Wedensday 3 Nov. 1813

Charles ploughing, Pompey hauled Rails till Breakfast Lewen dug in the Garden, Jack at Sundays, & afterwards all hands were raising Potatoes, Hickman & I at the Corn Crib, a fine mild day

Thursday 4th

Charles Ploughing, finished about 6 Acres in 8 days Pompey Hauling Planks from the Sawmill - Lewen attending Sundays & Mr. Luke who covered the Corn Crib Hickman & I putting up Thatch boards &c. a fine day Jack picking Potatoes &c.

Friday 5th

Charles ploughing, Pompey bro. the last of the Planks & Rails before Breakfast Lewen put up Cabbages & afterwards all hands at the Potatoes Hickman & I made & put up two Hog houghs, a fine moderate day — put up 4 gates to fatten

Saturday 6th

Charles ploughing Pompey & Lewen at Sundry Jobs say drawing straw, Lewen went to Town for Nails &c. Hickman & I making Hog houghs &c. Jack feeding Hogs &c. a fine day - I went in the Evening & purchased 10 Steers over at the York Road near Mr. Letts for £8 15s

Monday 8th

Charles ploughing, all hands at the Potatoes, Hickman painting the New House, a remarkable fine warm day

Tuesday 9th Nov. 1813

Charles ploughing, Pompey, Lewen, Jack & I finished ploughing Potatoes, Hickman absent, a fine temperate day

Wedensday 10th

This Morning very foggy & damp & so continued throughout, with slight rain towards Charles ploughing, Pompey & the rest Harrowed the Potato Ground, afterwards Lewen went to Mr. Ruparts, Jany from &c. Pompey Hauled Stones &c. Jack attending the Pigs &c. This day let Herbert Smith have a Ram Lamb to his Ewes, he to give me the 1/3 of the Lambs — The Kerry Cow Calved a Bull Calf last night

Thursday 11th Hickman absent

Charles ploughing, Pompey Hauling Stones, Lewen at Sundry Jobs mostly about the Garden, planting Kitchen Roots, Beans, Peas & Stones in the left Border, I put a parcel of Bones into a composition of fresh Cow Dung & warm Water & let them by the fire Hickman boarded the West Gable of the Barn & nailed a part of the Barn Floor &c. a fine day

Friday 12

Charles ploughing, Pompey went to Mr. Ruparts for Bran & afterwards Hauled Stones, Lewen at Sundry Jobs, & in the Evening filling Gutters, Hickman finished the Barn Floor nailing & enclosed two Corners of the Barn to hold Grain, a very fine day & Cold

Saturday 13th

Charles ploughing, Pompey Carting the Barn floor in the forenoon & spreading Solomon's Mouldhill to kill the Lazy Cow in the Evening, Lewen at Sundry Jobs and planting Haws in Drills after remaining two days mixed with Cow Dung besides the fire - Hickman put up another Crib in the Corner of the Barn, made a small door & sawed some Laths, a Cold day likely to snow