Saturday 9th July 1814

Pompey, Ephraim, with Bet, Jack, Lewis & the two Charleys Cradling Wheat, Jenny & Robert planted about 3 Bushels of Potatoes among the Corn — Note Having on the 25th Ultto Planted some rows of Corn with Mountain, some with Sulphuriana P. & Ept. some without, & having repeatedly examined the Effect which I could never distinguish till yesterday when I could clearly observe that those planted were a much better colour than that that got none, & that the Mountain Plaster was just as well equal to the other, it also appeared in the application to Clover, that they operated so that no difference could be discovered — a fine day —

Monday 11th

Pompey & Ephraim Cutting Wheat, Charles Hauled dung to the Potatoes among the Corn, Jack & Robert spread it Showery in the morning fair in the Evening & Moderate Mr. B. H. & Ne & I dined at Mr. Reid's with Upton &c. Jenny Sick

Tuesday 12th

Pompey & Ephraim finished Cutting Wheat, Charles & Lewis Hauling in Wheat & Rye, a Cool fair day, Jenny Sick — Therm. 70 @ 80 — the Bible after Sprightly

Wednesday 13

Pompey & Ephraim Cutting Rye, Charles & ~~Ephraim~~ Lewis Hauling in Wheat, Jack Thrashing yesterday's Wheat Jenny better & at work Fair Moderate Ther. 80 — Sprightly C — d

Thursday 14 July 1814

Pompey & Ephraim Cradling Rye, Jack Thrashing, Charles & Lewis Hauling in Wheat, a moderately cool day —

Friday 15

Pompey Ephraim &c. finished Cutting Rye by Dimmutime & afterwards went over to Cut at Coombs Rye Charles & Lewis Hauling Wheat, a fine day Therm. 75 —

Saty. 16

Pompey & Ephraim Cradling Rye at Coombs, Charles & Lewis Hauling Wheat, ~~Jack sick~~ a warm day

Monday 18th

Pompey & Ephraim finished Cutting Coombs Rye by 9 O'clock, ground their Scythes till dimmutime & then began Cutting Oats, Charles & Lewis, little Charles Jenny &c. putting up a Stack of Rye that fell yesterday in a gusty Wind when there was a very heavy Threatenable Rain in the Evening w.h prevented Mr. B. H. & I from coming from I. Jenn, Stay'd all Night at Wm. Wm. Hillier's

Plaistered a part of 9 Rows of Corn with the Sweepings of the Floor

Tuesday 19th

Pompey, Ephraim & Lewis Cradling Oats, Jenny the two Charleys & Robert Hauling & Stacking Rye, Jack, Bet, & Priss pulling Flax, a fine dry temperate day

Wednesday 20th

Pompey, Ephraim & Lewis Cradling Oats, Charles Senr. & Jun. Hauling Rye, Jenny Ploughing & Hoeing Potatoes next Jos. Peppels, Jack Bet & Priss pulling Flax, a fine dry temperate day —