Monday 17th June 1816

Ephraim & young Charles at the road, Lewen & big Ch. thrashing Rye, Lewen dijing in the garden & planting Potatoes Pompey at Sunday Jobs, a gloomy day but little rain, Jack, Alley, & Robt. planting Corn

Sunday 18

Ephraim & Charles at the road, big Charles hanowing Corn, Pompey hauling Logs to mill &c. Lewen in the garden, Jack & Robt. setting up Corn, David hoeing at sunday jobs a fine clear moderate day — The Sun hot

Wedy. 19th

Ephraim & Charles at the road, Charles hanowing Corn, ploughed early potatoes, & ploughed at the road in both the ploughs, & afterwd. the double lea, Pompey took the mares to Jo. Fowler they agreed, he helped to set up Corn, thrashed Sept. & hoed potatoes Lewen planted, Lewen & Charles dig in the garden Jack Alley & Robt. set up Corn &c. a very warm day

Thursday 20th

Ephraim & young Charles at the road, Lewen digging in the garden, Pompey finished hoeing Potatoes, cleaned out the Stackyard &c. Charles thrashed Rye &c. Jack & Robert weed in the garden &c. a fine moderate day

Friday 21st

young Charles at the road, Pompey, Ephram & Lewen cutting clover, big Charles thrashing Rye, Jack & Robt. weeding in the garden, a fine day & warm

Saty. 22nd

young Charles at the road, Ephram Lewen, David & Mowhler cutting clover at Jo. Pepple's field, Pompey cut rum over the Cinder, & raked Hay, as did Charles, Jack, Alley, Philip & Robert a very warm day Ther. 79

Monday 24th June 1816

young Charles at the road & the Men, Ephraim, Lewen, Jo. Warner & Pet Pepple Mowing Clover, Charles, Jack &c. raking Hay in the forenoon, Pompey after the Hour that had gone away in the evening, Pompey & Charles hauled in 1 load of Hay when it came on rain a very warm day Ther. 88 yesty. 91

Sunday 25th

Charles & the Ox cart at the road, Ephraim, Hagg Mowler, his Son & Pete Pepple mowing Clover, & Lewen till breakfast. Pompey & Charles cleaned 31 Bushels of Rye & afterwards went to hanow Corn, it came on rain about 2 O'Clock which let all hands idle during the Evening, Lewen planted some Cabbage, Ephraim went in quest of the Hour & found them at Mr. Fowler's a very warm day — Jno. Lucas moved from Dennis young Charles sick, big Charles & Jno. Maynier hauling Wood forenoon, in the evening he ~~cut straw~~ hauled after them & Charles cut Straw, Ephraim, Pompey, Lewen, Henry Mcl. Jno. Lucas, Jno. Lucas, Woods Mowing, Jack & Robert loading &c. a damp day, not much rain — The Impeliter Idle forenoon

Wedy. 26th

Thursdy. 27th

Pompey went to Fowlers, Dolly & Phillis — afterward hanow Corn big Charles, Alley &c. set it up, young Charles sick Henry Mowhler his Son, John & Mich. Luke, — Woods, Ephram & Lewen Mowing, Ephram gave up at dinnertime, a damp day & often raining

Friday 28

The people finished setting up the Corn in the Morning & then all hands at the Hay, Johny & Jac. Mowhler came to part 11 O'Clock & washed, fair till after dinner then slight showers that damped the Hay get in but Wheat Load & carted up the end.