Wednesday 15th Dec. 1813

Pompey & Lewen threshing, Charles at Sunday Jobs Phillips Warren broke 19 lbs of Flax, Frosty & dry

Thursday 16th

All hands employed as yesterday, Phillips Warren broke 22 lbs of Flax a little wet in the Evening

Friday 17th

Pompey & Charles threshing, Lewen drawing straw shoveling up Dung &c. a very wet day —

Saturday 18th

Pompey threshing, Charles thatched the Cows shade from Breakfast time, Lewen & I attending, put up Cart & Rails between the Yard & the shade, put the 2 Bulls & 4 Calfs to Hay, Jack Sick this day a fine day

Monday 20th

All hands employed in digging & hauling Earth, & making up Dung hills in the Yard, Hickman made a sheep trough & laid a plat form in the New Barn a damp day with a fall of Snow toward Evening

Tuesday 21st

A New frost last night the people employed as yesterday finished digging out the sheep's pen under the upper shade, put up their Rack divided the Flock & put them to Hay a cloudy & very hard Frost —

Wedy. 22

Pompey & Charles threshing Rye, Lewen at sunday Jobs Jack went to Mill with Corn &c. — a very New Frost last night & all this day Therm. 22 in the Morning

Thursday 23 Dec. 1813

Pompey & Charles threshing Corn & Jack & Lewen sporting & Hooting a moderate day not frost

Friday 24th

Charles took the Corn to Mr Reid & Mr Henderson Pompey by prescription set out to Annapolis to return by Monday Evening, Lewen & Jack cleaned the Rye & measured of yellow Corn 11 Bands of 3 Beats each produced 15½ 52½ Bushels when thrashed & of white 9 do — " — " — 13½ by which it appears that the yellow produced less than ⅓ of the White just half of Shelled Corn —
a hard frost last night & a temperate day
Young Dutchy —

Saty. 25

This being Christmas day, all hands were idle, Pompey got liberty to go to Annapolis yesterday, Charles & Molly went abroad, Jack & Lewen attending Cattle &c. a fine Frosty day

Monday 27th

Charles Hamilton Rails, Jack & Lewen Fencing, I went to Mr Hays & Mr Scott's with Hooter, a gloomy day with a little Snow & afterwards Slat & Frost —

Tuesday 28th

Charles & Lewen putting in Hay, Cut Straw &c. Jack attending Cattle &c. — Pompey not returned a slight fall of Ice this day & in the Evening Mild Rain

Wedy. 29th

Charles went to the Shop & got the Horses shod, & afterward put in the remainder of the Hay, Lewen & Jack employed at Sunday Jobs, it rained mostly in the forenoon, and in the Evening cleared up — Pompey not returned —