VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1906. NO. 2

RIGHT IN IT!

GET IN THE RING.

We are now ready for the Spring and Summer with the best line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children that we've ever had, and to the few who do not know about the superiority of our Clothing we say, GET IN THE RING! A suit fromus will cost you perhaps a trifle less than if bought elsewhere; it will fit you better, and retain that same style and shape that you pay double the price for at the tailor shop. Grays are the leading shades this season—a very serviceable color, too—and we have plenty of them to show you. Our line of Spring Trowsers for Men and Boys is up to its old-time standard—the best and largest in town.

Hats and Caps—we have hats for particular men—men who are hard to suit—because we have them in all shapes and styles. Derbys, Slouches, Crushes and Straws, in all the latest shades and patterns.

If you want the best half hose on earth, we sell the interwoven heel and toe that wear just twice as long as any ordinary hose. We havet he sole right to sell this hose in Chestertown.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

$4.90

For a Fine, All Wool Cassimere Suit : : :

More than $1000 worth of All Wool Cassimere Suits, ranging in price from $8.00 to $16.00, will be SACRIFICED for the trifling price of $4.90.

These suits were left from last season, but you would never know it except they haven't the "vent" in back of coat. I positively will not carry one of these suits over to another season, as the remarkably low price of $4.90 for a suit worth anywhere from $8.00 to $16 00, ought certainly to move every one of them during the month of June. The best bargain to the earliest purchaser. This is an unprecedented price—an unprecedented opportunity—and if you are wise you will take advantage of it.

I have just opened, direct from New York City, $2,500 worth of the Newest and Latest Style Suits that money will buy, and if you are looking for a new, nobby and stylish suit, at the very lowest possible price, we invite your attention to this up-to-date line.

Respectfully,

THOS. S. BORDLEY.

GREAT STIR IN REAL ESTATE

Swan Point Optioned to Capitalists—Several Farms Sold at Public and Private Sale in Chestertown Tuesday—Other Deals Pending.

Townsend Thorpe, Esq., has been in Kent this week negotiating for the purchase of Swan Point including the Charles C. Strong farm of 300 acres and the R. D. Hynson farm tenanted by Lonnie Stevens containing 585 acres, making a total of 885 acres. He has gotten a thirty day option on this property from the owners and left Kent yesterday to confer with other interested parties.

The price is not made public but it is understood to be over $64,000 for the whole.

If this deal is consummated it is proposed to build a large hotel and establish a summer resort.

Tuesday was a live day in the real estate market in Chestertown. The Sewell property at Rock Hall was sold at public sale by John D. Urie, Esq., Attorney, and bid in by him for the mortgage for $675. It may be purchased at private sale.

The Maslin or Newcomb farm, near Rock Hall, was offered by W. W. Beck, Esq., but withdrawn and may be bought at private sale.

Richard D. Hynson, Esq., executor, offered the "Comegys Cosden" farm and the "Mill" farm, property of the late John Brice. The "Mill" farm was withdrawn at a bid of $30 per acre, and the "Cosden" farm containing 142 acres, was purchased by John D. Urie, Esq., for $5,112. Mr. Urie on Thursday sold this farm to Mr. James Willis for $40 per acre.

The farm known as the "Dodd Farm" situated near Chestertown, and containing 336 acres, was sold at public sale to Mr. Jas. W. Lambert for $9,550.

The dwelling house situated on High street, Chestertown, occupied by Mr. Harry T. Hoyle, was purchased by Mr. Hoyle for $950.

The lot known as the "shop lot" situated on High street, adjoining the home of Dr. H. L. Dodd was purchased by Mrs. John N. Dodd for $875.

The lot on Calvert street was bought by Mr. Charles L. Dodd for $450.

All of the above property belonged to the estate of the late John T. Dodd and was sold by decree of court at the instance of the heirs, the trustees being Rev. John S. Bowers and Mr. John N. Dodd.

The Hepbron farm was sold at private sale by Marion deK. Smith, Esq., attorney for the Visitors and Governors of Washington College for $6800. This farm is located near Kennedyville and contains 279 acres.

It is reported that Hope H. Barroll, Esq., on Tuesday sold his Leaverton farm, near Hynson's Chapel for $7,500 to Master Spencer Smith, son of Mr. John Smith, of Rock Hall.

