NOTICE.—We would again call the attention of all correspondents to the fact that the KENT NEWS will publish nothing that has not the writer's name signed to it. This is not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. We are constantly throwing in the waste basket letters that have no name signed to them.

THE counties may have a chance to get a Senator next year.

"WHY not let the people choose the United States Senator?" So say we all.

POPE PIUS gave his blessing to a company of Autoists last week as follows: "God bless you—but go slow."

IT's pretty hard to find a Republican politician of any prominence who is not mixed up with the railroad grafters, or the tariff plunderers, or embalmed beef exploits.

REAL ESTATE has had a boom in Kent this week and as noted elsewhere some important transfers have been made. There is no safer investment than in Kent lands and investors are finding it out.

HON. WM. A. ASHBROOK has been nominated for Congress in the 17th District of Ohio by the Democratic convention and will be elected. Mr. Ashbrook is the coming man of the West and deserves to be landed in the Presidental chair. He is every inch a man.

W. J. BRYAN is looming up for the next Democratic nomination for President. Missouri and other Western States have declared for him and others will follow. His principles are being adopted daily by Republicans and Democrats and he will make a formidable rival to all comers.

FOR telling the truth about the embalmed beef fed to our soldier boys, Gen. Miles was hounded and reprimanded by a Republican administration; now we know that the whole country has been supplied by the Beef Trust with similar foul and diseased provisions and the present Administration has known it for a long time without publishing the facts.

COL. HENRY A. DUPONT was, at 11.55 o'clock, Tuesday, elected United States senator from Delaware from March 3, 1905, by twenty-eight votes. The Senate and House met in separate session. Senator T. C. Moore, of Smyrna, voted for Addicks, thus giving Dupont but eight votes in the Senate. The democrats voted "blanks." The vote was ratified in joint session.

The total vote in the two houses: Dupont, 28; Addicks, 1; blank, 18.

Representative Harry Marshall and Senator D. O. Moore, who participated in the caucus, were not present at the legislative session. Senator Thomas Jefferson, who was stricken with paralysis Tuesday morning, died at the home of Sheriff Baker while the balloting was in progress. His absence reduced the democratic strength from 19 to 18.

"I will be a candidate for the United States Senate at the next regular session of the Delaware Legislature," said J. Edward Addicks.

EX-GOV. WILLIAM PINKNEY WHYTE was sworn in to succeed Arthur Pue Gorman as United States Senator from Maryland at 12.05 o'clock Monday. The ovation he received on all sides caused the Senator's eyes to glisten.

"It feels just like coming back home," he said.

And, indeed, it must have been much like a home-coming for him. There were three Senators present with whom he had served when he was in the Senate before—Morgan of Alabama, Teller of Colorado and Allison of Iowa. He seemed mighty glad to see them, and they were delighted to greet him again. But that wasn't all. As this sprightly statesman of 82 wandered through the corridors and committee-rooms of the Capital he met old and trusted employees who had been handed down from the sixties and seventies, and the way they shook one another's hand showed that they were friends of the Senator. Altogether, it must have been one of the pleasantest days in Senator Whyte's life.

Baltimore Judges.

On August 14 next year Judge Pere L. Wickes, of the Supreme Bench, will reach his 70th year and retire. Hon. James P. Gorter is prominently mentioned as his successor. The retiring judge is a brother of Ex-Judge Joseph A. Wickes, of Chestertown, who served with such distinguished ability for thirty years in this circuit.

Hon. Thos. Ireland Elliott is pretty sure to be the Republican nominee for Judge of the new city court.

