Monday 20th Septr. 1813

Pompey laid out Lands & Sowed 4½ Bushels of Rye, Charles ploughed beyond the Swamp with the 2 Mares, Lewen attended Plantens who began to work about 8 & quit about 4. O'Colerk Jack & Bet spreading Hemp, Hickman at Sunday Jobs day attend. Mr. Henderson putting up Rafters on Corn Crib &c. — a very foggy Morning & clear towards Eve.

Tuesday 21

Charles ploughing with two Horses, Lewen Harrowing with 3 Cats included the behaved very well, Pompey sowed 8 Bushels of Rye, cleared up some on the Floor & began to thrash, Jack & Bet at spreading Hemp, Hickman absent a fine day & very warm —

Wednesday 22

Pompey thrashing Rye, Charles ploughed & Lewen Harrowed the Breakfast & then went with the Waggon with a Log & Charles brot. a load of Laths, I went to Town in the Evening. Bet Breaking Flax. Jack at Sundays. Hickman absent a fine moderate day

Thursday 23

Charles ploughing Clover ground, Pompey thrashing in two days 11 Bushels of Rye, Lewen Harrowing Rye. Jack spreading Manure &c. Bet Breaking Flax, I sold Wm. Ellis 8 gl. Evs. £3 & 2 cash & went to Town to hear Mr. Pinkney & Mr. Thomas speak but they did not owing to a dispute about priority a fine day Hickman absent

Friday 24th Septr. 1813

Charles finished the lot of Clover ground beyond the swamp by Breakfast, afterward Harrowed in Rye, Lewen Harrowed Rye also all day, Pompey sowed 12½ Bushels of Rye wch. finished the field making in all 25 Bushels, Jack spreading Manure for wheat in Rye Field, Bet breaking Flax all day, Hickman absent a warm day —

Saty. 25th

Pompey thrashed 5 Bushels of Rye & went to see his Wife in the Evening, Charles ploughed in Rye & Lewen harrowed till dinner. they afterwards tied up the Barn, cleaned the Rye &c. Jack spread Manure & went to Mrs. Reids this day between 9 & 10 A.M. the little Child died after a very tedious illness from a Bowel Complaint which was supposed to have ended in a Mortification it suffered much & was reduced to a Skeleton, I went to Town in the Evening, & Johny Darby went to Peters Tavern Wed. Resta from the Stage, accompanied by G. Thompson, a very fine day. Hickman absent

Monday 27th

Charles & Lewen Ploughing & Harrowing Rye, Pompey & Jack spreading Manure, Repairing Fences in the Evening Jack went to Mr. Reids to bring back the Pony which she rode home, Cats kicked a little in the Evening, Bet breaking Flax Hickman working about the Corn Crib a fine day yesterday the Child was buried at Piney Creek Grave yard in unoccupied Ground in the North Side in the same Range with Mrs. Kellerings G.