Mr. John W. Carter has sold to Mr. John T. McNaney, of Baltimore, for Mr. Bedford Titter, his home known as "The Cliff" for $2600. There are 50 acres of land attached to the cozy home. Mr. and Mrs. Titter will occupy the home September 7, 1906.

Manly Drennen, as agent, has sold the Jacob B. Cazier farm of 250 acres in the first district, Cecil county, tenanted by Gidon Clark, to Messrs. W. H. and John D. Boulden, for $8,500.

THE will of the late Capt. R. S. Emory devises his farms to his sons, Edward W. and Robert J. Emory, except the Rouse farm in Kent county and woodland in Queen Anne's county which he directs his executor, E. W. Emory, to sell. His life insurance is bequeathed to his daughters, Mrs. Cecil R. Atkinson, Julia and Isabel Emory.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to Richard W. Grant and Miss Tennie Beck, both of Piney Neck.

THE salary of the Chestertown postmaster has been increased from $1900 to $2200. This places Chestertown in the list of towns entitled to free delivery.

DON'T forget Jefferson's Great June Sale. Monday is the time to buy Dress Goods. See advertisement.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The public schools throughout Kent County will hold their Commencements on Wednesday. Next Tuesday will not be a holiday.

The commencement exercises of the Chestertown High School will be held Wednesday evening, June 20th, at eight o'clock, in the Assembly Hall. The graduates are Misses Eunice Lambert and Pearl E. Woodall. Rev. Albert Jamison, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, will deliver the address to the graduates.

The annual exhibit of pupil's work in the Manual Training Departmedt of the Chestertown High School will be held on Monday, June 18, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., under the direction of Prof. O. C. Blades and Miss Grace Brooks.

FARM NOTES.

Mr. Andrew W. Vansant, of near Galena, brought to the NEWS office Tuesday a sample of his wheat off a sixty acre field. The heads were of fine size and well filled Mr. V. is expecting at least 28 bushels to the acre.

Mr. Bartus Trew, near Pomona, also brought to the NEWS office last week sample heads of his Trew's Prolific Wheat, which were beauties.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason visited his estate in Queen Anne last week and thinks the outlook about Wye good for a fine yield of wheat.

Wheat about Massey also promises well.

Mr. Charles H. Smith, the prize trucker of Rock Hall, brought to the NEWS office Tuesday a "sample" of his "Early Express" cabbage. It weighed 11¼ pounds! Mr. S. has about a half acre on which there are about 1,000 heads.

Mr. John Bell will accept our thanks for a sample of his early cabbages. He supplies Chestertown with this vegetable and has a "small patch" of 30,000 heads which he is marketing

Mr. Josiah Massey was among the first to cut wheat in Queen Anne and Mr. James Bennett in Kent.

THE KENT TROLLEY.

Promoters in Kent Securing Right of Way to Tolchester—They Meet With Encouragement.

The trolley line between Chestertown and Tolchester has now assumed such shape that the county people are rejoicing over something more than mere hope. On Thursday and Friday of this week Mr. Alva A. Lamkin, of the Kent Traction Company, has been in the county, accompanied by Mr. G. Lloyd Rogers, of Baltimore, securing the necessary right of way, and has definitely determined upon a course via Fairlee, all of which has been given with the exception of a short link. The line to be traversed has been most generously contributed by the land owners. The right of way is only a string of land 25 feet wide, and the farmer or land owner who hesitates in donating this little help only stands in his own way and subjects himself to the criticism of the community at large. New York capital will be used to a great extent and the building of the line means the spending of over $200,000 in our county and the giving of employment to many of our home people. All land within a radius of a mile of the line will be enhanced in value, and one farmer through whose land the line will run said he had his signs already printed, "Lots for Sale," and is ready to have them posted.

Messrs. D. E. Baxter & Co., of New York, will in all probability build the line, and it will be the best and safest the market can produce. Electric current will also be sold by the company, and this will be a boon to the farmer.

Among those who have granted a right of way over their land are Messrs. Wm. B. Usilton & Sons, W. G. Skirven, Alex. Cann (colored), J. P. Nicholson, W. G. Smyth, Robt. Hatcherson, Geo. Bell, J. R. Byron and several others.

