STILL POND, - - MARYLAND

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Presiding Elder W. G. Koons conducted an interesting love feast service on Sunday morning after which he preached especially to parents and children. His text was an exceeding gloomy one for Children's Day, "And it came to pass when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate and his neck brake and he died, for he was an old man and heavy" but not so the sermon. His applications were, thousands of Men as good as Eli men who had been wonderfully beneficint to the world had made the same blunder in rearing their children that Eli had in his own household. He then pictured to both parents and children the blunders that go far in making children a burden, a sorrow, and a disgrace to parents, to themselves and to the world. Then was pictured the secret of a joyous household, honorable citizens and all that goes to make better the world. The sermon was richly enjoyed notwithstanding its length. At night the regular Children's Day exercises were held amid scenes of rapture. It was certainly a children's affair and the little tots did credit to themselves and an honor to the community in rendering the following program before a crowded house.

Singing, Onward, Onward, choir; prayer; singing, Children's Day, choir; collection and notices; singing, Summer Glory, choir; recitation, Children's Day Greeting, Kerry Smith; recitation, Something for Jesus, Frances Davis, Catheline Hubbard, Ozella Andrews; recitation, Only Boys, Carl Ashley, Marion Lewis, Lloyd Rollison, Willard Taylor; Motion Song, Summer Days, class of little girls; recitation, We Are Gay and Happy, William Miller; singing, How Happy I Would Be, class of children; dialogue, The Reason, Marie Smith and Lelia Elburn; recitation, Why We Like Children's Day, Minnie Sewell; singing, Coronation Song, choir; recitation, How it Seems to a Boy, Carl Apsley; recitation, Make Room for the Children, Esther Jones; singing, The Sweet Story of Old, class of children; recitation, Little Boy Blue, Eddie Jones; recitation, The Story of Old, Amy Harrison, Minnie Ryan; Some Resolutions, Wellington Ashley, Morris Kerr, Granville Ashley, Bennie Durding; singing, Gracious Saviour, choir; recitation, Links in Love's Chain, Louise Kendall, Theresa Andrews; Jessie Middleton, Helen Jones, Etta Cannan; recitation, The Little Lad, Louis Hickey; singing, The Children's Prayer, class of boys and girls; recitation, Rover in Church, Catherine Davis; recitation, A Day for the Children, Mary Creighton; singing, Raise Your Happy Voices, choir; recitation, Help Somebody, Sallie Jones; duet, Lois and Theresa Andrews; recitation, The Land of Smiles, Elizabeth Davis; recitation, A Sunday School Scholar, Olivia Clayton; singing Joy Bells, choir; reports from classes; singing, Praise Ye the Lord, choir; benediction.

Little Karl Apsley has got to go way back and content himself as best as he can. The Stork on Thursday made a call at the home of Karl's parents and left a baby brother, probably this will take some of the sweets from Karl and he won't like that a little bit.

Mr. Wm. R. Larrimore, of Sparrows Point is taking recreation here among old acquaintances.

So many of our watermen having gone elsewhere in pursuit of employment, that those of our people desiring help in their calling find it difficult to secure the same.

Quite a number of the watermen are employed over at Shallow Creek where a summer resort is being constructed.

Messrs. J. A. Smith, M. L. Maslin, G. T. Whaland and other truckers here are running a close race in the production of new potatoes. All have fine crops.

The cool weather of the early part of the week has retarded wheat harvest considerably with our farmers.

Mr. Thomas D. Clothier, residing on the Miller farm located near Swan Creek, lost three valuable horses last week with cerebro spinal meningitis. He has several other horses suffering with the same ailment.

Quite a little incident occured here last Tuesday when a mad dog passed through our town and bit two of our bright interesting little boys, Howard Schofield and Edward Harbison. The little ones are now at the Pasteur Institute, Baltimore, for treatment. We all hope for their speedy recovery and hope soon to see their bright little faces in our midst.

Fracas.—Ernest Hill and Jim Steward, colored, became involved in a stabbing affray in "Santiago" early Sunday morning all over "crap." Hill stabbed Steward twice but not seriously. Constable Gill arrested Hill and Justice Hicks sentenced him to 18 months in House of Correction. Steward's suspenders saved his life as the knife blade broke when it struck the centre of the suspenders.
