Wednesday 28th June 1815

All hands employed in Ploughing & Hoeing Corn, putting in remainder of Hay &c. Charles took the 2 Mares to Town the Bay Mare — the Gray refused a fine day.

Thursday 29th

Pompey & Charles Ploughing Corn, the last Hoeing & put in Some Oats in the Barn, a fine day, I had Cattle at S. Town Inn — The Bus Hired

Friday 30

Finished Ploughing & Hoeing Corn & Lower Potatoes a very warm day

Saty. 31st July

all hands employed Ploughing & Hoeing Potatoes & Sundry little Jobs warm weather —

Monday 3d

I set out yesterday for Baltimore with Mary & slept at Dr. Hall's & went to town this day and return on Sunday the 9th during this week the weather was extremely warm, I found the people had been at Wood & Grass with 2 Cradles since Wednesday Evening

Monday 10

All hands employed in Cradling Grain &c. the Weather still warm, 2 Cradles going

Tuesday 11th

Pompey Ephraim, (& Lewis from Breakfast time) Cradling Grain the rest Raking & Binding fine day & very warm

Wedny. 12th

Pompey Ephraim (& Lewis from Breakfast time) Cradg. Grain the rest Raking & Binding dry & very warm

Thursday 13th

Cradling as yesterday, the Cut I suppose about 5 or 6 Acres and did not Shock but a Small part very warm

Friday 14th

Cradling as yesterday cut about 4½ Acres of Wheat & set up a part of yesterday's Cutting very warm

Thos. 86

Saturday 15th July 1815

Pompey & Ephraim Cradled about 4 Acres which was not Shocked Charles & Lewis put in two Loads of Rye, & pr of Oats a heavy Gust coming on about 6 o'Clock that stopt the work, a very warm day — Sold 36 lb weather 8 3p to B. Betty N. Reid got his Cag

Monday 17th

Pompey, Ephraim, & Lewis finished Cutting Rye, about 7½ Acres, Betty Jack & Mr. Warren pulling Flax, the two Charles & Robt. Hauled in 5 Loads of Wheat, a fine day, not quite so warm as formerly

Tuesday 18th

Pompey, Ephraim, & Lewis Cradling Oats, Charles, Charles & Robt. Hauled in 3 Loads of Wheat, & in the Evening helped Betty Jack &c. to pull Flax, a fine warm fair day.

Wedny. 19th

Cradling Oats as yesterday, the Remainder at pulling Flax, Mr. Bennie & I went to upper Reid's a very warm day

Thursday 20th

Pompey, Ephraim, & young Charles Cradling Oats, in the Old Field to Breakfast, & after Breakfast they cut about 4½ Acres in the Corn field I suppose in all about 6 Acres Charles & Lewis Hauled in 2 Loads of Wheat & 1 of Rye, the rest were Raking & Binding the Remainder of the Rye, a very warm day with a few drops of Rain about dinner time, & a deal of thunder

Friday 21st

Pompey, Ephraim & young Charles cradled Oats at between 5 & 6 Acres, Charles & Lewis Hauled in 3 Loads of Rye, & helped the Others to finish pulling Flax, a very warm day

Saty. 22

Pompey Ephraim & young Charles finished Cutting Oats by 12 o'Clock having been equal to 25 days of One hand employed in Cutting Acres of Rye, & 13½ days do. — do.
in Cutting Acres of Oats, say 15 days from beginning to Ending
The Rest was binding & Hauling Oats, sent the Hires to Settlement