Saturday 29th June 1816

All hands with 2 of Henry Moulin's Sons employed in raking & hauling in 3 loads of Hay from Jos Pepper's Clover field, a fine cool fair day

Monday 1st July

yesterday was a fine day, last night a great deal of rain, the people employed at Sunday jobs in the forenoon, in the evening raking Hay, a dark Moist day

Chas Charles at the road

2 July

the people employed in Sunday jobs, say bringing Stuff from the hill, plaistering Cow, turning Hay & a damp cool day & rain occasionally, Lewen sick

Chas Charles at the road

Wedy 3d

All hands with young Jacob Luck from Dinnertime at the Hay, also Peter Snook & his waggon & daughter, got in all the Clover Hay over the Creek, damp & gloomy till about 11 O'Clock, afterwards a fine hay day

Pompey sick with wy

Thursday 4

All hands with 6 of the Turnpike people, Jac. Luck & P. Snook in the evening with his Waggon raking & hauling Hay, a fine day, Lewen Reid's family dined here

Pompey unwell

Friday 5th

All hands with young Jac. Luck raking & hauling Hay I went to Mrs W. Reid's funeral, a fine day, John & young Charles also at the Hay

Pompey unwell

Saturday 6th

All hands employed in raking & hauling Hay, Charles & the Ox Carts at the road a fine day Pompey unwell

Py sick

Monday 8 July 1816

young Charles & the Carts at hauling Stones, big Charles ploughing Corn, Ephraim & Lewen hauled in Hay, upon Jones cleaned the Well, killed a Ewe &c. Jack & Robert tying up Corn, Shelling Corn, raking Hay &c. a fine day & tolerably cool

Pompey sick

Tuesday 9th

young Charles & the Carts at the road, big Charles ploughing Corn, Jack & Robt. tying it up, Ephraim & Lewen mowing Pompey better a fine cool fair day

Wednesday 10

young Charles & the Carts at the road, Ephraim & Lewen mowing, big Charles ploughing Corn Jack & Robt. tying it up, Alley & Pip raking Hay &c. a fine moderate day

Thursday 11th

the Ox Cart hauling Stones, big ploughed Corn forenoon, all hands reading Rye, with Abraham Pepper, his wife, Mrs Wey & another woman, a fine day

Friday 12th

All hands at cutting & raking Rye, A. Pepper his wife & another woman assisting, Jack tying up Rye, W. Henry had John & the two Carts a fine day

Saturday 13th

this being a wet day, the people could only be employed in Sunday bifing jobs about the yard, Lewen planted a few celery plants &c killed a Lamb

Monday 15

Ephraim Lewen & James Rye reading, the two Charles Alley & Robt raking & binding, a dark damp day yesterday the hand line

Tuesday 16

Ephraim & Lewen cutting Rye, the two Charles raking and binding, Jack Alley &c raking Hay &c. the Turnpike people made 3/4 of a day, the Ox cart with W. Henry, Mr Wey & Wife with me fair forenoon, quite in the evening