Friday 21st May 1813

Pompey began to wash the Sheep after breakfast Charles & Lewis Came home about 12 & after dinner he fed Pompey to finish One Old Ewe Lambed a Ram Lamb after washing Hickman at Work H. a fine day

Saturday 22

Charles, Pompey, & Lewis at hauling Dung for Potatoes, in the Evening Charles went to S. Jones & got the two Bay Mares cov.d the Gray refused, Jack went to the Mill in the Forenoon & in the Evening grubbed &c. I went to S. Jones after dinner Hickman worked at the New House till dinner a fine day with a little rain in the Evening

Monday 24

Yesterday an old Ewe had a Ewe Lamb Charles Hauling Stones & Dung the former off the Latter on the Potato Ground, Jack & Bill filling — Pompey & Lewis Shore 18 Sheep One yearling half Blood Ram produced 4½ another 4½ the Others being late Lambs from 2¼ to 3½ being all precisely washed & tied several Common Ewes generally weighing 2½ One Weather Sheep W.t 4 & upwards of 5 — A very warm day, & a Gust in the Evening & all

Tuesday 25th May 1813

Charles Hauled out the remainder of the Dung to the Potato Ground, Bill filling Pompey & Lewis spaded in the morning & afterward shore the remaining Sheep 18 I cut & marked the Lambs in the Evening 23 in all My Sheep are generally well wooled & in good order very little wooled Cart but the young Crop was growing on most of them owing to their being too late a shearing, a Month ago I think w.d have been better a fine moderate day Hickman absent —

Wednesday 26

Pompey & Lewis spreading Dung on the potato Ground from w.h we Learned a good Many Stones Charles crop ploughing it Jack Cutting Seed Potatoes, Hickman boring a Rack & work at the New House a fine day —

Thursday 27th

Pompey a Sunday Jobs Charles Ploughing & Rows Potato Ground, Jack Cutting Potatoes &c: Hickman Roofing New House &c — a fair day but Gloomy

Friday 28th

Pompey & Lewis rid up the yard in the Morning & went to cut Rail Timber at Morris, Charles Jack Bill &c. Planting Potatoes it Came a very wet get all the hay down, & quite dark in the Ev.g. Hickman went after Mrs. Cory Corpd