Monday 3 June 1816

Charles & Robert at the Brick yard, Pompey & young Charles hauling Dung on potatoes, Ephraim & Lewen replanting Corn, Jack cutting Potatoes, no hands at the Road today a very warm day, the Bees Hived Thermr. 80

Tuesday 4th

Charles & Robert at the Brick yard, Pompey & Lewen hauling dung to potatoes, Ephraim & young Charles hauling Stones, Jack & Alley replanting Corn, a fine day, a gust & little rain in the evening

Wednesdy. 5th

A good deal of rain fell last night, Pompey & Lewen hauling dung, Ephraim & young Charles at hauling Stones, Jack & Alley planting Corn in the forenoon, at dinner time a gust Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, a warm day

Thursdy. 6th

This Morning very cold, young Charles hauling Stones, Pompey went to Foster with Jack, & Dolly, the Calves — Ephraim Lewen, Jack & Alley replanting Corn &c. Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, Cold throughout the day

Friday 7th

Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, young Charles hauling at the Road, the rest finished replanting Corn, & afterwd planted potatoes &c. a cool dry day. Mr. Stowe ploughed in the evening

Saty. 8th

Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, Pompey went with Cato to the mund, he afterwd. cut straw &c. Ephraim & Lewen finished planting potatoes worked in the Garden &c. young Charles hauling at the Road, Jack weeding in the garden &c. a fine day but cool

Monday 10th

Young Charles at the road, big Charles Robt. & Jno. Lutz at the Brick yard, Pompey & Ephraim at fencing, hauling wood &c. Jack weeding in the garden & helping to the fencing Lewen cutting a Matter a fine day Shoemaker went away

Tuesday 11th June 1816

Charles hauling at the road, big Charles & Robert at Brick yard Jno. Lutz wheeling forenoon & he & Robert digging clay in the evening Ephraim & Pompey finished fencing & put the Cattle into the Wheat field, it being so much injured by the fly as not to be worth reaping, ~~Charles~~ Lewen not returned, supposed to be run away, sent Dolly, Pop, & Shelah to Foster, the former — the latter spend a fine forenoon day

Wedy. 12

Charles hauling at the road, big Ch. & Robt. at the Brick yard, Jno. Lutz wheeling, Pompey & Ephraim hauled wood forenoon, in the evening Ephraim dug in the Garden, Pompey planted early potatoes cut straw &c. Jack weeding the Garden reding Beans &c. a fine day

Thursdy. 13

Lewen came home last night, young Charles at the road, Ephraim cutting wood in the forenoon & in the evening with the Oxen hauling at the road, Pompey cut wood all day & Lewen in the garden, big Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, Jno. Lutz wheeling, a shower about 9 in the morning made 3/4 day at the road, in the evening & all night much thunder & rain

Friday 14th Paddy drunk 1/4 off

Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, young Charles all day & Ephraim forenoon at the road, Pompey & Lewen at sundry jobs forenoon in the evening thrashing, Jack weeding in the garden &c. Mr. Stowe ploughed forenoon, a heavy rain about 2 O'Clock, very warm all day — Paddy drunk 1/4 off C. McVey sick in the evening — Dan hook repairing Hay ladder &c.

Saturdy. 15

Ephraim & young Charles at the road, big Charles & Robt. at the Brick yard, Pompey at different jobs Lewen thrashed in the morning & afterwd. planted potatoes &c. remarkably warm, a shower at dinner time, I attended at Union town about N. Shepherds trial with the Turnpike Company. Paid Stockton & Finn