Three men are known to have been burned to death and two others are thought to have lost their lives in a big conflagration on the Baltimore water front early Wednesday morning, which did damage estimated at $750,000.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. Alexander Wallen died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Armstrong, near town, Tuesday afternoon, aged 69. The deceased spent most of his life in Clayton where he successfully conducted a hotel. He leaves brothers, Col. Samuel A. Wallen, of Queen Anne's, Robert Wallen, of Clayton; sisters, Misses Mary and Lib. His children are Mrs. J. Edw. Armstrong, Mrs. Carrie Bowen, of Seabrooke, Washington, and Miss Grace, Philadelphia. The funeral took place Thursday, interment in Millington cemetery, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

Mr. John Christian Myers, a highly respected citizen of Hanesville, died Sunday evening after a long illness of bronchial trouble, aged 70 years. The deceased was a shoemaker by trade and a good citizen. He leaves the following children: John, Earl and Edward Myers, Mrs. Louise Solloway and Mrs. Clarence Crew. The funeral took place Wednesday, interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. J. M. Sheridan officiating; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

Died in Chester, May 11th, George Washington Rollison, the only son of the late Charles and Recilli Denning Rollison, of this county. The deceased was in his 82nd year and had been in feeble health for several years. He was married in 1853 to Miss Araminta Jacobs, who with six sons, survive—Cornelius, Denning, George W., James W., Robert C., Charles W. and Henry. The deceased has lived all his life in Kent county, Md., except the last ten years. He lived on his farm near Crumpton for a number of years, then moved to Piney Neck for a few years, then he moved to Chestertown on Cannon street, where he lived. Seven years from then he went to Chester with his son, Robert. He was a carpenter by trade and a quiet, peaceful citizen.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Gardiner and children spent several days this week in Smyrna and Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ford Phillips spent the day Sunday with relatives in Centreville.

Miss Mary Hazel returned from North Carolina last Saturday after spending several months in that state, she was accompanied by her friend, Miss Blanche Mays, of Bethel, N. C. This is the first visit Miss Mays has ever made to Maryland and she is delighted with our beautiful country.

Mrs. J. E. Hurlock and Miss Bessie spent Monday with Smyrna friends.

Miss Julia B. Ferguson, teacher of English at the Millboro College, Millboro Springs, Va., has returned to her home to spend her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitehouse, of Wilmington, Del., spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hall, near town.

Mr. John B. Phillips spent the day Sunday in Centreville.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Wilson and children and Mr. W. J. Willis, of Wilmington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gillispie first of the week.

Miss Ada Comegys, of Wilmington, is spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. John S. Newnam, near town.

Children's Day services which were to be held in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening were postponed until next Sunday evening on account of the severe wind and rain storm.

Misses Ruby and Claire Ahern, of Western Maryland College, Miss Evelyn Rolph, of Washington College and Miss Elva Reese, of the State Normal, at Baltimore, are at home for the summer vacation.

The Millington boys won a hard uphill game of base ball here last Saturday. The strong Betterton team was their opponents and held the lead in the score up until the ninth inning when Moore was taken out of the box after several hits had been made off him and Wilson the crack little Washington College pitcher was put in the rubber, but the Millington boys had found their batting eye and Wilson fared no better than Moore, the final score being 7-9. Rash pitched for Millington and seemed to be more effective as the game progressed.

The remains of Miss Ethel McWhorter, who died at her late home in Philadelphia last Sunday was brought down last Wednesday morning on the 9 58 train in a special car accompanied by the family and friends. The funeral services were held in the P. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Albert Ware, interment in Millington cemetery. Bear and son, of Philadelphia, had charge of the funeral assisted here by J. L. Smith. The floral tributes were many and very pretty. A few years ago prior to her removal to Philadelphia Miss Ethel was one of our popular young ladies. Her many friends were deeply grieved to hear of her illness and death.

The Grand Benefit Concert which was rendered in the M. E. Church Thursday evening of last week was the finest musicale entertainment ever given in Millington. The church was filled and every one was pleased with the excellent music. The proceeds will go toward defraying the expenses for repairing the church. Those taking part were: First Violin and Conductor, Miss Blanche Nirden Brown; Second Violin, Mr. Leslie W. Stout; Cornet, Mr. J. Hall Anderson; Flute and Piccolo, Mr. J. Milton Davidson; Piano, Mrs. Edith B. Ingersoll.

Mrs. Jennie Johnson spent several days this week in Philadelphia.

Mr. George Taylor, of Smyrna, Del., is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor.

