Wednesday 27th April 1814

[illegible] Dolly had a Filly Foale [illegible] day 35 days Pompey & Ephrim with the [illegible] ploughing Duty, Charles ploughed the Corn [illegible] Flax, Lewin dying the Garden, he planted some [illegible] Beans, Jack at Sundry Jobs, a very warm day Thr. 90, Lady — a Sound time

Thursday 28th

Charles went to Westminster with 8 Bls of Flour Pompey Harrowed the Flax Ground & sowed it with G. Reid & Timothy Seed Lewin in the Garden Ephrim & Sarah Hoeing &c — a gloomy day —

Friday 29th

Set out for Annapolis & Baltimore with the Waggon & 8 Barrels of Flour, I got safe to Baltimore that Evening some rain in the Evening, got Coals to young Patty, arrived at 12

Saturday 30th

The Waggon arrived sold the Flour to Mr. Claget at $5 3/8 p Barrel, after Judging Charles set out for Annapolis
I remained in Town all night, a good deal of heavy Rain

Sunday 1st May

Set out for Annapolis & arrived there about 1 O'Clock a fine dry warm day —

Monday 2

Came out to Mr. Maynadier's & got the Waggon & Cart under Weight with my Negroes & those of W. & T.
Reid, they came on to the Ferry, & I to B. Mow this Eve.
a fine dry warm day, Frank Reid in Company —

Tuesday 3 May 1814

The people with the Waggon came to Town, & about 2 O'Clock were sent off accompanyed by a Bull wh. I got from Mr. Heslip to keep till he sends for him, I left B. Mow & slept at the Mills, as did also the people, a warm day, found the Colt sick

Wednesday 4th

Set out from Conn's & Breakfasted at Rentes Town, the Waggon stopt at Finks when it appeared that the Colt was foundered Charles called at M. Shillings with Cole, I came on to Westminster & left F. Reid to manage the Waggon & people whom he took home all night, a very warm day, I got home at 2 O'Clock & found that Pompey had sowed out the Rye Field with the Grey Planter except the Small bit of Wheat which he sowed with White, that he had ploughed with the Steers wh. had to stop with Warm Weather, that Lewin had dug some in the Garden & that Cody had been with the White Bull last Monday —

Thursday 5th

This Morning the Waggon arrived with the people, the Colt very badly Foundered, I placed him afterwards in the Creek, & had him Bled in each Leg, after dinner Charles ploughed Corn Ground, Pompey & Jerry drove over to Slider's Farm, 22 Hogs including the Old Sow, I cut the black Boar, & tied the young Bull, having brt. home a Bull of Mr. Heslip's to keep till he wd. send for him, they afterwd. worked at digging Gutters, Lewin & young Charles worked in the Garden, digging & planted some Corn, Ephrim fixing his wife & Family &c.
Jack attending Cattle, getting Stones &c. a fine Cool fair day —