Monday 7th Decr 1812

All hands employed in hauling for sheaf of Oats I put in the Lower Stack 1790, cut down the Carcass of Beef W.H. Bickman finished a Cart Gate, I Burn a Small one Pat night Thatching Oat Stack, a Gloomy day but fair

Tuesday 8th Dr

All hands employed in hauling Oats for Cattle &c. a fine clear temperate day —

Wednesday 9th

Pompey & Charles finished hauling Cart Stack. Jack & Pat letting Flax off the Grass. Colonel Monckton, Bickman & I put up 6 Panels of Post & Rail Fence, in the Evening exceedingly Cold —

Thursday 10

Jack, Pompey & Solomon Monckton employed cleaning Oats. Charles hauled to Mr. Stover 95 Bushels on Acting Capacity 150 Bushels a Raw Windy had Frost —

Friday 11

All hands employed in cleaning up Lower of Oat Stack wt Cont. 2690 Sheaves 194 Bushels about 14 to a Sh & delivd. 50 Bushels to Mr. Stover from what Lay 20 Bushels in smaller Stack, Qty 1450 Sheaves a very cold day

Saturday 12 Decr 1812

The people employed in Collecting Wood &c. &c. I went to St. Joseph & got my Man Shod

Sunday the 13th

I set out for yorke and arrived there that Evening spent Monday & Tuesday with Mr. Scantlin & Mr. Thompson set out on Wednesday Morning & arrived at home that Evening, very pleasant mild Frosty weather during my Journey During my Absence I found the Men had been employed in Hauling Wood, Hauling Oats putting in Hay & getting the Horses shod — Bickman absent the 3 days —

Thursday 14th

Pompey & Charles Hauling Oats. Jack picking Corn W. Bickman & I fixing Gates a Mild Frosty day — ~~Sheep Killed~~

Friday 15th

Pompey & Charles cleaning Oats Mr. Lutz & Solomon Monckton Killed 12 Hogs Jack attended to heat Water &c. W. Bickman at Gates &c. &c.