Saturday 29 May 1813

Charles laid out the rest of the Potatoes ground went to Town with the Mares & Ploughed the back yard Ds. Pompey & Lewis Mauled Rails Ds. Jack at Sundays, Hickman Absent. a fine day

Monday 31

All hands in the forenoon finishing next Morns. in the Evening Pompey Mauling Rails, Charles & the Aunt finished Planting the Potatoes, interspersed with Pumpkins & Corn Jack confined all day — a fine day yesterday ~~Harry~~ Lilly was Hickman Hewing Logs

Tuesday 1st June

Pompey Mauling Rails & Fencing at Mousie, Chs. & Lewis planting Potatoes Cabbage Squashes & in the Evening Fencing Jack confined Hickman Framing the Hog sty. a fine cool day

Wedy. 2

Pompey & Charles making Fence & repairing the New Road, Lewis digging the right hand Border Jack shelling Corn, Hickman Framing the Corn Crib a very warm day

Thursday 3 June 1813

Charles & Pompey Jobing about the yard, removing Timber Greasing Gears &c. Lewis digging in the Garden, Jack at hand. Hickman Framing Corn Crib a warm day

Friday 4th

Charles ploughed the Earth from the Corn, the Aunt Hoed, Hickman Framing the Corn Crib — Bet was delivered of a Son, the Bull Died. Cut went Earth. a very Warm day Therm. 88 in the Evening

Saty. 5th

~~Lewis digging~~ All hands finished the Hoeing of the Corn till Breakfast, afterwards Lewis dug the rest of the Border in the Garden, Pompey & Charles Jobing about the yard, cutting Clover &c. Chs. took the Mares to the Horse they all agreed Jack went to Millr. I went to Town in my Absence the Bull went off & lodged in a Hollow Tree in the Woods Hickman Framing the Hog sty a warm day Ther. 82

Monday 7

Yesterday & last night a very moderate & seasonable rain — This morning all hands employed in Cutting the Tree in wh. the Bull had lodged, & bringing home the hollow part in wh. they went & set it up in the Garden with a Cap over it for them to paint — afterwards in removing a Fence at the Yard end of the Clover field Hickman absent a pleasant day rather warm a shower about 10 Clock