The Holiness people pitched their tent on the Hurt lot opposite the depot last week and have been holding services every evening, Miss Jones and Miss Gibson are in Charge of the meetings and seem very earnest in their efforts, on Sunday they will hold service in the morning, afternoon and evening.

LYNCH ITEMS.

Mr. Elmer Jones, of St. John's College, Annapolis, is spending the vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones.

Owing to the inclement weather the St. James and Lynch's Christian Endeavor Union Service was not held Sunday evening, but were postponed.

The Ladies of Lynch M. P. church will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival in the cannery on Saturday evening June 16, 1906. The public are cordially invited.

Mrs. Hepbron and Mrs. Crouch are on the sick list.

TWO WOMEN A BRUTE'S VICTIMS.

Horrible Crime Near Kingston, In Somerset. Mrs. Robert Barnes and Miss Francis Powell Victims of a Brutal Negro.

Pocomoke City, Md., June 11.—One of the most heinous crimes in the history of this section of the State was committed Sunday afternoon late by a negro, named Wm. Lee, of Va.

About 4 o'clock J. E. Townsend, who lives near Marion Station, on the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, was taking his family out to the afternoon services of a nearby church, when he saw a strange negro walking on the track, and noticed that he was acting very odd, but paid no attention to him and went on. When he returned he found that his house had been entered and robbed. Among the things taken were a watch, chain and two gold rings, one belonging to Mr. Townsend, the other to one of his children.

After leaving the culprit kept on his course up the railroad to Kingston. Then he started up the county road toward Pocomoke City. About a mile and a half from the village of Kingston is St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, in wnich services were being held. Near this church is a long stretch of woodland for probably three miles, through which a large portion of the congregation pass on their way to and from divine worship.

It was in this woods that the negro secreted himself, to await some of the pedestrians on their return home, and his waiting proved not in vain, for in a short while Mrs. Robert Barnes and Miss Frances Powell, daughter of Lewis Powell, were returning to their respective homes. Mrs. Barnes was pushing a baby carriage, in which was her infant. When they reached the lonely spot, where the negro was hiding, he emerged from the woods, and, with a large knife, faced the ladies. He took the baby carriage from the mother, rolled it in the woods, and forced the women to go with him, threatening to cut their throats from ear to ear if either refused to obey his commands or made any outcry.

After reaching the woods he took the infant from the carrige and told the mother to hold it. He then assaulted Miss Powell, after which he took the baby from the mother and compelled Miss Powell to hold it while he assaulted the mother. While he was in the act a team passed along the road, and he, with drawn knife, swore he would kill both women and child if any alarm was made.

He forced Miss Powell to accept one of the stolen rings, telling her that if she did not he would kill her. Before leaving he told both women that if anybody wanted to know where he was to say he had gone to Crisfield, and was not afraid of any white man living.

After leaving his helpless victims, he started toward Pocomoke, but made a turn in his course and first went to Rehoboth, where he asked Henry Briddell, who was hitching his horse at the Baptist church, where he had gone to attend night services, the road to Pocomoke. After being told he waited around the church until everything was quiet, and then stole Mr. Briddell's horse and carriage and drove through Pocomoke to a curve in the N. Y., P. & N. R. R. tracks, just below the town, and placed the horse on the tracks. He fastened the wheels in the frogs of the switches so that it was impossible for the animal to get away, evidently thinking that the Norfolk express would come around the curve at a rapid speed and destroy the horse and buggy.

The first train to come was a freight, which had orders to go on a siding at Pocomoke. It slowed up at the curve for the switch to be opened, and it was then that one of the train crew found the horse on the track and removed it.

The negro was caught and first placed in jail at Eastville but because of fear of lynching he was removed to Norfolk. He confessed the crime. He will be turned over to the Maryland authorities at once.

Gasoline Boat.—A fine 4½ horse power Fairbanks gasoline engine is being installed in a canoe at Chestertown by Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr. The outfit has been purchased by Capt. John Burchard, of Island creek, who wanted a reliable engine and gets it in the Fairbanks.

The big boat of Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr., having a 20 horse power Fairbanks engine in her was tested this week and it will make about 13 miles an hour. It bids fair to be the swiftest craft up the Chester river.

