Wedensday 23. August 1815

The Charles Ploughing, Ephram & Lewen cuting Wood, Pompy & Robert filling Gutters, Jack attending Cattle, from 11 to 1 O Clock a heavy rain which produced a great Flood, fair in the Evening

Thursday 24

The Charles Ploughing, Pompy & Robert filling Gutters, Ephram & Lewen putting up Fences in the forenoon & in the Evening helping Pompy &c. Stowey throughout, very Hairy

Friday 25

The two Ploughs at Work, Pompy Ephram, Lewen filling Gutters &c. Jack lifting Flax Robert Weeding &c. a fine dry day & moderate —

Saturday 26

The two Ploughs at work Ephram & Lewen cut 3 Cords of wood, Pompy & Robert filling Gutters, Jack lifting Flax a warm day, I went to Fairtown

Monday 28

Charles at the Shop getting Ploughs repaired Lewen & Ephram cleaning oats, Pompy Robt. & Jack filling Gutters, young Charles Harrowing preparatory to Sowing, E. & L. thrashed & cleaned 7 Bushels of Flax seed, a fine day —

Tuesday 29

Charles, Charles & Pompy Ploughing, the Poney & Grey Horse both agreed to Clad, put in Tom, he worked pretty well faith spreading Dung, & Robert dug Gutters a warm day —

Wednesday 30

Pompy & Charles Ploughing, young Charles could not work the Horses he dug Gutters, Robt. & Jack at Sundry Jobs, Ephram & Lewen thrashing Rye, a very warm day

Thursday 31

Pompy & Charles Ploughing, Ephram & Lewen thrashing Rye, Jack & Charles repairing Fences &c. Robert cleaning Stables &c. a windy cool day, I & Rose went to Mr. Reids

Friday 1. September 1815

This morning very cool, Charles ploughing, Pompy & Lewen time, afterwards went to the Mill with 12 Bushels Rye for Flour & Chop, Ephram & Lewen thrashed the Dimmetime say 3½ days 24 Bushels Rye in the afternoon Lewen Harrowed, & Ephram was mending the Barn Floor, Jack & Robt. at Sundry Jobs Young Charles Sick

Saturday 2

Charles & Pompy Ploughing Clover Ground, young Ch. unwell, Ephram & Lewen at Sundry Jobs Jack & Robt at various Jobs

Sunday 3

I set out for Baltimore accompanied by Isabella Sanders, & remained there till Wednesday morning when I set out for York, got there that Evening & left it on Saturday morning accompanied by Matilda Scantlan, on my return found that Pompy had quit ploughed for 3 days, laid out lands afterwards & had commenced Sowing Rye on Saturday 1 Bushel that Charles has ploughed on the cut Harrowed and thrashed Wheat &c. that the spotted Sow had 8 Pigs on Thursday, & that Chas. Dehoy had brought 2 Bushels of Rye for Seed —

Monday 4

Pompy cleaning Rye Sowing, Big Charles Ploughing little Charles Harrowing, Ephram & Lewen thrashing Wheat, Robt. weeding the Garden, & Jack at Sundry Jobs a very warm day

Tuesday 5

A Shower of Rain fell last night, all hands employed same as yesterday, Worthy went to Baltimore by the Stage from Westminster, I went to Jeffrey Reids and purchased 20 Hens at 25 cents, but I had got a small Speckled Rooster into the Bargain — a very Heavy Gust at Bed time produced a great Flood, the day previously very warm