Tuesday 30th August 1814

Charles & Jeny Ploughing, Lewen filling gutters, Pompey & young Charles Cutting Wood, Jack & Robert after Cattle Ephrim Still poorly & doing little, a fine day —

Wednesday 31st

Charles Ploughing with 3 Horses, Jeny Hauling Manure with the ~~Cart~~ Waggon & 2 Steers & 2 Horses, Lewen, Pompey, Ephrim &c. digging Clay, loading Dung &c. Jack & Robert after the Hogs Cattle &c. a fine day, young Charles hauling Manure & Clay with a Steer, & the Pony —

Thursday 1st Sept.

Charles ploughing, Lewen filling Gutters, Jeny & young Ch. hauling Manure, Pompey & Ephrim digging Clay &c. Jack & Robert attending to Hogs Cattle a fine day —

Friday 2.

Charles ploughing, young Charles hauling Manure, Pompey Lewen & Jeny Cutting & Hauling Logs to the Kiln Ephrim helping to Load Manure &c. Jack & Robert as usual a fine day

Saty. 3

Charles Ploughing Jeny Charles & Ephrim Hauling Dung Pompey & Lewen Crosscutting Logs &c. Killed a Lay in the Evening, I went with Hum to J. Jones to meet Hunter but the did not come a warm dry day —

Monday 5th

Charles Ploughing, the rest all employed in Cutting & Hauling Logs to Mr. Raphael the last a Lay-on was left by the way the Coupling pole of the Waggon having Broken,

Tuesday 6th Sept. 1814

Charles ploughing, the rest employed in killing a Bullock &c. till after Breakfast, when all hands went to load & frame the large Log which was with much difficulty accomplished a light Rain throughout — It appears the Blue Sow Pig, suspected on Sunday being Killed a Barrow — the rest 109 days on Kiln &c.

Wednesday 7th

Charles ploughing, the rest at Sunday Jobs, Say Hauling Logs, Scantling digging Gutters &c. &c. a fine day —

Thursday 8th

Charles ploughing, Pompey & young Charles Raking clover, Ephrim Lewen, & Jeny Hauling Stones & filling up Gutters Jack & Robert attending Hogs &c. a dry day —

Friday 9th

Charles Ploughing Lewen & Ephrim filling Gutters till Breakfast, then began to thrash Rye about 11 O'Clock, Pompey & young Charles Raking Clover, Jeny hauling Stones, Dung &c. Jack & Robert after the Cattle &c. a warm fair day —

Saturday 10th

Charles Ploughing, Pompey & young Charles Raking Clover Ephrim & Lewen thrashing, Jeny hauling Dung, Jack & Robert after Cattle Hogs &c. I went to Middleburgh & saw Hartsorn who proposed to begin to thresh Job in a Month — I left with Mr. Kellip 220 $ to buy Bullocks a fine day

Monday 12th

Charles finished Corquit Ploughing the Oat field, took the Ploughs to the Shop & brought home Scantling, Pompey & young Charles Raked Clover, Ephrim & Lewen thrashing Rye quit & cleaned at 12 O'Clock 17½ Bushels in about 7 days, Jack & Robert taking Carry Hogs &c. Mr. Reid's Family dined here, a heavy Gust began about 5 O'Clock