VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1906. NO. 3

RIGHT IN IT!

GET IN THE RING.

We are now ready for the Spring and Summer with the best line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children that we've ever had, and to the few who do not know about the superiority of our Clothing we say, GET IN THE RING! A suit fromus will cost you perhaps a trifle less than if bought elsewhere; it will fit you better, and retain that same style and shape that you pay double the price for at the tailor shop. Grays are the leading shades this season—a very serviceable color, too—and we have plenty of them to show you. Our line of Spring Trowsers for Men and Boys is up to its old-time standard—the best and largest in town.

Hats and Caps—we have hats for particular men—men who are hard to suit—because we have them in all shapes and styles. Derbys, Slouches, Crushes and Straws, in all the latest shades and patterns.

If you want the best half hose on earth, we sell the interwoven heel and toe that wear just twice as long as any ordinary hose. We have the sole right to sell this hose in Chestertown.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

More than $1000 worth of All Wool Cassimere Suits, ranging in price from $8.00 to $16.00, will be SACRIFICED for the trifling price of $4.90.

These suits were left from last season, but you would never know it except they haven't the "vent" in back of coat. I positively will not carry one of these suits over to another season, as the remarkably low price of $4.90 for a suit worth anywhere from $8.00 to $16.00, ought certainly to move every one of them during the month of June. The best bargain to the earliest purchaser. This is an unprecedented price—an unprecedented opportunity—and if you are wise you will take advantage of it.

I have just opened, direct from New York City, $2,500 worth of the Newest and Latest Style Suits that money will buy, and if you are looking for a new, nobby and stylish suit, at the very lowest possible price, we invite your attention to this up-to-date line.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE WEEK

124th Commencement—Greater Interest Than Ever Before—Corner Stone Laying By Hon. J. A. Pearce—Alumni Banquet and The Ball.

Washington College has been the centre of attraction the past week, the occasion being the 124th commencement.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered Sunday morning in the Methodist Episcopal Church by Dr. John H. Willey, of Brooklyn, N. Y. His text, "Let Me Alone," served as the basis for one of the most eloquent discourses heard in Chestertown. His sentences were couched in language expressive and unique and rounded out in the best of diction. His sermon abounded in perorations of exquisite beauty and delighted the large audience.

At 8 p. m. Dr. R. W. Micou, of the the Theological Seminary of Virginia, preached to the Christian Associations in Emmanuel Church. He is possessed of a fine voice and is a deep thinker. His sermon on this occasion dealt with the home and social side of life and impressed his hearers with the thought of living for others rather than for self.

The music Sunday was of a very high order. At the latter service Mr. Howard Dyott sang a baritone solo in fine style. At the morning exercise a large choir under the direction of Dr. A. S. Hall rendered the "Hallelujah chorus" and other selections in a professional manner. Among the soloists were Mrs. J. W. Cain, Misses Eva Hurlock, Burtie Burchinal, Edna Downey, Mabel Toulson, Messrs. Alwyn M. Culp, Thomas W. Perkins, George White, accompanied by a full choir; Miss Anna G. Lambert, organist.

Class Day Exercises.

An original and charming program was presented by the Normal Graduates Monday morning. A mock commencement at the boarding house was the first feature, Miss Daisy Nicholson, acting the part well as an attractive landlady. Miss Lillian A. Matthews furnished good music. The "take off" of the professors capped the climax and gave delight to the scholars, teachers and visitors. There was some fine imitations and portrayals of little habits amusing and striking as follows:

Florence King Bishop.....Miss Townsend
Sue Walton Dunbracco.....Dr. Micou
Florence Francis Nicholson.....Pro. Jones
Carrie Anette Jones.....Dr. Hall
Bertha Naomi Jump.....Prof. Clarke
Edna Ruth Downey.....Dr. Gault
Mary Brice Whaland.....Prof. Hau
Elizabeth Harrison Garey.....Mr. Hitch
Emma Ethel Jacquette.....Prof. Nielson

Hon. J. E. Ellegood, of Salisbury, addressed the Mt. Vernon Literary Society in Stam's Hall, Monday evening, his theme being "Love Your Neighbor as Yourself." "The first important act of a young man's life is to choose a help meet," said the learned speaker, and after this remark he launched forth into a plain, wholesome talk that appealed to the practical side of every man's life. Among other remarks he said, "the Christ life is the strong life—the only true life. Real life is not life that pours out its energies for pelf and place, but it is the life in which honor and fidelity and trust and truth are the guiding lights and love and service are the ruling motives."

Declamation Contest.

The declamation contest for the Dr H. G. Simpers medal was held in Stam's Hall Tuesday morning, the contestants and their subjects being as follows:

New Wheat at $1.25!