Dancing Pavilion.—Joseph Downey, Rock Hall's lumber merchant is building a fine dancing pavilion for Harvey Kilbourn and Robert Shallcross in "Crosby's Park," near the village of Rock Hall, and the young people are waiting impatiently for the dancing to begin. The boys, Kilbourn and Shallcross have the push in them to make anything go they undertake and they are putting all their efforts in this and say they intend to have everything up to-date. They will have the best of music and good order, no lady need not be afraid to come, no intoxicants will be allowed in this park. They expect to open up Wednesday night, June 20th, when they will give a free opening and they hope all their friends that can come will do so, and if you can't dance then look at the others.

THE Army Worm is said to be ravaging the corn fields in the upper part of Kent county.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Thieving.—Mr. Charles L. Dodd, the popular clerk to the Board of County commissioners, has been robbed on two occasions recently of a fine lot of chickens. At the first haul they got four and on Saturday night they got five hens and a rooster.

Degrees Conferred.—The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College at a special meeting conferred the degree of L. L. D. upon Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown, and A. Hunter Boyd, Esq., of Baltimore and the D. D. degree upon Rev. Henry B. Martin, pastor of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Chestertown.

Tolchester Notes.—This resort has started out on a record breaking season. Governor Warfield came over Saturday on a special steamer and reviewed the St. John's cadets. There were 4000 others present. Sunday was also a big day, three boats being required to bring the crowds.

Mr. William Ashley has been appointed special officer, vice Mr. Davis, who has a position as watchman in a Baltimore bank. The 'house of trouble' is a new amusement.

Corner Stone Laying.—The most important event of Washington College Commencement this year will be the laying of the corner stone of the new William Smith Hall Tuesday afternoon. The procession will form in front of Middle Hall at 2.45 P. M. and proceed to the site of Hall. The order of exercises will be as follows:

Invocation.....Rev. D. L. Greenfield
Introductory Address.....James W. Cain, President of the Faculty.
Singing.....America
Address.....Hon. James A. Pearce, President of Visitors and Governors.
Singing.....Maryland! My Maryland!
Address.....Gov. Edwin Warfield
Singing.....Recessional
Laying of the Corner Stone.....Gov. Warfield
Benediction.....Rev. D. L. Greenfield

Sunday Trains.—Petitions are being circulated in all the towns of this Peninsula against the running of Sunday trains. A large petition was sent from Chestertown, Galena and other towns.

"I do not believe the so-called 'blue laws' of Delawaare can be enforced so as to interfere with the running of Sunday trains on the Delaware road," said Chief Justice Charles B. Lore in conversation upon the subject.

"Why," continued the Chief Justice "should it be any more of desecration of the Sabbath to use a train on that day for the purpose of attending church than to use a private conveyance such as a horse and carriage. God provided us with the good things of this life and it is not the use but the abuse of them that is harmful. Is it possible to stop the great arterial system of the world even for a day? It hardly seems so."

Trout—Spangler.—Rev. Dr. John Wesley Trout, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Protestant Church, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Sadie Fulton Spangler, of the same city, were married at the residence of Rev. Dr F. T. Tagg, 1626 Harlem ave., on last Monday, at 8 P. M. Rev. D. W. Austin, of Hampden, a lifelong friend of the bride, assisted by Rev. F. T. Tagg, performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. William Shaeffer, the former a brother-in-law of Rev. Dr. Trout by a former marriage. The bride was attired in a simple gray traveling dress and carried a bunch of white carnations. They returned to Philadelphia on Tuesday.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place in Wilmington Monday evening, June 11th, the contracting parties being Miss Bessie Woodall, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Lewis C. Hayes, of Galena, and Mr. Edward A. Jones, a prominent business man of Warwick. The ceremony was performed by Rev. K. N. Steyenson, pastor of Scott M. E. Church. The bride was attired in white silk mull, with trimmings of lace and ribbon, and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black. They returned to their home in Warwick after spending several days in Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Sold Horse.—Mr. Alfred Bramble on Thursday sold his handsome Homer gelding to Mr. Walter Giles, of Baltimore, for $250.
