Double Sunday Train Service on the Delaware Division.

On Sunday, May 27, two Sunday trains in each direction will be established on the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and branches, except the Smyrna Branch and the line between Georgetown and Franklin City. No Sunday trains will be operated on the Smyrna Branch and only one train in each direction will be run between Georgetown and Franklin City.

Through trains will leave Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, at 7.06 a. m., and 3.46 p. m. Sundays; leave Wilmington 7.53 a. m., 4.30 p. m., and arrive Delmar at 10.58 a. m. and 7.35 p. m. Returning, trains will leave Delmar at 7.00 a. m. and 3.47 p. m. Sundays, arrive Wilmington 10.05 a. m. and 6.52 p. m., arriving at Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, 11.00 a. m. and 7.45 p. m. Connections will be made with branch trains in each direction, as indicated above. For time at local stations consult new time table.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

Engagements Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Robins of 1714 Madison avenue, Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pearle Huntington Robins, and Dr. Joseph W. Holland, son of the late Dr. J. T. Holland of Centreville, Md. The marriage will take place on June 20, after which the bride and bridegroom will leave for Deer Park, where Dr. Holland will be the resident physician this summer. Dr. Holland is a brother of Mr. J. Thos. Holland, of Centreville.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Price have issued cards announcing the coming marriage of their sister, Ida Clara Sparks, to Mr. Harry Linkwood Price, of Baltimore. The ceremony will take place Tuesday afternoon June 26th, 1906 at 1 o'clock, Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Centreville.

A LIFE WORTH LIVING.

The Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, publishes the following card from Rev. Webster M. Strayer, one of the best known ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church and well-known in Kent county where he has served charges in Chestertown and Wesley Chapel. He retired from active work last March and is now living with his son in Rochester, N. Y. It will do any one good to read of such a beautiful sun setting to a noble life:

SEVENTY YEARS—I have this day passed the seventieth milestone on the way to heaven. The way has never been hard, and it grows broader, and brighter all the time.

I have not lived in vain and I know that I shall live forever. Therefor my heart sings over the past a song of gratitude, sings to the future a song of hope. This has been a happy day. My children love me my friends cherish me, and many have sent sweet words of appreciation. Letters by the score have come, no less than forty by today's mail. Letters from children and old people. From many whom I have inspired with a love for Christ; from sorrowing ones whom I have comforted; from sick to whom I have ministered; from ministers and by many members of my own and other churches.

And such letters so full of love and confidence, and prayers for my happiness and restoration to health and usefulness—my heart has been made tender and glad today and I thank God that I have lived.—W. M. Strayer.

LEMON AS A BEAUTIFIER.

Lemons used externally will aid in beautifying anyone. There is nothing more valuable for the toilet table than a solution of lemon juice; a little rubbed into the hands, face and neck at night will not only whiten but soften the skin. A paste made of magnesia and lemon juice applied to the face and hands upon lying down for a 15-minutes rest, will bleach the skin beautifully

For discolored or stained finger nails, a teaspoonful of lemon juice in a cup of warm, soft water is invaluable; this is one of the very best manicure aids. It will loosen the cuticle from the finger-nails, as well as remove discolorations. In the West Indies a lemon bath is almost a daily luxury. Three or four limes or lemons are sliced into the water and allowed to lie for half an hour, in order that the juice may be extracted. A remarkable sense of freshness and cleanliness is given to the skin.

Lemon juice in water is an excellent dentifrice. This is about the only simple remedy for removing the tartar and is also valuable for sweetening the breath. Lemon juice and a pinch of salt will remove the most obstinate strains. Never throw away lemon or orange peel, for these alone will often take away stains without using water.

Hogs in Orchards.

As scavengers, or for consuming refuse that cannot be marketed, hogs are almost indispensible in an orchard. The fattening of hogs on apples may be considered a successful method, it being certain that this fruit possesses a value for that purpose that has been overlooked, and the destruction of insects by hogs in consuming the fallen apples has given a new value to orchards and will probably check their destruction, which in some sections of the country has already progressed to a considerable extent. The animals should be allowed in the orchard from the time the fruit begins to fall until it is time to gather apples for the winter, and they will, in most cases be found, in good condition for hardening with grain for slaughtering, and the meat will be tender and of excellent flavor. When it is neccessary to put them into the pen boiled apples mixed with a small quantity of corn, oats, peas or buckwheatmeal will make them fat in a short time and fill the farmer's pork barrel with sound, sweet pork of the first quality.—Exchange.

HAD KENT COUNTY "CRABS."

Big Snapping Turtles Frighten Negroes at Tolchester Pier.

Three huge snappers created consternation among the negroes on the Tolchester pier this morning. They arrived on the steamer Susquehanna from Betterton and were consigned to R. J. Fagan, of 855 Columbia avenue. The box in which they were shipped was labeled "Kent county crabs" by a funny officer of the boat, and each and every negro in sight was presented to the cru taceans by the same officer after the box was removed to the wharf.

A part of the lid was torn off so that all could get a good look at the colossal "crabs." One peep was enough for all the negroes save one, who gazed at the snappers with great curiosity. Finally he said: "Well, if dem is Kent county crabs, den I don't want fur to go to Kent county nevah no mo'."

The turtles weigh about to twenty pounds each and the ship's officers tell different stories about them. Some say that they went up on the sand along the Sassafras River to lay, and were caught there; the rest said that they went up to one of the Betterton hotels presumbaly to get something to eat and were caught.

Baltimore Fire.

Not since the great fire of 1904 has Baltimore been visited by such devastation by flames. For a time the entire water front was threatened, and the greatest difficulty was experienced in confining the flames on the north side of the harbor to the big wharf of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company.

The damage to the steamship Essex and cargo is estimated at about $300,000. The vessel itself is worth about $300,000 and the cargo at from $150,000 to $200,000.

The six barges belonging to the same company, loaded with cotton and rosin, were with their cargoes valued at about $200,000

The damage to the Savannah pier of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company, West Falls avenue and Block street, amounted to $50,000.

By a singular coincidence, the fire of early this morning started almost exactly where the big fire of 1904 stopped.
