Thursday 19th Nov. 1812

Charles, Jack & Pat with 3 Chears from Luke, & 3 from Sr Marden at potatoes from 10 till 4 o'clock Pompey & Jno Luke Thrashing Rye, a cold blowing day —

Friday 20

Charles at Sundays & stacked the last of the Potatoes, Pompey & Jno Luke Thrashing Rye, Solomon Machin from Dinner taking up a Cow Crack his little daughter pulling Potatoes, Hickman at Sundays, a cold blowing day day —

Saturday 21

Charles hauling Wood, Carts & Pompey & Jno Luke Thrashing Rye, Jack at Sundays Hickman finished ashing the Shade, in the Evening put up Cabbages, Carts & Turnips a fine cool Calm day Frost yesterday I got a strong Raw with my Ears the I fear hardened on me — A very hard Frost last night. all hands putting in Turnips Rye & 15 Ten of oats Pompey & Jno Luke Thrashing Rye, Ch. Harding Chopped Posts & Rails & Mr. & Mrs. & Jno. Luke Cutting, Jack at Sundays. Hickman at

Monday 23

Tuesday 24th Nov. 1812

Pompey & Jno Luke Thrashing Rye, Charles Harding Posts & Rails, in the Evening all Luke & I at the woods cutting & hauling Rails, Jack at Sundays W. Hickman came at dinner time & put the Table together, a Mean party Cold day

Wednesday 25th

Pompey & Jno Luke finished Thrashing Rye by dinner time & in the Evening commenced cleaning, Charles Harding Firewood & Rails & Hauled 27 Bushels of Rye to D. Reports to Mow. Jack at Sundays Hickman Squaring Posts. M. Luke & S. Mowbray & their Sons came to Thatch but it was so cold they quit after Breakfast the boys went home, & they helped to Haul Rails Very cold day —

Thursday 26th

Charles hauled wood Stock to Mill 30 Bushels of Rye, Pompey & Jno Luke finished cleaning Rye by dinner & after attended M. Ds who having hurt Rails from mow, thatched in the Evening, Hickman hauling Rails a moderate day, rain in the Ev. —