Monday 8th August.

Charles & Jerry Ploughing, Jack filling Ruts &c. the rest at Sunday Jobs fine Weather —

Tuesday 9th

I set out for Baltimore with 10 Steers accompanied by Ephraim & Mr Thompson & proceeded as far as Owen's Mills where we remained all night

Wednesday 10th

Proceeded to Murray's Tavern & Mills on this side B. Mors, left the Cattle there & went on to B. but finding the Butchers unwilling to go to see them except our Ecklut I on

Thursday 11th

Brought them in to Town & had them put into Town & put into Hicks yard at the May Pole on

Friday 12th

Sold the Cattle to Gould at 6¼ Cents per to be ascertained by an average two Bullocks

Saty. 13

Gould having his market to attend nothing could be done till Monday

Monday 15

Attended & had the 2 Bullocks weighed which came far short of my expectation, as I thought they wd. weigh from 5 to 5½ Cts. & they only weighed 430½ lbs. from wt. I think it always better to take the best price offered & have done with the Matter. Wt. I set out at 4 O'Clock & lodged at D. Hall's

Wt. of the best average steer 452

Tuesday 16th

Arrived at home by 9 O'Clock having had unmerciably dry & hot Weather all the time, I found that the Blind Horse had died in my absence in consequence of which only one Plough had been working since Wednesday last, that the other people had been hauling Stones thrashing &c. & that 3 Barrels of Rye for Chop had been received from Mr. Supt. that the wheat of my own in the Barn Floor had produced 5 Barrels & this day I sent for Chop & Barrels of Rye to Supt. Pompey took it with Plough Irons &c. to the Shop a very warm day —