The first new wheat reached Baltimore on Thursday and brought $1 25 per bushel. Six bags were in the lot and it came from Lancaster county, Va. The sample was below the quality of the first wheat that came in last year still the price this year was 15 cents per bushel more. It is said that this difference in price represents the changed conditions of the wheat market. We only hope the price will continue around the $1.00 mark.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

THE Church Hill Bank opened for business Thursday.

THE thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Maryland Teachers' Association will be held at Ocean City, June 26, 27, 28 and 29. Dr. J. W. Cain is chairman of the executive committee.

THE annual stockholders meeting of the Tolchester Company was held Saturday afternoon at Tolchester. Last year's directors and officers were re-elected.

H. B. ROTE has a lot of new sheet music this week. "Dearie" is selling rapidly.

THE steamers to this point will likely begin round trips about July 2nd.

MR. DAVID B. FORD has purchased of Mr. W. G. Evans his fine driving horse and runabout.

WM. WILKINS has purchased of W. W. Beck, attorney, the Maslin or Newcomb property at Rock Hall for $3,225.

Filed Bill.—Messrs. Marion deK Smith and W. W. Beck, attorneys, on Monday filed a bill in the equity court for Kent county asking for a partition of the real estate of the late Andrew Woodall. The Orphans' Court have granted the administrators permission to sell or divide the personalty.

Storm.—The wind and rain storm visited Kent county Thursday evening about 7 o'clock. It interfered seriously with wheat harvest by knocking down the wheat and uncaping shocks. Two big trees in Mr. Jesse H. Usilton's yard, near Fairlee, were blown down and several in Chestertown.

A tenement house at Sudlersville was blown down and a barn unroofed.

Trolley.—Judge Joseph A. Wickes and Mr. Thomas G. Wroth have joined those mentioned in the NEWS last week in granting rights of way to the promoters of the Tolchester-Chestertown trolley. Alva A. Lamkin, Esq, was here this week and says the enterprise is a "sure thing," but will require time to complete the undertaking.

Hotel Fire.—Mrs. Jennie Byron, who occupies a room on the first floor of the Loud House, wishing to dispel the odor of a dead mouse, on Monday, lighted some paper and threw it in the fire place. In a few moments the matting took fire, then the curtains and soon the flames threatened to burn the building. An alarm was sounded and extinguishers belonging to Messrs. M. A. Toulson, J. C. Davis, H. B. Simmons and others arrived and checked the fire. The loss will amount to abount $200 covered by insurance in Kent Mutual and J. N. Wheatley's agency.

Some amusing stories are told of some of the boarders who climbed out on a porch roof, etc. It was a narrow escape from a serious fire. This fire again showed that every house in Chestertown should be provided with a fire extinguisher.

Jabbed With a Hatpin.—Some little excitement was occasioned at Tolchester Tuesday afternoon by a young woman stabbing a young man with a hatpin. A bystander, who witnessed the affair, said that the young woman had been riding a horse on the riding track, and that she spied the young man. She jumped from the animal and walked over to him. The latter, however, turned away from her, when the girl grabbed the pin from her hat and jabbed it in his side. Later, it was stated, the young man fainted and the report was circulated that he was dead. This added to the excitement, but when the steamer returned to the city the young man was seen on board, apparently none the worse off for his experience. The young woman also came to the city on the same steamer.

The Fish Law.—Mr. Oregon Milton Dennis, State Game Warden, has found a provision of the City Charter under which he says he will prosecute persons exposing for sale or having in possession any striped bass or rockfish weighing less than half a pound each, or any white perch weighing less than a quarter of a pound each. Section 457 of the Charter provides:

"No person shall expose for sale or have in his possession, offering for sale, any striped bass or rock weighing less than one half pound each, or any white perch weighing less than one quarter of a pound each; any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined not less than $20 or be confined in jail not more than 30 days, or both, in the judgment of the court."

"You will see by this," said Mr. Dennis, "that the city provision is stronger as to rock and perch than that of the Act of 1902, which was repealed, in that it will be more easy to prosecute under a weight law than under the size law, because proof will be more certain. Under the Charter provision the having in possession or selling of fish other than those of the prescribed weight becomes a criminal offense. Under the Act of 1902 civil magistrates had jurisdiction in these cases; under the Charter provision the grand jury and criminal court will have jurisdiction.

"I want to call attention to the fact that certain fishermen at the head of the bay are violating the 800-yard law in setting pound nets. I want to warn them that I shall, without delay, set proper machinery in motion to prosecute them to the full extent of the law, because they have been warned often enough."
