Monday 12th July 1813

Pompy, Lewen, Jack & Bet Cutting & Binding Wheat in the Garden (30 Doz.) forenoon, P. & L. afterwards Cutting Timothy Charles ~~Clearing off Dung &c~~ Thatching — Hickman absent

Tuesday 13

Pompy & Lewen Cutting Timothy &c. Jack making Hay Charles clearing Dung & thatching. Hickman endeavoring barn Shade &c. Therm. 84 —

Wednesday 14

Pompy & Lewen Cradling Oats the Breakyard, Charles sick. Bet & Jack Raking Hay all day, in the Evg. put in 2 Loads of Wheat from the Garden, Hickman & I altering Hay Ladder &c. Therm. 84

Thursday 15

All hands employed in getting in 6 Loads of Wheat, bay in all in the Glen field & in the Garden Dan. Lewen a part of his time clearing off Dung &c. Hickman at the Barn &c. a fine cool moderate day —

Friday 16

Pompy Cradling Oats, Charles Lewen & Jack put in 3 Loads of wheat & 2 of Timothy Hay wheat as above, Bet at Sundry, Hickman at Hay Pen.

Saturday 17 July 1813

Pompy & Lewen cut out the rye Oats by Cate & carried afterwards to Sarah's wife Lewen applied himself in Binding Oats, at 4 P.M. was all day employed Charles took a load of Hay from Hickman's, plough'd part of the Potatoes & finished a strip, Hickman tarpaulin mow to day. I went to J. Farm afternoon fair Weather Therm. 84 —

Monday 19

Pompy & Lewen Cradling Oats, Charles ploughing Potatoes, Jack laid up with pains, in the Evening a little fine & a good deal of rain, I planted a good many Savoy & Cabbage plants, Hickman absent a cool day —

Tuesday 20

A little rain in the Morning, Pompy Cradled Oats the Breakyard, afterward applied about the yard laying Rails &c. Lewen Cradled Oats the dinner afterwards at Sundays, Charles finished Ploughing Corn & hauled Earth &c. Hickman at the Hog pen I sowed Turnip Seed between Cabage Rows & below the Garden among Corn — Therm. 84 some light showers —

Wedy.

All hands the Breakyard hauling & filling Earth in the yard at Mr Charles kept all day the out from Breakyard raking & binding Oats, Hickman at the Hog Pen, this day finished the last of the Grain & stowed all under Cover being from the different Fencers as on the Thursday