Tuesday 11th May 1813

I went to Mr. Hays & Mr. Scotts accompanied by Margaret. Pompey & Jack cleaned the Oats in the forenoon, & in the Evening Pompey clearing the Water Fence with Charles who was hauling Rails for the Water Dam in the forenoon. Rich all day making the Water Dam's ~~Pompey~~ Levan digging in the Garden — a fine day Mr. Hay has 15 Lambs & the P. of Peace —

Wedy. 12th

This Morning Pompey bounced bags & put up the remainder of the Oats in all. Pulled & afterward assisted Hickman at the Water Fence untill he & I went all day unblaged Charles hauled Dung on the Corn Ground Levan Barrowed, spread Dung Mr. Jack at Sundrys a fine warm day —

Thursday 13th

Charles & Levan Hauling Dung, Pompey spreading in the forenoon, & in the Evening he assisted Hickman & I to put up the Gate at the end of the Lane & the one between Jos. Peppel & Jack helping to load Dung a fine dry warm day —

Friday 14th

Charles & Levan finished hauling Dung in the forenoon Charles afterwards took the Mares to Town, Cole was covered Pompey spread Dung forenoon in the Evening Levan & he worked at the Fence next Jos Peppels Jack at Sundrys, Hickman making Rails &c. Heavy showers

Saturday 15th May 1813

Charles & Pompey & I employed forenoon altering Jos. Peppels Fence Jack & Levan picking Potatoes, in the Evening all hands at planting Corn I went to Tarry Town, Hickman at Sundry work Jobs Showery all day

Monday 17th May

Pompey & Levan at Mrs Reids planting Corn, Jack & Bet picking Stones off the Clover Charles took the Horses to be Shod, & in the Evening cut Feed, loaded the Waggon &c. say 81 Bushels of Oats, a fine day I yesterday found that two young Ewes on a half Blood had lambed a few days ago & ~~this~~ an old Ewe all Ewe Lambs

Tuesday 18

Set out to Baltimore with 81 Bushels of Oats

Wednesday 19th

Arrived there & sold them at 67½ Cents p. Bushel

Thursday 20th

Left Baltimore about 10 O'Clock & got home about 10 O'Clock & found that Hickman had been at Work preparing a Roff for the New Barn &c. yesterday & to day that Pompey was employed Scutching & Breaking Hemp &c. & that a young Ewe had lambed a Ram Lamb yesterday, fine Weather during my Journey