Monday 11th March 1816

yesterday Cozy had a Bull Calf, I this day set out for Baltimore, & Charles with the Waggon & 3½ Cwt. of B.W. Flour, 10 Bls of Wheat, & 26 of Rye Flour, Staid at Con's all night, it snowed from W. Minter to that, two nights in B.W. & returned on Thursday evening 14. & found the people has been employed in thrashing, cutting Wood &c. the Cold Weather

Friday 15.

Ephram Cutting Wood, Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Pompey attending Cattle & helping to thrash &c.

Satd. 16

Ephram Cutting Wood, Lewen & Charles thrashing Rye, Pompey after Cattle &c. a cold frosty day, Chs. came for B. Inn

Monday 18

Ephram Cutting wood for himself, Charles took Plaster to the Mill & in the evening hauled Ephram's wood Lewen & Charles cleaning Rye, Pompey assisting &c. a very cold day ~~frost~~ snow in the Evening

Sunday 19

Ephram Cutting Straw, Charles carried 96 Bushels of Rye to Mill, Lewen & young Charles cleaning Rye Robt. assisting a heavy fall of Snow last Night, kept thro' the day

Wednesday 20

Ephram & Robert hauling Rye to the Barn, Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Pompey attending Cattle, cleaning Stables &c. big Charles sick, a Lamb killed by the Hogs, a brisk thaw I painted the Cart

Thursday 21st

Lewen & young Charles thrashing Rye, Ephram & Pompey hauling Wood & Manure put in a new stew, big Charles sick Robt at Sunday Jobs a fine Cool day & day, I went to E. Ferry

Friday 22

Lewen & Charles thrashing Rye forenoon, & Lewen afternoon, Pompey & Ephram hauling Dung forenoon, in the Evening Ephram & young Ch. hauled some Logs at the Road & went for the Ox Cart, Pompey attend to the Cattle &c. a cold day & snow in the Evening Charles sick

Satd. 23

A heavy snow last night, Ephram & Lewen thrashing Rye, Pompey & young Charles at Sunday Jobs, big Charles better painted the ox cart Robt. at Sundays, a cold stormy day

Monday 25 March 1816

yesterday a Ewe died, young Charles went to Mill, Jany taxes &c. Ephram cutting Rails Timber, Pompey & Robert hauling Manure, Lewen thrashing Rye, Old Charles ploughed at the road, Hagerstown to load Manure, a fair warm day

Sunday 26th

Lewen thrashing Rye, Ephram cutting Wood for rails &c. & fine sick in the evening, Charles & Pompey hauling Dung, young Charles working with the Cart from Buckyard at the Road, W. Henry absent forenoon, a warm fair day

Wednesday 27th

Lewen thrashing Rye, young Charles at the road till dinner & in the evening thrashing it being wet Charles & Pompey hauling Dung, Ephram sick, Jacob spreading the meadow Robert filling Dung &c. fair till dinner afterwd. wet & fair in the Evening. Danl. Snook working at a Wheel barrow

Thursday 28th

Big Charles & Pompey hauling Manure in the Evening Charles took to Mill 48 Bushels of Rye, Lewen ~~& young Charles~~ cleaning Rye, Robert assisting, a fair day

Friday 29th Danl. Snook at work

A smart frost last night, Charles & Pompey hauling in Oats & Manure, Lewen & Robert trampling Oats, young Charles at the road forenoon, in the evening went for Danl. Snook at work

Saturday 30th

All hands employed in trampling Oats &c &c. about the yard it snowed & rained all day no work done at the road

Monday Apl. 1st

All hands employed in hauling a little Dung, cleaning Oats &c. except young Charles who was at the road & Ephram sick, a damp disagreable day and some rain, about 13 a thunder shower, the road people idle for an hour

Tuesday 2 Danl. Snook at work

All hands employed in trampling Oats putting Hay &c. Ephram a little better attend a Fence at the Road Danl. Snook a fine clear cold day