Capt. Perce Rawleigh, on Mr. Wilbur Eliason Jr's., launch, towed a colored excursion to Centreville Saturday on board the "Lucy." The run to Centreville was made in two hours!

Capt. Chas. Johnson is building another bateau.

Capt. Perry is wrecking the schooner "Fair Wind," which has been an eyesore in "Manila Bay" off Scott's Point for many years.

The Governor's Selection All Right.

The appointment by Governor Warfield of Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte as United States Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Gorman's death, was not unexpected. It is only just to the Governor to credit him with patriotic motives in this selection. His action was certainly not from the stand-poin of a partizan. It lifts the honor above partizanship—above factionalism—above personal advantage. The Governor takes a man well qualified—one who will grace the high position—and yet will not likely be in anybody's way for a full term in the contest for Senatorial honors before the next Legislature. Senator Whyte is an able lawyer, and an experienced legislator and an old time Democratic politician—a "leader" from way back—and an office holder of lengthy and honorable service. The Eastern Shore should have had the appointment, but we will not complain of the selection of such a fit man as Ex-Gov. Whyte. The "Shore" will have the right man for his successor and the other counties will join in electing him.

News Adv.—Mr. William G. Shallcross writes, "you can discontinue my advertisement in your paper as I had applications from all parts of the county." Nuf sed.

The breastpin advertised in the NEWS was found by a colored man and promptly returned to the owner after reading the advertisement in the NEWS. Nuf sed.

Love Point Dispute.—There is said to be a difference of opinion between the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Co. and the Love Point Co. as to whether or not the former should be allowed the use of the grounds at Love Point for its excursionists. Last year the railroad company leased the grounds but this year, according to Mr. William H. Bosley, who is a stock-holder in both companies, the railway company declines to pay for the use of the grounds, and it is said that there may be some change on the part of the railway company as to its excursion plans. "I am sorry to see the difference," said Mr. Bosley, "but I think it will be patched up all right."

TOWN ORDINANCE.

AN ORDINANCE requring premises to be kept free from the growth of weeds or other obnoxious vegetation, fixing the duties of Bailiffs and the Clerk in reference thereto, and providing fines and penalties for violations.

Be it enacted and ordained, That the premises occupied by any person or persons or corporation in Chestertown shall be kept free from the growth of weeds or other obnoxious vegetation and from unreasonable accumulation of litter, filth or other refuse matter thereon by such occupant, and that any such occupant failing to keep the premises occupied by him, them or it free from the growth of weeds or other obnoxious vegetation, or from an unreasonable accumulation of litter, filth or refuse matter, shall pay a fine of not exceeding ten dollars and the cost of prosecution; and if said fine and cost are not paid, or good and ample security given for the payment of same on or before the expiration of thirty days from the date of the trial or adjudication, to be confined in the Kent county jail for a period of not exceeding ten days, or until said fine and cost are paid, or good and ample security given; provided, however, that such occupant shall be served with a written notice issued by the Clerk of the Commissioners of Chestertown, requiring him, them or it to clean or cause to be cleaned the premises of such litter, filth or unreasonable accumulation of refuse matter, within twenty-four hours from the time of service of said notice, which shall be served by one of the Bailiffs by reading same to such occupant or leaving a copy thereof on such premises; and if such occupant fail to comply with the requirements of said notice one of the Bailiffs shall procure a warrant for the arrest of such occupant for the violation of this ordinance, and bring him, them or it before the Police Justice for the Fourth Election District of Kent county, who shall hear and determine such charge and impose such fine and penalty as he shall deem proper, as above provided in this ordinance.

Passed to take effect from this Fourteenth day of June, 1906.

WILLIAM S. CARROLL,
GEORGE D. LOFLAND,
THOMAS S. BORDLEY,
The Commissioners of Chestertown.

THOMAS S BORDLEY, Clerk.

NOTICE.—The Board of Town Commissioners will PERSONALLY inspect every and all premises on WEDNESDAY NEXT, June 20th, to see that the above ordinance is faithfully observed.

It. THOMAS S. BORDLEY, Clerk.
