Tuesday 13th Sept. 1814

Constant Rain last night Charles ploughing, Jeny hauling Manure, Charles brot the Plough Horse Scantlin from the Mill & commenced ploughing the Clover ~~land~~ Ground after Dinner Ephraim & Lewis thrashing Rye, Robt. looking after the Hogs &c. a gentle Rain all day —

Wednesday 14th

Charles Ploughing Clover Ground, Ephraim & Lewis thrashing Rye, Pompey & young Charles spreading Dung, Jeny hauling Manure, in the Evening went for plough, Harrow & 3 Bushels of Chop &c — a dark moist day Jack confined to Bed

Thursday 15th

Charles Ploughing Clover ground, Ephraim & Lewis thrashing & cutting Water Fences, Jeny & Charles Jr. hauling Dung Jack in Bed, Pompey dealing Manure, Robt. after Hogs &c. it rained mostly all day I went to Jno. Jones & purchased 10 young year old Hens @ 20 Cents —

Friday 16th

Charles Ploughed, Jeny hauled Manure, & Pompey & Charles Jr. spread Manure &c. till Dinner when it became so wet they could not work it rained most of the Evening, Ephraim & Lewis thrashed a day, Jack confined, Robt. after Hogs &c. —

Saturday 17th

Charles Ploughing Clover Ground, Pompey spread Dung till Breakfast, & afterwards ploughed also, Charles Jr. spread Manure &c. Jeny hauled, Ephraim & Lewis thrash. Rye, Jack & Robt. after Hogs &c. fair till Evening when there was a smart shower —

Monday 19th Sept. 1814

Charles & Pompey Ploughing Clover Ground, Ephraim & Charles Jr. filling Ruts, spreading Manure &c. Jeny hauling Dung till Breakfast, went to Mill with 20½ Bushels of Rye & 2 Bags of Corn & brought back 3 Bushels of Chop and some scantling & in the Evening began to Harrow preparatory for Sowing Rye. Lewis Moulded Celery &c. Jack Robt. Bet & Priss lifted the Flax, a fine dry cool day —

Tuesday 20

Charles & Pompey Ploughing, Ephraim & Chas. Jr. spread. Manure filling Gutters &c. Jeny Harrowing, Lewis at Sunday Jobs Jack & Robt. looking after Cattle &c. Bet lifted Hemp, a fine day Mr. Harris & the Mr. Phillips dined here killed a Bullock in the Evening —

W. Hutman this day Jr. of Clocks making door fast.

Wedy. 21st

~~A great deal of Rain fell last night~~ Charles Ploughing Pompey ploughed forenoon & Lewis Harrowed in the Evening with the Horses, Jeny having stalled the Oxen in the forenoon, went to Mill in the Evening, Ephraim & Jr. Chas filling Gutters &c. fair weather

Thursday 22

Much Rain last night the people at Sunday Jobs the Ground too wet for Harrowing & ploughing &c.

Friday 23

Much rain last night Charles filling Gens Hatch. Wade &c. Ephraim & Lewis thrashing Rye, Pompey & young Chas filling Gutters & spread Dung Jeny hauling

Saty. 24th

Much rain last night, & during the forenoon Ephraim & Lewis thrashing, the rest at Sunday Jobs, say making Rope filling Gens &c. — fair in the Evening —