	Da. Rye	Wh. d	Ot. Bts.	Corn
John Pepper	118	40.8	12	67
John Manns	59	34	7½
Solomon Moulter	95:6	27.2		56
Mich. Luter	150	26.4		54
Jacob Moulter	123	22		19
John Hite	89	31	25	18½
Joseph Pepper	136	52.10	18	63
F. Bowersoth	142	32
the H. Smith	74	130	16½	3½
My own		268.9	37
	986	664.9

Thursday 22nd

Pompy & Lewis Thrashing Rye after Breakfast Charles digging Thawing Earth & Jack at Mill & Hickman worked till a little after dinner & then Quit it having rained the most of the day

Friday 23rd

Pompy & Charles Thrashed Rye all day, Lewis bad with a sore throat could not work, Jack at sundry jobs Hickman absent not till about Breakfast and afterwards fair —

Saturday 24th

Pompy & Charles thrashed till Breakfast after wh. Charles thatched all day, Pompy Jack & Bet lifted Flax & put in what Oats were burned Hickman at P. & Rail about 11 AM Mrs P. had a son — a fine day, second Crop

Monday 26th July 1813

All hands employed in Raking Oats put in one load loose being all the large Oats, also got in the Flax that had been taken up, Hickman at P. & Rail, Mrs Brenan went home, a fine day, Therm. 90 —

Tuesday 27th

All hands employed forenoon Raking & Binding Oats got in 2 Loads, Bet lifting Flax, in the Evening Jack & Pompy went to take a little that remained when it came on a dreadfull Gust of Wind, Thunder & Rain that continued most of the Evening, Charles & Pompy thrashed from between 4 & 5 o'Clock at wh. time Hickman quit Work

Wedy. 28

Pompy & Charles thrashed all day, Lewis at Sundry Jobs, Jack sick with the pains, Bet handled the Flax, wh. was set in 67 Bundles not quite dry enough Hickman at the Hoppen a warm day & fair thrashing in the Evening —

Thursday 29th

Pompy & Charles, thrashing Rye, Lewis digging & pulling Earth Hickman at Port & Rail, a fine day. I went to the Race with Worthy Hopton, Jack at Sundry Jobs —

Friday 30

All hands employed the same as yesterday, no particular Running