jonathan Anthony, High street.

Miss Eunice Taylor, of Baltimore, is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Lambert on Mill street.

Mrs. Martha Gould, of Church Hill, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Baker.

Rev. R. S. Rowe and family are making their home in Baltimore at 1160 East North avenue.

Mrs. W. L. White has received letters from her brothers, Messrs. George and Charles Fisher, of San Francisco, giving assurance of their safety. The Messrs. Fisher give a graphic description of the catastrophe and state that their own hair was turned white by the horror.

Mr. Harry W. Rickey, of Phila., is spending several weeks with his uncle, Mr. Charles Strong, near Rock Hall, and regaining his impaired health.

Mr. Richard F. Moffett will celebrate his 80th birthday to-morrow. He is one of Worton's active citizens and takes an interest in all county affairs. He is a rival to Mr. J. W. Crew. May he live to enjoy many more years of health.

Miss Munnikhuysen, of Belair, Md., is the guest of Mrs. J. Roy Micou, Washington College.

KEIFER PEAR CROP DAMAGED.

The Keifer pear crop in Delaware, for the current year, is believed to be a failure. In some sections of the State there may be an exception, but as a rule, the fruit will be very scarce. The buds have begun to fall from the trees and the ground in many of the orchards is literally covered with dead blossoms, while many trees appeared to be stripped entirely. The late frost in April is believed to have caused the trouble, but so far as is known, nothing was damaged in the slightest degree, except the Keifer pear, and it was so badly damaged that from present indications there will be only a fraction of a crop. The Keifer pear crop is a large item to many of the Delaware farmers, some of whom have many acres in pear trees, and to these farmers the killing of the buds will mean a heavy loss.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev J. W. Parris will preach at St. James Sunday at 10 30 a. m. and Lynchs at 3 p. m. Rev. J. M. Sheridan will occupy the pulpit and preach at Wesley Chapel 10.30 a. m. and Kesleys 3 p. m.

WEDDING EVENTS.

The marriage Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, in Philadelphia, of Jacob W. Goodman, a prominent business man of Dover, and Miss Augusta Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Friedman, was one of the interesting events of the season. The bride is a graduate of the Wilmington Conference Academy where she studied music for several years and became, also a finished pianiste.

The wedding took place at the parochial residence of Rev. Henry Berkawitz, D. D. The bride was attired in a fine traveling costume, and was unattended. Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding party proceeded to the Bellevue-Stratford where a wedding breakfast was served in the women's dining-room. On an afternoon train, the young couple left for a tour of various Eastern and Northern cities and resorts, but will return to Dover about May 22 when a reception will be tendered them at the residence of the bride's parents on the evening of the 22nd. Mr. and Mrs. Goodman will reside on Bradford street in one of the new residences of the row now being constructed there by Mr. Friedman. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman will occupy the second of the residences.

Mr. James G. Greet and Mrs. Eli Biggs, of Baltimore, were married at the residence of his daughter Mrs. J. C. Zeidler, Washington, D. C., Sunday, April 29th, by Rev. George Bacon, of Duglas M. E. church, Washington. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Panell, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Zeidler, the four year old daughter of bride, Miss Grace Greet, James Greet, Wm. F. Zeidler and many friends, the ceremony was followed by a reception after which supper was served. The following day the bride and groom was shown the many interesting views of the National Capital. After which they returned to their former home of Baltimore, where they received many congratulations and a large reception given to them by their many relatives of that city.

Married at the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, on Wednesday evening last, by Rev. W. L. White, James H. Maul and Miss Mollie Pleasanton, both of Chestertown.

LOCUSTS NOT DUE THIS YEAR

Scientist Says 17-Year Species Will Reappear in 1919.

Referring to inquiries in regard to the reappearance of locusts in Maryland, Dr. Caswell Grave associate in zoology at the John's Hopkins University, said yesterday:

"The cicade, or, as it is commonly called, the locust, is generally known in this country, owing to the great numbers in which it appears at long intervals of time. This periodical appearance is due to the long time required for the nymphs to obtain their growth—either 17 or 13 years—and to the fact that all the members of one generation appear in the adult state at about the same time. The 17-year species will be seen here again 1919.

"The eggs hatch in about six weeks. The young nymphs, finding no attraction in a world of sunshine and flowers, drop to the ground and bury themselves in the earth, thus beginning a voluntary seclusion which lasts for years. They live by sucking the juices from the roots of trees. In May of the seventeenth year after the retirement to their earthly cloisters they crawl up to the surface of the ground and, leaving their nymph skins clinging to the tree trunks, come forth well fitted to get all the experience of a live world.

"In the South these insects live only 13 years under the ground, but in the North it requires 17 years for a locust to reach maturity.

"There is a common species of cicada, known as the dogday harvest fly, which requires only two years for its development, and as there are two broods of this species the adults appear every year. Its song is the sharp, high trill that comes to us at noontime in midsummer from the depths of trees where the singer is hidden amid the foliage all unconscious that its shrill note has for centuries been a theme for poets."

"UNCLE RUBE," a comedy drama, will be given in Stam's Hall next Friday by Centreville talent under the direction of Prof. C. W. Hunter.

Perfect Planting Makes a Perfect Stand

To have these means to use a planter that works perfectly. We know we are offering such a planter in the Bradley No. 1 Force Drop.

The drop is accurate—any desired number of kernels can be dropped in a hill—special plates being furnished for that purpose, when desired. It is the only planter that has a plunger in the feed tube, which forces the corn out of the tube so that clogging and consequent failure to drop correctly is impossible. Fast driving does not scatter the corn, because the boot is so constructed that a reserve hill-deposit is always held two inches from the mouth of the boot. In other makes of planters, on account of falling 12 or more inches, the corn scatters at the least variance of the speed of team. Plates can be changed without removing the seed—the tip-box making this possible. No more tired arms, nor blistered hands from releasing check wire—Automatic Check-wire Release does away with this. The Bradley No. 1 is the favorite in all sections. Call and see it. It costs nothing to examine it, and we are glad to answer all questions. Come in and give us your opinion.
