Monday 2 October 1815

Ephram & Lewen filling Gutters in the Wheat Field, Jack and Robert picking Corn, Pompey in quest of 4 Steers that went astray he found them at Mr. Mr. Kemp's Fried, Big Charles at Sundry Jobs, little Charles hauling Dung a very fine day, I went to Sangtown in the Evening —

Tuesday 3

Pompey & Lewen Washing Corn, Big Charles at Sundry Jobs in the forenoon, in the Evening took 42 Bushels of Corn to the Mill Ephram filling Gutters, little Charles hauling Manure, Jack & Robert at Sundry Jobs, James Henderson planted the Gable end of the House, a very fine day, I moulded Celery —

Wednesday 4th

Ephram & Jack filling Gutters, Pompey cleaning Corn (42 to Mill) & putting up a Fodder House young Charles hauling Manure Big Charles Went to Mill & hauled Manure in the Evening, a fine day —

Thursday 5th

Pompey & young Charles Hauling Corn Fodder, Lewen & Big Charles Hauling Manure on the Meadow, Ephram & Robt. Spreading, Jack at Sundry Jobs, I attended a Meeting of the T. P. Company at T. Town, a very fine day — Mr. Howe & I contracted for making the Road from T. Town to Thomas's about 5.2.46 at 13/ Perch, the Culverts at 2 Ho make the B.B. Bridge with the Wagon

Friday 6th

All hands employed in Gathering & Hauling Corn Blades, making a Fodder House, Hauling & Spreading Manure on the Meadow &c. a very fine day —

Saty. 7th

A good deal of rain last night, Pompey & Big Charles housing Oats, Ephram, Lewen, & young Charles hauling Stones & filling Gutters in the forenoon, in the Evening Ephram pointed Rails & L. & Hs. Lewen opposite the Upper Stalls, moderate Rain mostly all day —

Monday 9 October 1815

a deal of Rain yesterday afternoon

Big Charles & Lewen hauled 2 loads of Hay from the Blacksmith's, young Charles & Ephram hauling Stones & filling Gutters, Pompey at Sundry Jobs, Jack & Robt. at Sundry Jobs, a fine day, I went to Sangtown to a Meeting to appoint Officers —

Tuesday 10th

Big Charles & Lewen hauled 2 loads of Hay in all about 3 1/2 Tons, Ephram & young Charles hauling Stones & filling Gutters in the Forenoon, Pompey looked for Beef Customers went to the Smith's Shop, in the Evening they put in Oats & Millet a Brindled Steer I went to Mr. Reid's Westminster &c. a fine day —

Wednesday 11th

Big Charles at the Shop getting the Waggon repaired &c. Ephm. & little Charles laying Stones hauling &c. Pompey & Lewen cleaning Oats &c. a remarkably fine day, I went to ~~Sangtown in the Evening~~ —

Thursday 12

The people employed much the same as yesterday a fine day, I went to T. Town in the Evening —

Friday 13

Lewen Pompey, Ephram & young Charles employed in hauling Hauling Stones, Cleaning Oats &c. &c. Robt. went with Charles to Mr. Browns, Jack to Mr. Ridgely's & brought home 19 yds. of Cloth &c. a fine day —

Saty. 14

Pompey & Lewen spreading Manure & digging Gutters, Ephram Jobbing about the yard, little Charles hauling Grass, Stones &c. Jack & Robt. at Sundry Jobs, Big Charles at Baltimore I went to Sangtown & sold Jones & Harris 19 or 20 Steers at the rate of 8 7/8 100 to be paid for every Saturday 40 per cent. Steers had that week the whole to be taken away by the middle of November a very fine day —